LAMAR HUNT

FOUNDER

Born: August 2, 1932
Died: December 13, 2006

The National Football League and the American sports community lost a true treasure on December 13, 2006 when Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt passed away in Dallas, Texas at the age of 74.

Hunt was originally diagnosed with prostate cancer in '98 and quietly underwent many treatments and surgeries over the next eight years. He maintained his active schedule until entering the hospital for the final time on November 22, 2006. He is survived by his wife, Norma and their four children, Lamar, Jr., Sharron Munson, Clark and Daniel. He was also the proud grandfather of 14 grandchildren.

Hunt is universally recognized as one of the greatest sportsmen in American history. No one would have savored the 50th anniversary celebrations for the American Football League and the Chiefs franchise in 2009 more than Hunt, the individual who served as the guiding force behind the formation of both of those football entities.

Hunt served as a positive influence on the game for 47 years dating back to his inception of the American Football League in '59. He was the first AFL figure to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in '72, a remarkable feat considering he became involved in the game just 13 years earlier.

As the catalyst who brought together the whimsically-named "Foolish Club" comprised of the eight original AFL owners, Hunt's "impossible dream" became a reality when his fledgling league took the field for the '60 season. On June 8, 1966, the AFL-NFL merger was announced by NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle and on January 15, 1967, Hunt's Kansas City Chiefs were participating in the inaugural Super Bowl.

"Before there was a player, coach or a general manager in the league, there was Lamar Hunt," late Patriots owner William Sullivan remarked at Hunt's Hall of Fame induction ceremony. "Hunt was the cornerstone, the integrity of the league. Without him, there would have been no AFL."

Despite his many accomplishments, Hunt's humility was one of his most unwavering and most endearing traits. While he modestly declined to take credit for his efforts, he truly played an important role in the design, ongoing development and direction of the modern-day National Football League.

Whether it was serving as the central figure behind the formation of the AFL, playing a key role in the AFL-NFL merger talks in the '60s, or overseeing many crucial issues concerning pro football and the Chiefs franchise over five decades, few individuals helped change the face of America's favorite game for the better as much as this quiet Texan.

In addition to being a principal negotiator in the merger of the AFL and NFL in the late '60s, he was a contributor to the design of the NFL playoff format. He is also credited with accidentally putting the name "Super Bowl" on the NFL's championship game — the name coming from his children's toy "Super Ball." It was Hunt who not only recommended enumerating each Super Bowl with Roman numerals, but also suggested that the's league iconic championship trophy bear the name of Vince Lombardi.

For years, he was an advocate of the two-point conversion — a college and AFL rule that was finally adopted by the NFL in '94. Hunt had also lobbied for many years that an additional Thanksgiving game be added to the NFL schedule, efforts that were rewarded when the Chiefs hosted the first-ever Thanksgiving contest at Arrowhead in 2006.

Hunt celebrates the first of three AFL titles.

When the New Arrowhead officially opens this year, Hunt's legacy will be honored in the Founder's Plaza, an expansive outdoor area that forms a dramatic entrance to the north side of the facility. This engaging space will be anchored a nine-foot heroic statue of Hunt. In addition, eight fountains will symbolize the original eight AFL franchises, while Hunt's many innovations and contributions to the sports world will also be celebrated.

Perhaps Hunt's biggest influence on the league was his quiet, yet persuasive voice of reason. Hunt's name is rightfully mentioned alongside other legendary family surnames in pro football history such as Halas, Mara and Rooney for his commitment to putting the betterment of the league ahead of any potential individual gain. His AFL model for the equal sharing of television revenue has helped maintain competitive balance in the NFL for many years.

As the founder of the AFL, he helped pave the way for much of the modern growth of pro football.

Possibly the greatest tribute to his contributions to the sport was the naming by the league of the Lamar Hunt Trophy, which is presented annually to the champion of the American Football Conference. The early days of the AFL were problem-filled and often tenuous, but Hunt saw his Dallas Texans achieve on-field success. In '62, the Texans won the AFL Championship with a double-OT victory over the Houston Oilers, the first of three titles won by his franchise during the league's 10-year existence.

Hunt moved his team to Kansas City in '63, where the organization was renamed the Chiefs. His team truly put Kansas City on the "big-league" map, thanks to a star-studded squad that was the winningest in the 10-year history of the AFL. The Chiefs were among the first teams to scout and sign players from Historically Black Colleges and Universities, a progressive approach that yielded key performers such as DT Buck Buchanan, LB Willie Lanier, WR Otis Taylor and CB Emmitt Thomas.

Hunt's team repeated as league champions in both '66 and '69. The Chiefs claimed Kansas City's first major sports championship by defeating Minnesota in Super Bowl IV. In the late '60s, Hunt was closely involved in the original plans for Arrowhead. While other venues of a similar vintage have long since been demolished, the New Arrowhead serves as a point of pride for Kansas City.

Thanks in large part to the vision and lobbying efforts of Hunt, Jackson County (Missouri) voters approved a 3/8 cent sales tax in April of 2006. That measure raised $250 million for renovation efforts at Arrowhead. Hunt's longtime dream of hosting a Super Bowl in Kansas City appeared to become a reality when NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue announced on November 16, 2005 that NFL owners had passed a proposal to bring the NFL's championship game to Kansas City in February of 2015.

Unfortunately, a provision in the April 2006 election that would have resurrected the "rolling roof" concept for Arrowhead Stadium did not pass. The "rolling roof" was part of Hunt's initial vision for Arrowhead in the '60s. In its 21st century incarnation, the "rolling roof" would have provided a climate-controlled facility suitable for hosting the Super Bowl, the Final Four and other major events.

Hunt also worked diligently to bring college football to Kansas City — Arrowhead hosted the Dr Pepper Big 12 Conference Championship Game for the fifth time in 2008. In addition to numerous other college football games, Arrowhead also served as a venue for international soccer matches thanks to Hunt.

During the '90s, Hunt took great pride in his franchise's on-field resurgence as Kansas City compiled a 102-58 (.638) regular season record. Under Hunt's stewardship, the Chiefs developed an intensely-loyal fan following, not just in Mid-America, but across the country and around the globe. Kansas City represented the NFL in four American Bowl contests — Berlin, Germany ('90), Tokyo, Japan ('94, '98) and Monterrey, Mexico ('96).

Nicknamed "Games" during his childhood, Hunt's love of sports was his true lifeblood, an enthusiasm which led to his involvement in six different professional sports leagues and seven sports franchises. Hunt was involved in the development of both NASL and World Championship Tennis.

Hunt was inducted into the respective Halls of Fame of both United States Soccer ('82) and International Tennis ('93). He was also honored by the state Sports Halls of Fame of both Texas ('84) and Missouri ('95). In total, Hunt has been selected to 11 "Halls of Fame." In 2008, Hunt's bust was added to the "Hall of Famous Missourians" at the state capitol in Jefferson City, Missouri.

In '81, Hunt was inducted into the NFL Alumni Association's prestigious Order of the Leather Helmet. He also received the Francis J. "Reds" Bagnell Award from the Maxwell Club in '93.

In August of 2009, the Lamar Hunt Super Bowl Gallery officially opened at the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. This 4,000-square feet exhibit showcases the greatest moments in Super Bowl history, and is appropriately named after the individual who gave the world's biggest single-game sporting spectacle its current moniker.

In October of 2009, the Missouri DOT officially designated a stretch of I-435 near the Truman Sports Complex as the "Lamar Hunt Memorial Highway." In June of 2010, it was announced that noted author Michael MacCambridge will write Hunt's authorized biography.

Truly a sportsman for all seasons, Soccer America Magazine named Hunt one of its "25 Most Influential People" in '99 after the 95-year-old U.S. Open Cup was renamed the "Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup." That same year he also received the U.S. Soccer Federation Hall of Fame Medal of Honor, joining former U.S. Soccer President Alan Rothenberg as the only other individual to earn that prestigious distinction. In 2005, the U.S. Soccer Foundation honored Hunt with its Lifetime Achievement Award.

The Hunt family served as the Investor/Operators of the Kansas City Wizards franchise of Major League Soccer from '95-06 and reveled as the Wizards claimed the 2000 MLS Cup. The Hunt family still oversees the operations of two MLS franchises, F.C. Dallas and the Columbus Crew.

Hunt was also one of the founding investors in the six-time World Champion Chicago Bulls of the National Basketball Association. In total, the Hunt family owns 15 distinctive championship rings from five different professional sports associations (AFL/NFL, MLS, NBA, NASL and the U.S. Soccer "Open Cup").

A highly-successful businessman outside of sports, one of Hunt's most notable innovations was SubTropolis, the world's largest underground business complex, located just north of the New Arrowhead. Hunt also envisioned and developed Worlds of Fun, a 165-acre family entertainment complex which opened in '73, as well as the 60-acre family water recreation park, Oceans of Fun which was completed in '82. While both of those entities were sold in '95, Hunt Midwest Enterprises continues to oversee a diverse range of business interests.

Hunt was born on August 2, 1932 in El Dorado, Arkansas and graduated from SMU with a B.S. in Geology in '56. While at SMU, he was a three-year reserve end on the varsity football team. Hunt was an avid supporter of his alma mater and was an annual fixture at the Cotton Bowl. In May of 2008, he was posthumously inducted as one of the four inaugural members of the SMU Athletics Hall of Fame.

Hunt's wife, Norma, continues to be involved in numerous philanthropic and civic efforts in Texas and in Kansas City. She owns the distinction of being the only woman known to have attended all 44 Super Bowls, and was selected to preside over the coin toss at Super Bowl XLI along with Hall of Fame QB Dan Marino.

CLARK HUNT

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Chairman of the Board: 2005-10
Vice Chairman of the Board: 2002-04

Clark Hunt enters his sixth season as Chairman of the Board in 2010. He represents the interests of the Hunt family in the Kansas City Chiefs franchise.

Hunt is overseeing one of the most dramatic periods of change in the 51-year history of the Chiefs. From ushering in a new era of leadership for the franchise to directing the expansion and renovation of Arrowhead Stadium, Hunt's steady and decisive influence provides a clear direction for the organization and reinforces his family's longtime commitment to Chiefs fans.

Hunt's proven business acumen, coupled with two decades of experience working side-by-side with one of America's sports pioneers, his father and Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt, helped shape his vision for the storied franchise.

"Our fans are the lifeblood of the Chiefs, and our goal is to provide them with the best game-day experience in the National Football League and a team that can consistently compete for championships," Hunt said.

To meet that goal, Hunt and his family committed $125 million to the creation of the New Arrowhead Stadium – an extensive modernization project which will keep Kansas City "The Home of the Chiefs" for decades to come. When it debuts in the summer of 2010, the $375-million renovation will provide Chiefs fans with the first-class amenities of the finest sports venues in the world while maintaining the distinct soul and mystique that make Arrowhead one of the most iconic stadiums in the NFL.

In 2006, Hunt was asked to serve on the eight-member Commissioner Search Committee which recommended a successor to Paul Tagliabue. In 2007, Commissioner Roger Goodell appointed Hunt to the NFL's Digital Media and International Committees, as well as the Executive Committee of the NFL Management Council.

The Dallas, Texas native is also a founding investor-operator in Major League Soccer. Hunt serves as Chairman of Hunt Sports Group, the parent company that oversees the operations of both the F.C. Dallas and Columbus Crew franchises. Hunt Sports Group has been at the forefront of stadium development in the United States, constructing America's first soccer-specific stadium, Crew Stadium, which opened in '99.

In 2005, Hunt Sports Group opened Pizza Hut Park in Frisco, Texas. Pizza Hut Park anchors a 117-acre soccer complex which features 17 adjacent championship-quality fields. Through the innovation and vision of the Hunt family, Pizza Hut Park has become the model for soccer-specific stadiums in North America and is widely regarded as one of the world's most unique soccer facilities.

OWNERSHIP OF 50 OR MORE YEARS

The Chiefs are one of only six current NFL franchises that have been owned by the same individual family for over 50 years.

Ownership	Franchise	Years
The Halas Family	Chicago Bears	89
William V. Bidwell	Arizona Cardinals	77
The Rooney Family	Pittsburgh Steelers	77
The Hunt Family	Kansas City Chiefs	51
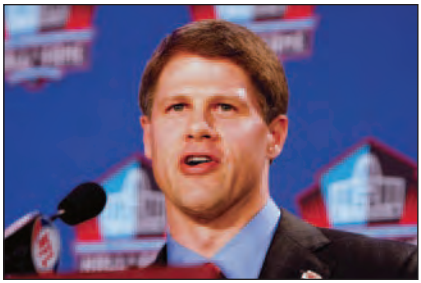
Bud Adams	Tennessee Titans	51
Ralph Wilson, Jr.	Buffalo Bills	51



Hunt leads the Chiefs organization.

As stadium construction, new investment, player development and a broadening fan base continue to shape the soccer marketplace in North America, Hunt is intimately involved in the development and direction of MLS. Chairman of the Competition Committee since its inception and a former co-chairman of the Technical Committee, Hunt currently serves as one of four members of the Board of Governors appointed to Commissioner Don Garber's Executive Committee. Hunt is also a member of the league's Labor and Philanthropy Committees.

Hunt graduated first in his class at Southern Methodist University in '87, earning a degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Finance. He was a two-time recipient of the university's highest academic honor, the Provost Award for Outstanding Scholar. During his career he was a four-year letterman on the Mustangs nationally-ranked soccer team, earning first-team Academic All-America honors as a junior and senior and serving as a tri-captain his final season. He was named one of the SMU Cox School of Business Outstanding Young Alumni in 2004 and in 2005 he was appointed to the Cox School Executive Board of Trustees. Hunt currently serves on the SMU Board of Trustees.

Clark Knobel Hunt was born on February 19, 1965 and graduated from the St. Mark's School of Texas in '83. He is married to the former Tavia Shackles of Kansas City. The Hunts are actively involved in numerous philanthropic efforts in both Kansas City and Dallas. The Chiefs Charity Game and Lift Up America are just two of several causes that have benefitted from the Hunts' efforts. The Hunts have three children – Gracelyn, Knobel and Ava.

CHIEFS HALL OF HONOR

Chiefs fans will be able to relive some of the most exciting moments in Chiefs and professional football history at the all new Chiefs Hall of Honor inside the New Arrowhead. Fifty years of franchise history will highlight this themed area in the lower level concourse, enabling fans to revisit football memories dating back to the franchise's first days of existence.

Exhibits will include the club's Lombardi Trophy from Super Bowl IV, the original AFL Championship trophy as well as original seats, artifacts from Municipal Stadium and a re-creation of Arrowhead's original Gold Suite. In addition, the Hall of Honor will take fans on a journey through Lamar Hunt's formation of the AFL. A virtual locker room will honor members of the organization enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame and the Chiefs Hall of Fame.

The Hall of Honor will also be filled with video and interactive displays that will allow fans to watch the team's unforgettable moments and feel the energy and passion that makes the New Arrowhead the home of the best gameday experience in the NFL.

Scott Pioli

General Manager

19th NFL Season
2nd with Chiefs

Scott Pioli was named the fifth General Manager in Kansas City Chiefs history by Chairman Clark Hunt on January 13, 2009. Regarded as one of the league's brightest player personnel evaluators, Pioli has justifiably earned a reputation as one of the NFL's top executives. He enters his second season with the Chiefs in 2010.

He joined Kansas City after serving as the Vice President of Player Personnel with the Patriots. During his nine-year tenure in New England (2000-08), the Patriots compiled an NFL-best 102-42 (.708) regular season record, won Super Bowls XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX, claimed the Lamar Hunt Trophy four times as the AFC Champion and won six AFC East titles.

A four-time winner of NFL Executive of the Year honors from national media outlets, Pioli has final authority over all football operations in Kansas City and reports directly to Hunt.

During his nine-year run with New England, the Patriots became widely recognized as one of the NFL's model franchises. Working in close concert with Head Coach Bill Belichick, the duo rapidly developed the Patriots into a consistent championship contender. Partnering with Head Coach Todd Haley in Kansas City, Pioli has embraced the challenge of developing and implementing a comprehensive plan to return the Chiefs to national prominence.

"My job is not to collect talent, it's to build a team," Pioli stated upon his arrival in Kansas City. "Individuals make Pro Bowls, teams win championships. That's our goal here. Win championships, win football games — to build this team with the right kind of people, with the right kind of players, to consistently compete for championships."

Pioli and Belichick's collaborative efforts over nine seasons in New England resulted in 14 playoff victories, tying the Pittsburgh and Dallas squads of the '70s for the most playoff wins by a franchise in a single decade. New England accumulated 11 playoff victories from 2003-07, the highest total by any team over a five-year span in NFL history.

Pioli and Belichick became the first personnel director/head coach tandem in league annals to win three Super Bowls during a four-year span (2001-04). They also helped the Patriots register nine or more victories in eight consecutive seasons, including the NFL's first 16-0 regular season in 2007.

The depth and versatility of New England's roster compiled by Pioli were key components to the Patriots success in recent seasons. In 2003, the Patriots won Super Bowl XXXVIII despite using 42 different starters, a league record for a Super Bowl champion. In 2004, the Patriots employed 40 different starters as they won their second consecutive Super Bowl. In 2005, the Patriots set a post-merger league record for a division champion by utilizing 45 different starters. In 2006, New England won its fourth straight AFC East title while using 39 different starters.

Under Pioli's direction, the Patriots used an effective combination of draft picks, free agent signings, trades and waiver claims to continually upgrade their roster. He has utilized a similar methodology to improve the Chiefs talent since his arrival in Kansas City.

Pioli's list of draft successes in New England was headlined by five-time Pro Bowl QB Tom Brady (D6b-00), who has twice earned Super Bowl MVP honors and was named the NFL's MVP in 2007.

He enters his 19th NFL campaign in 2010. Prior to his seven-year stint as New England's Vice President of Player Personnel (2002-08), he held the titles of Director of Player Personnel (2001) and Assistant Director of Player Personnel (2000) for the Patriots.

Pioli began his NFL career when Belichick hired him as a Scouting Assistant for the Browns in '92. He then served as Pro Personnel Assistant from '93-95, where he was responsible for the evaluation of both college prospects and veteran free agents, as well as negotiating various player contracts. He was promoted to Pro Personnel Coordinator after the franchise moved to Baltimore in '96.

In '97, he was hired by the N.Y. Jets as Director of Pro Personnel. He was credited with the signing of a number of veteran free agents who played critical roles in the Jets rebuilding process. In just two seasons working with Head Coach Bill Parcells, the Jets completed a worst-to-first turnaround, rebounding from 1-15 in '96 to 12-4 in '98. Those 12 wins in '98 were the most in franchise history and gave the Jets their first division title since '68.

Pioli played defensive tackle at Central Connecticut State ('83-87), where he was a three-time Division II All-New England selection. In '88, after graduating with a degree in Communications, he served as a graduate assistant at Syracuse University, where he also earned a master's degree from the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications.

He accepted a full-time coaching opportunity at Murray State, where he spent one season as the offensive line coach ('90) and one season as the defensive line coach ('91). He left the coaching ranks to join the Browns personnel department in '92.

He serves on the NFL's General Managers Advisory Committee that provides advice and counsel to the NFL Football Operations department on the integrity of the game, and gives feedback on possible areas for improvement. Pioli is also a member of the NFL's CEC Executive Working Group, a subcommittee of the Management Council Executive Committee.

Pioli sits on the board of directors for the College for Every Student Foundation, a national non-profit organization that partners with public schools in high-need communities to raise student aspirations and performance. He remains involved in fundraising for several organizations in his hometown of Washingtonville, New York and at his alma mater of Central Connecticut State, where he was enshrined in that school's Hall of Fame in 2005.

He established the Rose Pioli Scholarship in the name of his grandmother to benefit children of educators, professional firefighters, police and other emergency medical service providers in his hometown. He also created a scholarship at Central Connecticut State University for graduates of the College For Every Student program.

Pioli was born on March 31, 1965. He and his wife, Dallas, have a daughter, Mia Costa Pioli. Along with other members of the Chiefs, the Pioli family participated in Operation Blessing, an effort that annually provides food to over 3,000 local families. The Piolis have also assisted Harvesters in their mission to alleviate hunger in Kansas City.

The Piolis have embraced the thriving local arts scene and are enthusiastic supporters of the Kansas City Repertory Theatre. They are also benefactors of the Charlotte Street Foundation, an organization that supports and recognizes outstanding artists and their contributions to Greater Kansas City.

Todd Haley

Head Coach

16th NFL Season • 2nd with Chiefs
14th Year NFL Coach • 2nd with Chiefs

Todd Haley enters his second season as Head Coach of the Kansas City Chiefs in 2010. Haley was named to that post by Chiefs Chairman Clark Hunt on February 6, 2009.

The second-youngest head coach in franchise history at 44 years old, Haley consistently pushes his players with a passionate and demanding approach that has already paid dividends for the franchise. By consistently setting high expectations and instilling an atmosphere of accountability in the locker room, Haley has firmly put his stamp on the Chiefs heading into the 2010 campaign.

"Todd is an outstanding football coach with a proven track record of success at every stop in his career, and we look forward to his leadership," Hunt said upon hiring Haley.

Haley enters his 16th season in the NFL in 2010 and his 14th campaign as a coach in the league after beginning his pro career as a scouting assistant with the N.Y. Jets in '95. Haley is one of six current NFL head coaches who at one time served as an assistant under Bill Parcells, working six seasons with the highly-respected coach with the N.Y. Jets ('97-99) and Dallas (2004-06).

Haley enters his second season in Kansas City.

Haley pairs with General Manager Scott Pioli to give the Chiefs organization a highly-motivated, like-minded leadership tandem vividly focused on building Kansas City into a franchise that can compete for championships on a consistent basis.

Clearly, Haley and Pioli are a duo familiar with returning organizations to pro football prominence. Haley served on the coaching staff, while Pioli was the Director of Pro Personnel for a N.Y. Jets franchise that reached the '98 AFC Championship Game after finishing 1-15 in '96.

"One of Todd's unique qualifications is the fact that he's served with a number of different organizations, four in particular that have turned their franchises around," Pioli observed. "We have a shared vision of what it takes to build a successful franchise in the National Football League."

HALEY'S FOOTBALL CAREER

1995-00	N.Y. Jets	Scouting Assistant ('95-96) Offensive Assistant/ Quality Control ('97-98) Wide Receivers ('99-00)
2001-03	Chicago Bears	Wide Receivers
2004-06	Dallas Cowboys	Passing Game Coord./ Wide Receivers
2007-08	Arizona Cardinals	Offensive Coordinator
2009-10	Kansas City Chiefs	Head Coach

The Chiefs made dramatic strides in all three phases of the game under Haley in 2009. The Chiefs improved in 25 different statistical categories during the season's final eight games compared the year's initial eight contests.

Kansas City led the NFL over the final eight games of the 2009 campaign, averaging 5.2 yards per carry. The Chiefs averaged 142.6 rushing ypg game during the second half of the 2009 campaign, an improvement of 44.1 ypg compared to the season's first eight games.

Under Haley's direction, the club registered 346.3 ypg of total offense in its final eight games, 86.2 more yards per game than it did in the season's first half. The Chiefs also registered four of their five return scores in the season's last eight contests. Over that final eight-game span, the Chiefs improved their third-down percentage on both offense and defense, while permitted half as many sacks.

The Chiefs ranked fifth in the league in fourth-quarter scoring with 118 points in 2009. The four clubs that had more points in the final period all qualified for the postseason (Green Bay, Minnesota, New Orleans and San Diego). In addition, Kansas City forced 19 of its 28 takeaways (67.9%) in the season's final eight games. The Chiefs also scored four of their return TDs in the second half of the 2009 campaign.

In total, Kansas City improved in 30 different statistical categories last season compared to 2008. The Chiefs led the NFL in Red Zone scoring percentage (89.5%) and joined Tennessee as the only other club not to commit a Red Zone turnover. The Chiefs finished 11th in rushing offense (120.6 ypg) in 2009. Kansas City tied for fifth in the league with four TD runs of 20+ yards after producing no rushing scores from that distance in 2008.

Defensively, the Chiefs finished eighth in the NFL in three-and-out percentage (24.4%) and 15th in third-down defense (38.1%) after ranking 31st in both of those areas just one year earlier. Kansas City allowed seven fewer rushing TDs in 2009 and tied for fifth in the league in points allowed on its initial defense possession after tying for 20th during the 2008 campaign.

Perhaps the area where Kansas City made its most substantial progress was on special teams. The Chiefs improved to 12th in 2009 from 29th in 2008 in the comprehensive NFL special teams rankings compiled by Rick Gosselin of the Dallas Morning News. In fact, only Dallas, Arizona and Miami made bigger leaps in those rankings than the Chiefs.

Kansas City was fourth in net punting (40.8) and was seventh in opponent punt return average (7.1) a year ago. The Chiefs ranked third in the NFL with eight special teams penalities after tying for 22nd with 17 penalties in the kicking game in 2008.

Haley's squad also registered three road victories in 2009, tying for the highest total by a first-year coach in franchise annals. In addition, the Chiefs also evolved into a more disciplined team, finishing eighth in the league with 84 penalties.

Haley joined the Chiefs after a two-year stint as offensive coordinator of the Arizona Cardinals (2007-08). During his tenure with the Cardinals, he helped revitalize a franchise that hadn't reached the NFL title game since '47. In just his second season in Arizona, the Cardinals enjoyed a remarkable renaissance, winning the club's first division title since '75. Arizona enjoyed a sensational postseason run, reaching Super Bowl XLIII thanks in large part to Haley's explosive offensive unit.

In addition to his tenure with the Cardinals, Haley enjoyed previous NFL coaching experience with Dallas (2004-06), Chicago (2001-03) and the N.Y. Jets ('97-00), earning playoff berths with all four of those franchises.

Under Haley, the Cardinals offense was one of the league's most explosive units in 2008. Arizona tied for third in the league, registering a franchise-record 427 points (26.7 ppg). The Cardinals were fourth in total offense, averaging 365.8 yards per game. Arizona was second in the league in passing offense (292.1 ypg) and ranked sixth in the NFL with 20.5 first downs per game.

Haley's offensive unit in Arizona featured a trio of Pro Bowl performers in 2008. QB Kurt Warner led all NFC passers and established single-season franchise records with a 96.9 rating and 30 TD passes. Warner threw for 377 yards and three TDs in Super Bowl XLIII.

Meanwhile, WRs Larry Fitzgerald and Anquan Boldin formed the league's most potent receiving tandem. Fitzgerald led all NFC receivers with 96 catches for 1,431 yards with 12 TDs. He enjoyed a seven-catch, 127-yard, two-TD performance in Super Bowl XLIII and set NFL postseason records for receptions (30), receiving yards (546), TD receptions (seven) and 100-yard games (four) during the 2008 playoffs. Boldin had 89 receptions for 1,038 yards with 11 TDs during the regular season, while WR Steve Breaston had 77 receptions for 1,006 yards, making the Cardinals just the fifth team in NFL history to boast three 1,000-yard receivers in a single season.

Arizona's offensive resurgence began when Haley joined the Cardinals as offensive coordinator in 2007. That season the Cardinals ranked fifth in the league in passing (254.1 ypg) and set a single-season franchise record with 32 TD passes. Arizona was also second in the NFL with a 94.0 Red Zone scoring percentage. The Cardinals ranked seventh in the league in scoring by averaging 25.3 ppg after ranking 19th in that category in 2006 (19.6 ppg). The Cardinals also rose to 12th in total offense (344.1 ypg) in 2007, an improvement of 31.6 ypg after ranking 18th in that category one year earlier.

FOUR DIVISION TITLES FOR HALEY

Head Coach Todd Haley won four division titles with four different teams during his tenure as an NFL assistant coach.

1998	N.Y. Jets (12-4*)	AFC East
2001	Chicago (13-3)	NFC Central
2006	Dallas (9-7)	NFC East
2008	Arizona (9-7)	NFC West

 Reached AFC Championship Game*
 Reached Super Bowl XLIII*

MAXIMIZING RECEIVER PRODUCTIVITY

The following players all reached personal milestones working under Todd Haley, who owns a reputation for getting maximum productivity out of wide receivers.

WR KEYSHAWN JOHNSON (1999)
- Earned a second consecutive Pro Bowl berth
- 89 receptions for 1,170 yards with eight TDs
- Had a career-high 194 yards vs. New England (9/12)
- 21 combined catches in two-game span in December

WR MARTY BOOKER (2001-02)
- Combined for 197 catches for 2,260 yards,14 TDs
- Set a franchise record with 100 catches in 2001
- Earned Pro Bowl berth in 2002, becoming first Bears WR to do so since Dick Gordon in '71.
- Just the second Bears player with back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons

WR KEYSHAWN JOHNSON (2004-05)
- Combined for 141 catches for 1,820 yards, 12 TDs

WR TERRY GLENN (2004-06)
- Combined for 156 catches for 2,583 yards, 15 TDs
- Tied for the NFL lead with a 18.3 ypc avg. in 2005
- Back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons in 2005-06

WR TERRELL OWENS (2006)
- Caught 85 passes for 1,180 yards with TDs
- His 85 receptions remain his best season since departing San Francisco
- Paired with WR Terry Glenn for a 1,000-yard WR duo

WR ANQUAN BOLDIN (2007-08)
- Combined for 160 receptions for 1,891 yards, 20 TDs
- Established a career high with 14 catches at Baltimore (9/23/07)
- Voted to the Pro Bowl in 2008

WR LARRY FITZGERALD (2007-08)
- Combined for 196 receptions for 2,840 yards, 22 TDs
- Set NFL postseason records with 30 receptions, 546 rec. yards and seven TDs in 2008
- Earned back-to-back Pro Bowls berths in two seasons under Haley.

A SEASON OF PROGRESS

The Chiefs improved in 25 different categories over the final eight games of 2009 compared to the first eight contests. Here are a few highlights:

	Last 8 Games	1st 8 Games	+/-
Points Per Game	21.0	15.8	+5.2
Yards Per Game	346.3	260.1	+86.2
Rushing YPG	142.6	98.5	+44.1
Yards Per Carry	5.2	3.5	+1.7
Sacks Allowed	15.0	30.0	-15.0
Takeaways	19	9	+10
Interceptions	12	3	+9
Penalties	36	48	-12

He joined Ken Whisenhunt's staff in Arizona after serving a three-year stint as passing game coordinator/wide receivers coach for Dallas (2004-06). In 2006, the Cowboys offense ranked fourth in the NFL in passing (239.8 ypg) as QB Tony Romo became a Pro Bowl performer.

Haley's passing attack helped the Cowboys finish fourth in the league in scoring (26.6 ppg) and second in third-down efficiency at 48.8%. Dallas boasted a pair of 1,000-yard pass catchers in WRs Terrell Owens and Terry Glenn. In 2005, Glenn averaged 18.3 yards per catch to tie for the NFL lead and posted 1,136 receiving yards, the first 1,000-yard campaign by a member of the Cowboys since '99. In his debut with the Cowboys in 2004, WR Keyshawn Johnson recorded 70 catches for 981 yards and six TDs.

Haley joined the Cowboys after a three-year tour of duty as wide receivers coach for Chicago (2001-03). In 2001, the Bears went 13-3 and won the NFC Central for the first time since '90 as WR Marty Booker set a single-season franchise record with 100 catches. Under Haley's tutelage in 2002 Booker became just the second player in franchise annals to post back-to-back 1,000-yard campaigns, becoming Chicago's first Pro Bowl wide receiver since Dick Gordon in '71.

His initial NFL experience came as a member of the N.Y. Jets ('95-00), where he served as that club's wide receivers coach from '99-00. In his initial season in that capacity, he helped WR Keyshawn Johnson earn his second straight Pro Bowl berth as he accumulated 89 receptions for 1,170 yards and caught eight TDs in '99.

In addition to developing a lasting relationship with Pioli during his tenure with the Jets, eight current Kansas City assistant coaches were associated with that team during Haley's tenure. Haley worked as an offensive assistant/quality control coach for the Jets ('97-98), sharing a cramped office with current Chiefs offensive coordinator Charlie Weis, who held that same capacity in New York. Current Chiefs defensive coordinator Romeo Crennel was also a member of that Head Coach Bill Parcells' staff along with current Chiefs assistants Maurice Carthon and Bill Muir. Meanwhile, Richie Anderson, Bernie Parmalee, Anthony Pleasant and Otis Smith were all players on that squad.

He began his NFL tenure as an assistant in the Jets scouting department in '95, where he scouted regionally and assisted in player evaluations.

Born on February 28, 1967 in Atlanta, Georgia, Haley attended Upper St. Clair High School in Pittsburgh, where he was a multi-sport standout. He was a member of the golf squads at the University of Florida and the University of Miami and participated in the NCAA golf tournament during his time with the Gators.

Haley earned a degree in Communications from the University of North Florida in '91. He was the recipient of the University of North Florida's 2009 Distinguished Alumni Achievement Award, presented at the school's Alumni Homecoming Dinner in Jacksonville, Florida. The Distinguished Alumni Award is the most prestigious honor a UNF graduate can receive from the University of North Florida Alumni Association.

Haley and his wife, Chrissy, have four daughters: Taylor, Peyton, Kady, and Ella and one son, Richard Todd, Jr.

THE HALEYS – A FOOTBALL FAMILY

Dick, Carolyn and Todd Haley

Owning a distinguished football pedigree, Chiefs Head Coach Todd Haley is the son of Dick Haley, who spent 44 seasons in the NFL. After enjoying stints as the Director of Player Personnel for Pittsburgh ('71-90) and the N.Y. Jets ('91-02), the elder Haley served as a Personnel Consultant for the Jets (2003-07) and as a Player Personnel Analyst for Miami (2008-2009).

One of the architects of the great Steelers teams of the '70s, Haley's '74 draft class with Pittsburgh featured four Hall of Famers – LB Jack Lambert, C Mike Webster, as well as WRs Lynn Swann and John Stallworth. The elder Haley also selected Hall of Fame LB Jack Ham in '71 and tabbed Hall of Fame RB Franco Harris in '72, forming the nucleus of a team that would claim four Super Bowl crowns over a six-year span from '74-79. The elder Haley (right) was a standout halfback at the University of Pittsburgh and spent six seasons playing cornerback in the NFL with Washington ('59-60), Minnesota ('61) and Pittsburgh ('61-64).

The younger Haley spent his formative years in Pittsburgh, immersed in football with his father and the Steelers organization. A former waterboy and ballboy for the Steelers, his most dreaded gameday task was hauling film cannisters to the film crew's "crow's nest" atop of Three Rivers Stadium. Haley spent many summers as a youth at training camp with the club and frequently watched film alongside his father in their Pittsburgh home. In attendance for many of the greatest games in Steelers history, he later served as a member of the Steelers chain gain on game days during his teenage years.

Maurice Carthon

Assistant Head Coach

25th NFL Season • 2nd with Chiefs
17th Year NFL Coach • 2nd with Chiefs

Maurice Carthon enters his 17th season as an NFL assistant coach and his second year as Kansas City's assistant head coach. Owning a longstanding relationship with Head Coach Todd Haley, Carthon and Haley have coached together with four different NFL clubs, including the Chiefs. In addition to his duties assisting Haley, Carthon will work closely with the club's running backs.

Possessing five seasons of experience as an NFL offensive coordinator, Carthon also owns 11 years of pro experience as a running back. Along with Haley, Carthon was part of an Arizona staff that helped guide the Cardinals to a berth in Super Bowl XLIII.

Carthon has been a member of four Super Bowl squads as either a player or a coach, including wins in Super Bowls XXI and XXV as a member of the N.Y. Giants. In his 27 previous seasons in pro football, Carthon has either blocked for or coached running backs who enjoyed a 1,000-yard season on 18 different occasions.

Carthon won two Super Bowls with the N.Y. Giants.

In his first season with the Chiefs, Carthon was instrumental in the rapid development of RB Jamaal Charles. The third-year running back became the first NFL player to record 1,100 or more rushing yards on less than 200 carries. Thanks in large part to Charles, the Chiefs averaged 142.6 rushing yards per game the final eight contests of 2009.

In 2008, Carthon played a key role in the emergence of Cardinals RB Tim Hightower, who set a franchise rookie record with 10 rushing TDs. In 2007, Carthon helped RB Edgerrin James record the seventh 1,000-yard campaign of his career.

Carthon served as offensive coordinator in Cleveland (2005-06). In 2005, RB Reuben Droughns became the Browns first 1,000-yard rusher since '85. He spent two seasons with Dallas (2003-04), where he served as offensive coordinator/running backs coach on Bill Parcells' staff.

CARTHON'S FOOTBALL CAREER

1979-82	Arkansas State	Running Back
1983-85	N.J. Generals (USFL)	Running Back
1985-91	N.Y. Giants	Running Back
1992	Indianapolis Colts	Running Back
1994-96	New England Patriots	Off. Asst. ('94) RBs/Asst. Special Teams ('95) Running Backs ('96)
1997-00	N.Y. Jets	Running Backs ('97-99) Asst. Head Coach/RBs ('00)
2001-02	Detroit Lions	Running Backs ('01) Offensive Coordinator ('02)
2003-04	Dallas Cowboys	Offensive Coordinator/ Running Backs
2005-06	Cleveland Browns	Offensive Coordinator
2007-08	Arizona Cardinals	Running Backs
2009-10	Kansas City Chiefs	Asst. Head Coach

He spent two seasons in Detroit (2001-02), serving as offensive coordinator in 2002. Prior to his time with the Lions, Carthon served four seasons as running backs coach with the N.Y. Jets ('97-00). He also served as assistant head coach in 2000. RB Curtis Martin had three straight 1,000-yard seasons, including a 1,464-yard performance in '99.

The Arkansas State product began his NFL career on Parcells' staff in New England ('94-96). In '95, Martin was the lone NFL rookie to earn a Pro Bowl berth after accumulating 1,487 rushing yards and 14 TDs. In '96, Carthon helped the Patriots earn their first division crown in a decade as New England advanced to Super Bowl XXXI.

A veteran of eight NFL seasons as a player with the N.Y. Giants ('85-91) and Indianapolis ('92), Carthon played in 123 games, rushing 300 times for 950 yards with two TDs and catching 90 passes for 745 yards with a TD. He was part of Parcells' squads that won Super Bowls XXI and XXV.

An eighth-round selection of the USFL's New Jersey Generals in '83, Carthon compiled 2,102 rushing yards in that league, including 1,042 yards and 11 TDs in '84. He also paved the way for RB Herschel Walker, who gained 5,562 rushing yards during his three-year USFL career. Walker followed Carthon's lead to amass 2,411 yards in '85, the highest single-season total in pro football history.

Carthon was a two-time all-conference pick at Arkansas State and was inducted into that school's Ring of Honor in 2002. He was a prep standout at Osceola High School in Osceola, Arkansas.

Education: Arkansas State (B.S. '89). Born: Chicago, Illinois. Family: Married.

16th NFL Season • 1st with Chiefs
16th Year NFL Coach • 1st with Chiefs

Charlie Weis enters his first season as Kansas City's offensive coordinator in 2010. He begins his 16th NFL season and his 32nd season in the coaching ranks. Weis returns to the NFL coaching fraternity following a five-year tenure as the head coach at Notre Dame (2005-09).

Weis previously enjoyed offensive coordinator stints with New England (2000-04) and the N.Y. Jets ('98-99). He has coached in five Super Bowls, owns four Super Bowl rings and has been a part of teams that have appeared in six AFC Championship Games. Weis was instrumental in the development of Patriots QB Tom Brady, who entered the league as a sixth-round pick in 2000 and who has since become a two-time Super Bowl MVP and five-time Pro Bowl performer.

He compiled a 35-27 record as head coach at Notre Dame, tallying 19 victories his first two seasons, the most in a two-year period at the school since '92-93. He also led the Fighting Irish to consecutive BCS Bowl Games for the first time in Notre Dame annals. His squad went 9-3 to earn a berth in the Fiesta Bowl in 2005 and went 10-2 in 2006 to reach the Sugar Bowl.

Weis enters his first season with the Chiefs in 2010.

During his tenure in South Bend, Weis also tutored QBs Brady Quinn (3,919 yards in 2005) and Jimmy Clausen (3,722 yards in 2009), who posted the two most prolific passing seasons in Notre Dame history.

WR Golden Tate also flourished under Weis' tutelage, establishing school single-season records for receptions (93) and receiving yards (1,496 yards), while tying for the top mark in TD catches (15). Tate won the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's top wide receiver in 2009, concluding his collegiate career with a school-record 2,707 receiving yards.

The Patriots won three Super Bowls during Weis' tenure with that club as New England joined Dallas ('92-95) as the only other team in NFL history to win three Super Bowls over a four-year span. The Patriots posted a 53-27 (.663) regular season record and a pristine 9-0 postseason mark during Weis' tenure in Foxborough. Under Weis' direction from 2001-04, Brady threw 97 TD passes, the fourth-highest total in the NFL over that span.

The Patriots produced a 14-2 regular season record for a second consecutive season in 2004 as New England compiled 2,134 rushing yards, the club's highest total since '85. The Patriots capped the year with a victory in Super Bowl XXXIX vs. Philadelphia as WR Deion Branch was named the game's MVP. Brady was named Super Bowl MVP for a second time in 2003 as the Patriots posted a 32-29 victory in Super Bowl XXXVIII.

In 2001, Weis served as offensive coordinator and also took on the added responsibilities of coaching the quarterbacks after the death of coach Dick Rehbein in August. After QB Drew Bledsoe was injured in the second game of the season, Brady was thrust into the lineup.

Under Weis' guidance, the second-year signal-caller thrived, earning his first Pro Bowl berth. Brady played an integral role in guiding New England to a victory over heavily-favored St. Louis in Super Bowl XXXVI, and was named the game's MVP. Weis began his tenure on Bill Belichick's staff in New England in 2000.

Prior to joining the Patriots, the Trenton, New Jersey native spent three seasons working with Head Coach Bill Parcells and the N.Y. Jets ('97-99). It was here that he began his longstanding relationship with current Chiefs GM Scott Pioli and Head Coach Todd Haley. After coaching wide receivers in '97, Weis handed those duties over to Haley the following season when he was named offensive coordinator. The Jets would advance to the '98 AFC Championship Game, marking the club's first conference title game berth since '82.

In Weis' first tour of duty with New England, he coached the wide receivers ('96), running backs ('95) and tight ends ('93-94) under Parcells. The Patriots won their their AFC title in '96 to earn a berth in Super Bowl XXXI. TE Ben Coates emerged under Weis' tutelage and would later earn a Pro Bowl berth. RB Curtis Martin was named the NFL Rookie of the Year in '95 after setting a then-franchise record with 1,487 rushing yards. Meanwhile, WR Terry Glenn caught a career-high 90 passes in '96, the third-highest total by a rookie in league history.

Weis began his NFL coaching tenure as an assistant on Parcells' staff with the N.Y. Giants ('90-92). He tutored the running backs in '91-92, helping RB Rodney Hampton post a pair of 1,000-yard campaigns. He joined the Giants as a defensive/special teams assistant in '90, the same year the club claimed a win in Super Bowl XXV.

After a four-year stint as an assistant coach at South Carolina ('85-88), Weis served as the head coach at Franklin Township High School in New Jersey, where his squad won the state championship. He also spent time working in the Giants pro personnel department in '89 before joining the club on a full-time basis in '90. He began his coaching career at Boonton (NJ) High School in '79 before serving five seasons at Morristown (NJ) High School ('80-84).

In 2003, Weis and his wife Maura created the Hannah & Friends Foundation, a non-profit organization dedicated to improving the quality of life for children and adults with special needs

The foundation funds Hannah's Helping Hands, which provides quality of life grants to families across the country who care for children and adults with special needs. The Weis family opened the Hannah and Friends Neighborhood, a 40-acre facility north of South Bend, Indiana that provides much-needed housing and care services for adults with special needs.

In the spring of 2008, Weis traveled to the Middle East as part of a contigent of college football coaches who were visiting military personnel stationed in the region.

Romeo Crennel

Defensive Coordinator

29th Year NFL Coach • 1st with Chiefs

Romeo Crennel enters his first season as the Chiefs defensive coordinator in 2010. He begins his 29th year in the NFL ranks and his 40th season in the coaching profession. He comes to Kansas City after a four-year stint as the head coach of the Cleveland Browns (2005-08). He also served as the head coach of the East squad in the 2010 East-West Shrine Game.

In 2007, Crennel led Cleveland to a 10-6 record, the club's best mark since finishing 11-5 in '94. The Browns won a franchise-record seven consecutive home games in 2007 as six players were selected to the Pro Bowl. Crennel concluded his tenure in Cleveland with a 24-40 record.

Crennel resumes his familar role as a defensive coordinator after serving four seasons in that capacity with New England (2001-04), where he helped the Patriots win three Super Bowl titles. In total, Crennel owns five Super Bowl rings, has made six Super Bowl appearances and has been a member of teams that have reached the conference championship game on seven occasions.

Crennel enters his 29th NFL season in 2010.

During his four seasons in New England the Patriots registered a 48-16 (.750) regular season record and a 9-0 postseason mark. The Patriots registered 89 INTs during his tenure, the second-highest total over that span behind only Tampa Bay (95). Crennel's defensive unit also returned an NFL-high 14 INTs for TDs from 2001-04.

In 2004, the Patriots defense tied for second in the NFL, allowing only 16.3 ppg. Crennel's unit ranked third with 45.0 sacks, sixth against the run (98.3 ypg) and ninth in total defense (310.8). The Patriots allowed a mere 45 rushing yards in Super Bowl XXXIX victory vs. Philadelphia.

Crennel was named the NFL Assistant Coach of the Year by Pro Football Writers of America following the 2003 season. He led a defensive unit that allowed a league-low 14.9 ppg, the best single-season mark in team history. Remarkably, the Patriots defense did not allow an opponent to score a TD on 62 consecutive possessions over a five-game home span. New England led the league with 29 interceptions and six defensive TDs in the regular season, as the Patriots marched to an eventual win vs. Carolina in Super Bowl XXXVIII.

The Patriots ranked sixth in the NFL in 2001, surrendering just 17.0 points per game. During a five-game winning streak to conclude the regular season, New England allowed only one TD and seven field goals. St. Louis averaged an NFL-high 31.4 points per game in 2001, but Crennel's unit limited the Rams to just 17 points in New England's Super Bowl XXXVI victory.

Prior to a one-year stint as Cleveland's defensive coordinator/defensive line coach in 2000, Crennel spent three seasons as the defensive line coach with the N.Y. Jets ('97-99). It was there that Crennel began his association with Chiefs General Manager Scott Pioli and Head Coach Todd Haley. His defense never allowed more than 20.0 ppg in any of his three seasons with that squad. The Jets ranked second in the NFL by permitting 16.6 ppg in '98 as New York advanced to the AFC Championship Game for the first time since '82.

Prior to joining the Jets, the Lynchburg, Virginia native served as the defensive line coach for four campaigns in New England ('93-96). The Patriots defense allowed 12.8 ppg during the final five contests of the '96 season, helping to propel the club to a berth in Super Bowl XXXI.

Crennel began his NFL coaching career with a 12-year stint with the N.Y. Giants ('81-92), serving as the defensive line coach ('90-92), special teams coach ('83-89) and special teams/defensive assistant coach ('81-82). During his tenure with the Giants, the club qualified for the playoffs six times, claiming wins in Super Bowls XXI and XXV. While with the Giants, Crennel worked with Bill Parcells, Bill Belichick and Tom Coughlin, as well as current Chiefs offensive coordinator Charlie Weis.

Crennel began his longtime association with Parcells at Texas Tech ('75-77) where Parcells served as defensive coordinator. Crennel concluded his collegiate coaching career with a one-year stint at Georgia Tech ('80). He also spent two seasons at Mississippi ('78-79) coaching the defensive ends.

Crennel began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater of Western Kentucky in '70 before enjoying a four-season stint as the club's defensive line coach. A four-year starter on the defensive line at Western Kentucky, Crennel was elected captain as a senior. A rash of injuries during his senior season forced him to switch to offensive tackle where he earned team MVP honors.

Crennel was a prep star at Fort Knox High School in Fort Knox, Kentucky and Central High School in Amherst, Virginia. His brother, Carl, entered the NFL as a ninth-round draft choice (209th overall) of Pittsburgh in '70, playing one season with the Steelers before enjoying an 11-year career in the Canadian Football League.

Education: Western Kentucky (B.A. '70, M.E '71). Born: Lynchburg, Virginia. Family: Wife - Rosemary; Children - Lisa Tulley, Tiffany Stokes and Kristin Cullinane. The Crennels also have eight grandchildren.

Richie Anderson

Wide Receivers

14th NFL Season • 1st with Chiefs
2nd Year NFL Coach • 1st with Chiefs

Former Pro Bowl FB Richie Anderson enters his first season as Kansas City's wide receivers coach in 2010. He served an NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship with Kansas City a year ago, working closely with the Chiefs receiving corps. He began his coaching career as the assistant wide receivers/tight ends coach with the N.Y. Jets (2006).

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Anderson spent the 2006 season as the assistant wide receivers/tight ends coach with the N.Y. Jets. WR Laveranues Coles produced a career-best 91 catches for 1,098 yards that season, while WR Jerricho Cotchery tallied a personal-high 82 receptions and six TD catches in 2006.

Anderson earned a Pro Bowl berth in 2000.

A 12-year NFL veteran as a fullback, Anderson appeared in 161 regular season games (88 starts) for the N.Y. Jets ('93-02) and Dallas (2003-04).

ANDERSON'S FOOTBALL CAREER

1993-02	N.Y. Jets	Fullback
2003-04	Dallas Cowboys	Fullback
2006	N.Y. Jets	Asst. WRs/Tight Ends
2010	Kansas City	Wide Receivers

He rushed 318 times for 1,274 yards with four TDs and caught 400 passes for 3,149 yards with 14 TD receptions. Anderson also played in five career postseason contests with three starts. He originally entered the NFL as a sixth-round selection (144th overall) of the N.Y. Jets in the '93 NFL Draft.

Anderson was selected as the AFC's starting fullback in the Pro Bowl following the 2000 season when he led the Jets with a career-high 88 receptions for 853 yards with two TDs. He also earned All-Pro honors from USA Today and was named the Jets winner of the Byron "Whizzer" White Award that season.

He concluded his collegiate career at Penn State with 363 carries for 1,756 yards with 29 TDs. He added 37 catches and two receiving TDs. He was an All-America selection and named the Maryland Player for the Year by USA Today as a senior at Sherwood High School in Sandy Springs, Maryland.

Education: Penn State University (B.S.). Born: Sandy Springs, Maryland. Family: Children - Richie II and Reginald.

THE LAMAR HUNT AWARD FOR PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL

The Lamar Hunt Award is presented annually at the 101 Banquet in Kansas City based on five key criteria that were emblematic of Hunt's approach to the game: Vision, Humble Leadership, Integrity, Fan Dedication and Innovation. ESPN's Monday Night Football was the most recent recipient of this prestigious accolade. MNF play-by-play announcer Mike Tirico (left) is pictured as Chiefs Chairman Clark Hunt unveiled and presented ESPN with the Lamar Hunt Award at the 40th annual 101 Awards Banquet on March 6th.

Monday Night Football is the longest-running and most successful primetime sports series in television history. Like the 101 Awards, Monday Night Football celebrated its 40th anniversary in 2009. More than a football game, Monday Night Football has become an American institution. An exhilarating visual and technical masterpiece since its early beginnings, MNF has documented some of the NFL's most memorable moments, combining journalism with entertainment as part of its innovative and groundbreaking production.

After 36 years of ranking among broadcast television's top programs on ABC, ESPN has brought a 21st-century approach to MNF since 2006, as MNF has become the most-watched series in cable television history. MNF has earned 25 Emmy Awards throughout its history and has made an indelible impression on viewers — even non-football fans — since its inaugural season with an abundance of cameras and pioneering technological innovations. The Chiefs return to MNF for the grand opening of the New Arrowhead vs. San Diego on September 13th.

Mike Clark

Strength & Conditioning

7th NFL Season • 1st with Chiefs
7th Year NFL Coach • 1st with Chiefs

Mike Clark enters his first season as Kansas City's strength and conditioning coach after serving in the same capacity for six seasons with Seattle (2004-09). During his tenure in Seattle, Clark was a member of the Seahawks team that advanced to Super Bowl XL under Head Coach Mike Holmgren. Clark played high school football at Oak Park High School in Kansas City, Missouri and played center at Ottawa University in Ottawa, Kansas.

Clark joined the NFL ranks after a successful 25-year career as a collegiate coach. He was inducted into the USA Strength and Conditioning Coaches Hall of Fame in 2003. He was named the NFL Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by American Football Monthly in 2005. In addition, he was named the Strength Coach of the Year in '93 and 2000 by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association.

Clark enters his seventh NFL season in 2010.

As Kansas City's strength and conditioning coach, Clark is responsible for overseeing the Chiefs year-round conditioning efforts. Clark supervises Head Coach Todd Haley's stringent training regimen. Clark aims to build on those gains through a program designed to keep the Chiefs in top physical condition over the entire NFL campaign.

Prior to joining the Seahawks in 2004, Clark served as the strength and conditioning coach for 14 campaigns at Texas A&M ('90-03). In 2000, he added the duties of assistant athletic director to his job description. During his time with the Aggies, Clark served as president of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association in 2000.

The Wichita, Kansas native served as the strength and conditioning coach at Southern California ('88-89), Oregon ('83-87), Kansas ('82) and Wyoming ('81). Clark was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Topeka (KS) High School. He originally entered the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant with Kansas ('77-78).

Gary Gibbs

Linebackers

9th NFL Season • 2nd with Chiefs
9th Year NFL Coach • 2nd with Chiefs

Gary Gibbs enters his second season as the Chiefs linebackers coach in 2010. He joined Kansas City after spending three years as the defensive coordinator in New Orleans (2006-08).

Respected in both the NFL and college football ranks, Gibbs enters his ninth season in the pro game after a 22-year career on the collegiate level that featured six seasons as the head coach at the University of Oklahoma ('89-94).

Kansas City's defense ranked eighth in the NFL in three-and-out percentage (24.4%) in 2009, while the club registered 19 takeaways over the final eight games of the 2009 season. LB Tamba Hali made the successful transition from a 4-3 defensive end to a 3-4 linebacker under Gibbs' tutelage, establishing career highs with 66 tackles and 8.5 sacks.

Gibbs enters his second season with the Chiefs.

Gibbs' arrival in New Orleans in 2006 paid immediate dividends as the franchise reached the NFC Championship Game for the first time in team history. The Saints ranked 11th in total defense, allowing 307.3 ypg that season. After ranking 28th in the league in scoring defense in 2005, the Saints ranked 13th in that category under Gibbs in 2006, allowing 20.1 ppg.

During Gibbs' three-year tenure, New Orleans held 17 opponents to 17 points or less, posting a 15-2 record. He joined the Saints after spending four seasons as linebackers coach in Dallas (2002-05). During the 2004-05 seasons he was a member of Bill Parcells' staff that also included Chiefs Head Coach Todd Haley. Under Gibbs' direction, Cowboys LB Dexter Coakley registered 173 tackles in 2005, the second-highest single-season total in team history.

Gibbs entered the NFL coaching fraternity after one-year stints as the defensive coordinator at LSU (2001) and Georgia (2000). During his lone season in Baton Rouge, Gibbs' defensive unit led the Southeastern Conference with 18 INTs.

During his stay at Georgia, Gibbs tutored a defense that allowed a paltry 18.0 ppg and ranked ninth nationally in total defense. He coached a pair of first-round draft picks and future Pro Bowlers in DE Richard Seymour and DT Marcus Stroud.

GIBBS' FOOTBALL CAREER

1972-94	Oklahoma	Linebacker ('72-74)
		Graduate Assistant ('75-77)
		Linebackers ('78-80)
		Defensive Coordinator ('81-88)
		Head Coach ('89-94)
2000	Georgia	Defensive Coordinator
2001	LSU	Defensive Coordinator
2002-05	Dallas Cowboys	Linebackers
2006-08	New Orleans Saints	Def. Coordinator
2009-10	Kansas City Chiefs	Linebackers

Gibbs began his football career at Oklahoma, spending 23 years at the school as either a player or a coach. Over that span, the Sooners appeared in 16 bowl games and won three national championships ('74, '75 and '85). In his six seasons as head coach, Gibbs guided the Sooners to three bowl games: '90 Gator Bowl, '93 John Hancock Bowl and '94 Copper Bowl. In total, he posted a 44-23-2 overall record and posted a winning record in Big 8 Conference play each season.

Gibbs was largely successful in cleaning up a program that was placed on probation by the NCAA in '88. Gibbs produced 25 NFL draftees during his head coaching stint despite probation stipulations that severely limited the school's scholarship allotment. His defense averaged 4.09 sacks per game during the '89 campaign, a mark that remains the highest single-season average in school annals.

Gibbs began his coaching career at Oklahoma as a graduate assistant in '75 before being promoted to linebackers coach in '78. He guided the Sooners linebackers for three seasons before taking over the club's defensive coordinator duties in '81.

Gibbs' eight-year tenure as Oklahoma's defensive coordinator produced some of the finest performances in the school's illustrious history. Oklahoma captured the '85 National Championship and led the nation in total defense for three consecutive years ('85-87).

A linebacker at Oklahoma from '72-74, Gibbs helped the Sooners post a 32-1-1 overall mark during his playing tenure, including a national title in '74. Gibbs attended training camp with the New England Patriots as a rookie free agent in '75. He lettered in both football and baseball at Spring Branch High School in Houston, Texas.

Education: Oklahoma (B.B.A. '74; M.B.A. '76). Born: Beaumont, Texas. Family: Wife - Jeanne; Children - Whitley and Jordan.

Steve Hoffman

Special Teams

21st NFL Season • 2nd with Chiefs
21st Year NFL Coach • 2nd with Chiefs

Steve Hoffman enters his second season as Kansas City's special teams coach in 2010. Beginning his 21st season as an NFL coach, he owns a well-deserved reputation for rapidly developing young specialists into top-tier performers. Hoffman owns three Super Bowl rings as an assistant with Dallas.

Kansas City's special teams unit showed dramatic improvement under Hoffman's guidance last season. The Chiefs improved to 12th in 2009 from 29th in 2008 in the comprehensive NFL special teams rankings compiled by Rick Gosselin of the Dallas Morning News. In fact, only three teams made bigger leaps in those rankings than the Chiefs.

P Dustin Colquitt registered a 40.78-yard net punting average in 2009, the top single-season mark in Chiefs history. Meanwhile, Colquitt's 41 punts inside the 20 were the third-highest total in NFL history, shattering the previous Chiefs record of 29. K Ryan Succop's 86.21 FG make percentage tied for the highest mark by a rookie in the NFL since '70, while he connected on 17 of 17 FGs from inside 40 yards. Succop was named the Mack Lee Award winner, an honor bestowed on Kansas City's top rookie or first-year player.

Hoffman enters his 21st season in the NFL ranks.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Hoffman spent two seasons with Miami (2007-08) as that club's assistant special teams coach. Hoffman was key in helping the Dolphins orchestrate one of the finest one-year turnarounds in NFL history as Miami captured the AFC East title with an 11-5 record in 2008. Under his guidance in 2008, Dolphins rookie K Dan Carpenter connected on 21 of 25 FG tries.

In 2007, K Jay Feely established a single-season Dolphins record by connecting on 91.3 percent (21 of 23) of his field goals. Hoffman also tutored rookie P Brandon Fields, who led all NFL rookies with a 43.2-yard gross average that season. Prior to joining the Dolphins, Hoffman served as assistant special teams coach with Atlanta (2006).

Hoffman enjoyed a 16-year tenure with Dallas ('89-04) as that club's kicking coach. In addition to his duties with the specialists, he spent seven seasons as the club's offensive/defensive quality control coach ('89-95). He coached the club's kickers and served as offensive quality control coach ('96-99) before finishing his tenure with Dallas as kicking coach/defensive quality control coach (2000-04). During his tenure in Dallas, Hoffman's specialists established 15 separate club records. Special teams played a vital role in the Cowboys success during the '90s as Dallas claimed wins in Super Bowls XXVII, XXVIII and XXX.

Hoffman instructed the kickers and punters at the University of Miami ('85-88). With the Hurricanes, he mentored P Jeff Feagles, who has punted more times (1,649) for more yards (68,607) than any player in NFL history. In 2008, he earned a Pro Bowl berth with the N.Y. Giants in his 21st NFL campaign.

During a one-year coaching hiatus in 2005, Hoffman spent time with his own kicking and punting tutorial business and performed consulting work for various NFL clubs. He has served as an instructor at the highly-regarded Ray Pelfrey Kicking Camps.

The Camden, New Jersey native played quarterback, running back, wide receiver and handled both the kicking and punting duties at Dickinson College (PA). He spent one year punting for the USFL's Washington Federals ('83) and attended NFL training camps with Washington ('81, '83), Seattle ('84) and New Orleans ('85).

Bill Muir

Offensive Line

37th NFL Season • 2nd with Chiefs
33rd Year NFL Coach • 2nd with Chiefs

Owning 45 years of coaching expertise, Bill Muir enters his 33rd season as an NFL coach in 2010. He enters his second season coaching the Chiefs offensive line. Respected across the league, Muir came to Kansas City after spending seven seasons as offensive coordinator/offensive line coach with Tampa Bay (2002-08). Muir possesses NFL experience as both an offensive and defensive coordinator, as well as a background in the personnel arena.

In his first season with the Chiefs, Muir's offensive line showed dramatic improvement in the second half of the season. The Chiefs averaged 142.6 rushing yards per game over the final eight games of the season as RB Jamaal Charles ran for 968 yards to rank second in the league in rushing over that eight-game span.

During his tenure in Tampa Bay, Muir was part of a staff that helped guide the Buccaneers to a victory in Super Bowl XXXVII in 2002. Thanks to his offensive units, the Buccaneers also claimed NFC South crowns in both 2005 and 2007. Recognized for consistently developing some of the NFL's best offensive fronts, Muir's blocking unit paved the way for RB Cadillac Williams, who earned NFL Rookie of the Year honors in 2005.

Muir spent seven seasons as the offensive line coach with the N.Y. Jets ('95-01), where he began his association with Chiefs General Manager Scott Pioli and Head Coach Todd Haley. Under his jurisdiction in 2000, the Jets allowed 20.0 sacks, tying for the lowest total in the NFL.

RB Curtis Martin posted four 1,000-yard seasons during Muir's tenure in New York, including a team-record 1,513 yards in 2001 as Martin earned his fourth Pro Bowl nod. The Jets were fourth in the NFL in rushing in 2001, averaging 128.4 rushing ypg, the club's best ranking since '91.

Muir spent three campaigns as the offensive line coach for Philadelphia ('92-94). Thanks to his offensive front, the Eagles ranked ninth in the NFL, averaging 110.1 rushing ypg in '94. He joined the Eagles after a three-year stint with Indianapolis ('89-91). He served two seasons as the Colts defensive coordinator before assuming the post of assistant head coach/offensive line coach in '91. Muir spent four seasons as the offensive line coach for Detroit ('85-88) after serving in the same capacity with New England ('82-84).

The Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania native began his first tour of duty in Tampa Bay as a member of the personnel department. He worked as a scout in '78 before serving as a pro scout from '79-81. The Buccaneers advanced to the postseason in '79 and '81, including a berth in the '79 NFC Championship Game, a remarkable feat for a franchise that began play just four seasons earlier in '76.

Prior to entering the NFL ranks, Muir spent two seasons coaching the offensive line at SMU ('76-77). He served in the same capacity with the World Football League's Houston/Shreveport Steamers ('74-75). Muir enjoyed a stint as defensive coordinator at Idaho State ('72-73), in addition to coaching the defensive line and working as defensive coordinator at Rhode Island ('70-71).

From '68-69, Muir was the offensive line coach of the Orlando Panthers of the fledgling Continental Football League that fielded teams from '65-69. Muir was part of an Orlando staff that won the '68 league title game. Muir's first two coaching assignments were coaching the offensive and defensive lines at Delaware Valley ('66-67) and Susquehanna ('65). A standout tackle at Susquehanna from '62-64, Muir was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in '90 after being named to the school's "Top 100" players of all-time.

Education: Susquehanna University (B.A. '65). Born: Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Family: Wife - Barbara; Children - Keelan and Brady. The Muirs have five grandchildren.

Bernie Parmalee

Tight Ends

13th NFL Season • 1st with Chiefs
4th Year NFL Coach • 1st with Chiefs

Bernie Parmalee enters his first season as Kansas City's tight ends coach in 2010. He returns to the NFL coaching ranks after spending the past five seasons working for current Chiefs offensive coordinator Charlie Weis at Notre Dame (2005-09).

Parmalee served as the tight ends coach his final three seasons with Notre Dame (2007-09). He tutored the tight ends in addition to assisting with the special teams during the 2005-06 campaigns.

During his tenure with the Fighting Irish, Parmalee was instrumental in the development of three of the top tight ends in school history. Notre Dame was the only school to have two tight ends selected in the first two rounds of the NFL Draft from 2006-09. A second-round selection (38th overall) of Seattle in 2008, TE John Carlson registered 100 catches for 1,093 yards at Notre Dame. TE Anthony Fasano caught 92 passes for 1,102 yards for the Fighting Irish before being selected by Dallas in the second round (53rd overall) of the 2006 NFL Draft.

Parmalee is a nine-year NFL playing veteran.

TE Kyle Rudolph started all 13 contests as a freshman in 2008, becoming the first tight end to start every game as a freshman in Fighting Irish lore. He tallied 29 receptions, the most by a freshman in Notre Dame history. Rudolph was selected to the All-Freshman team by The Sporting News.

Prior to joining Notre Dame, Parmalee spent three seasons as an assistant coach with Miami (2002-04). During his coaching tenure with the Dolphins, he served as the tight ends coach (2004), the assistant special teams coach/offensive assistant (2003) and assistant special teams coach (2002). Parmalee tutored a position group in 2004 that was led by TE Randy McMichael, who caught a team-high 73 passes for 791 yards with four TDs.

Parmalee enjoyed a nine-year NFL playing career with Miami ('92-98) and the N.Y. Jets ('99-00). During his tenure with the Jets, current Chiefs Head Coach Todd Haley and Weis both served on that club's coaching staff.

He played in 134 games (26 starts), recording 567 rushes for 2,179 yards with 17 TDs and 168 receptions for 1,485 yards with three scores. He also registered 16 kickoff returns for 289 yards, as well as 123 special teams tackles. Parmalee also played in seven career postseason contests (four starts). Parmalee entered the NFL as a rookie free agent with Miami in '92.

The Jersey City, New Jersey native finished his collegiate career as the all-time leading rusher in Ball State history, tallying 3,483 rushing yards and 26 touchdowns. He earned varsity letters in football and baseball as a prep standout at Lincoln High School in Jersey City, New Jersey.

Education: Ball State (B.A. '91). Born: Jersey City, New Jersey. Family: Wife - Angela; Children - Nakia Marie, Tre Bernard and Torian.

Pat Perles

Assistant Offensive Line

4th NFL Season • 2nd with Chiefs
4th Year NFL Coach • 2nd with Chiefs

Pat Perles enters his second season with the Chiefs and his first as Kansas City's assistant offensive line coach. In his new capacity, he will tutor the club's blocking unit alongside offensive line coach Bill Muir. Perles served as the club's defensive quality control coach in 2009 and also worked closely with linebackers coach Gary Gibbs.

Perles joined the Chiefs after nine seasons in the collegiate ranks. He also owns six years of experience in the Canadian Football League after beginning his pro coaching career with the L.A. Rams. He joined the Chiefs after spending six seasons at North Dakota State (2003-08). He served as offensive coordinator during his final four campaigns. Perles joined the club as offensive line coach and run game coordinator. During his tenure at the school, the Bison posted a 49-17 record.

In 2008, Perles oversaw a North Dakota State offensive unit that averaged 29.9 ppg and 384.3 ypg. Under Perles' direction QB Steve Walker finished his career with 7,033 passing yards and was named the Great West Offensive Player of the Year in 2007. Meanwhile, RB Tyler Roehl finished the 2007 campaign with 1,053 yards, including a school-record 263-yard performance at Minnesota.

Perles begins his second season with the Chiefs.

Perles spent three seasons as the tight ends coach at Michigan State (2000-02) and also served as the club's co-special teams coach in 2000. He was instrumental in the development of TE Chris Baker, who established school career records for tight ends in receptions (133), receiving yards (1,705) and touchdowns (13).

Prior to returning to his collegiate alma mater, Perles spent six seasons with a trio of Canadian Football League teams. He served as the offensive line coach for Hamilton ('98-99). Under his direction, the Tigercats allowed a CFL single-season record 7.0 sacks in '99. That season, Hamilton registered a 32-19 victory vs. Calgary in the Grey Cup after losing the CFL's title game the previous season. He spent one season as the offensive line coach for Winnipeg ('97) after spending three years in the same capacity with Saskatchewan ('94-96).

The Detroit, Michigan native received his initial NFL coaching assignment as a member of Chuck Knox's staff with the L.A. Rams ('92-93). He began his coaching career as the defensive line coach for the University of Toledo ('89-91). He tutored DT Dan Williams, who was a first-round pick of Denver and later played for the Chiefs.

Part of a distinguished football family tree, Perles is the son of George Perles, who served 12 seasons as head coach at Michigan State ('83-94). The younger Perles served as a linebacker for the Spartans. He was a member of Spartans teams that played in the '84 Cherry Bowl and the '85 Hall of Fame Bowl.

Perles was an all-state selection as a nose guard at Upper St. Clair High School in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, the same high school alma mater as Chiefs Head Coach Todd Haley. Perles and Haley both grew up around the great Steelers teams of the '70s and served as ballboys for the club. Perles' father was an assistant coach with the Steelers ('72-81), while Haley's father served as Pittsburgh's Director of Player Personnel ('71-90).

Education: Michigan State University (B.S. '88). Born: Detroit, Michigan. Family: Wife - Karen; Children - Hannah, Joseph and Julia.

Nick Sirianni

Offensive Quality Control

2nd NFL Season • 2nd with Chiefs
2nd Year NFL Coach • 2nd with Chiefs

Nick Sirianni (pronounced SEER-ee-AHN-ee) begins his second season as Kansas City's offensive quality control coach in 2010. Sirianni assists Head Coach Todd Haley and the Chiefs offensive staff with self-scouting, computer analysis and opponent breakdowns. He also assists with the production of playbooks and gameplans.

In his initial campaign with the Chiefs, he worked with the club's quarterbacks and wide receivers during practice and performed a variety of functions on game day. Sirianni joined the Chiefs after a three-year stint as the wide receivers coach at Indiana University - Pennsylvania.

In 2008, Sirianni helped senior WR Ken Witter produce 66 receptions for 773 yards with seven TDs at IUP. Under Sirianni's direction, Witter recorded two of the top three seasonal totals for receptions in school history. In addition to his 66 catches in 2008, Witter had 67 receptions the previous season.

Sirianni enters his second NFL campaign in 2010.

CHIEFS VISIT WHITEMAN AIR FORCE BASE

As part of the club's partnership with the VFW and its "Return the Favor" program, Head Coach Todd Haley led a Chiefs contingent to Whiteman Air Force Base on May 26th. Haley was joined by members of the VFW, the club's quarterbacks and running backs, as well as former Chiefs players such as LB Bobby Bell, S Deron Cherry and LS Kendall Gammon, longtime broadcaster Bill Grigsby, as well as members of the Chiefs Cheerleaders.

Home of the U.S. Air Force's 509th Bomb Wing, the base serves as home to B-2 Stealth bombers that can engage adversaries with large payloads of traditional or precision-guided munitions to any spot on the globe. In addition to visiting with Colonel Rickey Rodgers, the airmen, soldiers and their families, Chiefs personnel also had a chance to get an up-close look at a B2, as well as Apache helicopters and A-10 Thunderbolts.

"I'm truly grateful and understand the sacrifices that you all make enable us to be able to go out there and do what we do," Coach Haley said from the tarmac. "And from the bottom of my heart, I want to thank everybody for that, and for these guys, I want to thank you for that because it is truly appreciated."

Emmitt Thomas

Defensive Backs

43rd NFL Season • 14th with Chiefs
30th Year NFL Coach • 1st with Chiefs

Emmitt Thomas returns to his football roots in Kansas City, entering his first season as the Chiefs defensive backs coach. Inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2008 and the Chiefs Hall of Fame in '86, Thomas played cornerback for 13 seasons with Kansas City ('66-78) and finished his career with a franchise-record 58 interceptions.

Thomas enters his 30th season as an NFL assistant coach and his 43rd overall NFL campaign in 2010. He was a member of both of Kansas City's Super Bowl squads, registering four INTs during the club's postseason run in '69 that culminated with a win in Super Bowl IV. He also owns a pair of Super Bowl rings working on Joe Gibbs' staff with the Washington Redskins.

Prior to re-joining the Chiefs, Thomas spent eight seasons coaching with the Atlanta Falcons (2002-09), including a stint as interim head coach for the final three games of the 2007 campaign. He owns seven seasons of NFL experience as a defensive coordinator, including a two-year tenure in that role with Minnesota (2000-01). The Vikings won the NFC Central and advanced to the NFC Championship Game during the 2000 season. Thomas held the same capacity with Green Bay ('99), helping CB Mike McKenzie earn all-rookie accolades.

He previously served as defensive coordinator for four seasons in Philadelphia ('95-98). In '98, the Eagles defense led the NFL in pass defense (170.0 ypg) and was third in the league in sacks per pass attempt (8.6). Philadelphia finished fifth in the NFL in total defense in '96 and fourth in '95, advancing to the playoffs with a 10-6 mark in both of those years.

Thomas is enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Thomas spent nine seasons as an assistant coach with Washington ('86-94) where he coached two Pro Football Hall of Famers – CB Darrell Green and WR Art Monk. Thomas served as the secondary coach his final eight campaigns with the Redskins, helping Green earn three Pro Bowl berths.

Thomas helped guide the Redskins to five playoff appearances, including wins in Super Bowl XXII and Super Bowl XXVI. He began his tenure with the club as receivers coach in '86 when both Monk and WR Gary Clark earned Pro Bowl honors.

The Angleton, Texas native began his NFL coaching career as the wide receivers/tight ends coach with the St. Louis Cardinals ('81-85). Under Thomas' tutelage, WR Roy Green tied for the NFC lead with 78 receptions in '83. He began his coaching career at Central Missouri State ('79-80).

Thomas registered 58 INTs in 181 regular season games, the fourth-highest total in NFL history among pure cornerbacks. His 938 INT return yards are also a Chiefs record. He also produced five INT return TDs and seven fumble recoveries.

He was named to the Pro Bowl or the AFL All-Star Game on five occasions and was a first-team All-Pro selection in '74 when he led the NFL with 12 INTs. He won two AFL titles with the Chiefs and was a member of the club's Super Bowl I squad, as well as the club's team that claimed a victory in Super Bowl IV. Thomas joined the Chiefs as an undrafted free agent in '66 from Bishop College, where he played quarterback and wide receiver.

Education: Bishop College (B.S.). Born: Angleton, Texas. Family: Wife - Jacqui; Children - Derek and Dedra. Derek is an assistant basketball coach at the University of Detroit.

Joel Collier

Assistant General Manager

20th NFL Season
2nd with Chiefs

Entering his 20th NFL season in 2010, Joel Collier enters his second campaign as Assistant General Manager with the Chiefs. Collier assists General Manager Scott Pioli with the day-to-day football operations of the club, working closely with the coaching and player personnel staffs.

Prior to joining the Chiefs he enjoyed a three-year stint with New England (2005-07). The Patriots had a stellar season with Collier leading the club's defensive backs in 2007. New England captured the NFL's first 16-0 regular season record and advanced to Super Bowl XLII. Thanks in part to Collier's secondary unit, the club ranked fourth in the NFL in scoring defense, allowing just 17.1 ppg.

In 2006, Collier assisted in guiding a secondary that helped the Patriots rank second in the league in scoring defense as New England established a franchise record by allowing a mere 14.8 ppg. The Patriots defensive backfield surrendered a league-low 10 TD passes, while Pro Bowl CB Asante Samuel registered a league-high 10 INTs.

After losing six members of the defensive backfield to season-ending injuries in 2005, Collier was instrumental in mentoring a secondary that allowed just 188.0 passing ypg over the club's final seven contests. Over an eight-week midseason span the Patriots utilized six different starters at strong safety. In total, 13 different starters roamed New England's secondary that season.

In between two separate coaching stints in New England, Collier served an 11-season tenure with Miami ('94-04). During a seven-year stretch as running backs coach ('98-04), the Dolphins produced a 1,000-yard rusher three times. Under Collier's guidance, RB Ricky Williams assembled the finest two rushing seasons in Dolphins history with a league-leading 1,853 yards in 2002 and a 1,372-yard effort in 2003. In 2002, Williams became the first Dolphins running back to earn a Pro Bowl berth since RB Delvin Williams in '78.

Collier was also credited with developing FB Rob Konrad into one of the league's premier blocking fullbacks. In total, Collier helped three different Dolphins finish among the NFL's top five rookie rushers.

Before tutoring Miami's running backs, Collier spent four seasons as a defensive assistant ('94-97). In that role, he assisted with the club's linebacker unit and was credited with assisting in the rapid development of LB Derrick Rodgers, who took home Sports Illustrated's Defensive Rookie of the Year honors in '97.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Collier served his first tour of duty in New England. He spent two seasons as the Patriots assistant running backs/wide receivers coach ('91-92) and one season as a pro scout ('93).

COLLIER'S FOOTBALL CAREER

1984-87	Northern Colorado	Linebacker
1988-89	Syracuse	Graduate Assistant
1990	Tampa Bay Buccaneers	Off. Assistant
1991-93	New England Patriots	Asst. RBs/Wide Receivers ('91-92) Pro Scout ('93)
1994-04	Miami Dolphins	Defensive Asst. ('94-97) Running Backs ('98-04)
2005-07	New England Patriots	Asst. DBs ('05) Secondary ('06-07)
2009-10	Kansas City Chiefs	Assistant GM

Collier began his NFL coaching career as an offensive assistant in Tampa Bay ('90) following a two-year stay as a graduate assistant at Syracuse ('88-89), working on the same staff as current Chiefs General Manager Scott Pioli. Collier was a three-year starter at inside linebacker for Northern Colorado.

Collier enters his 20th NFL campaign in 2010.

The Buffalo, New York native hails from a bloodline of NFL instruction. Collier's father, Joe Collier, served as Buffalo Bills head coach ('66-68) and spent the following 20 seasons as an assistant with Denver ('69-88). The elder Collier was the architect of the Broncos 3-4 defensive scheme of the late '70s that became known as the "Orange Crush." Denver would reach three Super Bowl while Collier's father served as defensive coordinator.

Education: University of Northern Colorado (B.A. '87). Born: Buffalo, New York. Family: Wife - Shirley Ann; Children - Jeremy Grayson and Evelyn.

PHIL EMERY
DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

A 30-year football veteran, Phil Emery enters his 13th NFL campaign and his second as the Chiefs Director of College Scouting. He previously served in the same capacity for Atlanta from 2004-08 before working as a regional scout for Atlanta leading up to the 2009 draft. He also enjoyed a stint as an area scout for Chicago ('98-04).

The Garden City, Michigan native served as the Director of Strength and Conditioning Services and as an Associate Professor at the U.S. Naval Academy from '91-98. He was responsible for the development, administration and supervision of all strength and conditioning activities for 4,000 Midshipmen. In '96, his program helped the football team to its first winning season in 15 years.

Emery joined the Naval Academy after serving as the assistant strength and conditioning coach at Tennessee ('87-91). Prior to joining the Volunteers, he served as the defensive line and strength and conditioning coach at Saginaw Valley State ('85-87). He also coached the defensive line at Georgetown College ('84-85) after serving as the offensive line and strength and conditioning coach at Western New Mexico ('82-84). Emery began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Central Michigan ('81-82) after serving as a student assistant at Wayne State.

Education: Western New Mexico (M.A.T. '83), Wayne State (B.S. '81). Family: Wife - Beth; Child - April.

RAY FARMER
DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Ray Farmer begins his fifth season with the Chiefs as the club's Director of Pro Personnel in 2009. He joined Kansas City after a four-year stint working as a pro scout with the Atlanta Falcons from 2002-05. Farmer oversees the scouting of all players with professional experience. In addition to evaluating current players in the NFL, he also scouts players in the Canadian Football League and all other pro leagues.

A fourth-round draft choice of Philadelphia in '96, Farmer spent three seasons playing linebacker for the Eagles. He saw action in 32 games with 16 starts before his career was curtailed by a knee injury. During his stint with the Eagles, Farmer's defensive coordinator was Emmitt Thomas, who was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2008 and still holds a Chiefs record with 58 career INTs.

A standout safety at Duke from '92-95, Farmer was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection for the Blue Devils and was also named to the conference All-Academic Team in '94. The White Plains, New York native set an NCAA career record during his collegiate career by blocking eight PATs. He joined the Falcons in 2002 after serving as the Academic Coordinator for Football at his alma mater, where he also assisted in football recruiting.

Education: Duke University (B.A. '96). Family: Wife - Vernet; Children - Boyd and Kennedy.

DOM GREEN
REGIONAL SCOUT

Dom Green was promoted to a regional scout for Kansas City in 2010 after joining the club a year ago. He spent three campaigns as a scout with Tampa Bay (2006-08). He previously served as the head coach at Southwest Mississippi Community College (2001-05) after coaching the offensive and defensive lines for two campaigns ('99-00). Green spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Middle Tennessee State ('95, '97-98). He served as a strength intern with the Miami Dolphins in '96.

The Largo, Florida native served as a graduate assistant at the University of Mississippi ('93-94), working with the defensive backs, offensive line and as a strength coach. Green began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Mississippi College in '92, working with tight ends and offensive tackles.

Education: Mississippi College (M.E. '93), (B.S. '91). Family: Wife - Jennifer; Children - Jackson and Mary Lauren.

JIM NAGY
REGIONAL SCOUT

Jim Nagy enters his second season with Kansas City as a regional scout. Prior to joining the Chiefs, he spent seven years as a scout with New England (2002-08). He has been involved with teams that have made a total of four Super Bowl appearances and won three championships, including two Super Bowl championships with New England. He also spent one year with Washington and three seasons as the Director of NFL Scouting for War Room Scouting, Inc. ('98-01). Nagy also worked with SFX Sports Group as a recruiting coordinator and draft consultant ('97-00).

The Frankfort, Michigan native began his NFL scouting career as an intern with Green Bay during their Super Bowl XXXI season in '96. He has also written an NFL column for The Sporting News (2000-01) and served as an on-set consultant for The NFL Today ('98-00). He lettered in football, basketball, baseball and track at Traverse City High School in Traverse City, MI.

Education: University of Michigan (B.A. '96). Family: Wife - Lindsay; Children - Hayden and Lillian.

WILLIE DAVIS
AREA SCOUT

Former Chiefs WR Willie Davis enters his fifth season as an area scout with the Chiefs in 2009. Davis enjoyed a five-year playing career with the Chiefs ('91-95), playing in 63 games (58 starts), catching 172 passes for 3,014 yards (17.5 avg.) with 20 TDs. After spending the '90-91 seasons on the club's practice squad, he honed his skills with the World League's Orlando Thunder and was named the Chiefs Mack Lee Hill Award winner following the '92 campaign. Davis spent three seasons ('96-98) with Houston/Tennessee. In 108 career NFL games (97 starts), Davis accumulated 286 receptions for 4,503 yards with 33 TDs.

The Central Arkansas product served an NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship with Indianapolis in 2005 and with Kansas City in 2004 after serving as WRs coach at Arkansas - Pine Bluff in 2003. A native of Altheimer, Arkansas, Davis was an all-state selection in football, basketball and track. He concluded his collegiate career at Central Arkansas with 63 catches for 667 yards and 10 TDs.

Education: University of Central Arkansas (B.S. 2006) Family: Wife - Sheronda; Children - Taylor and Andre.

TERRY DELP
AREA SCOUT

Terry Delp enters his 10th year with the Chiefs and is in his fifth season as an area scout for the club. Delp originally joined the Chiefs as an intern in the personnel department following his graduation from the University of Kansas in 2001.

Prior to being named one of the club's area scouts, he served as Scouting Administrator/Football Operations for the Chiefs. In that role, he evaluated talent at local colleges, assisted in the department's preparation for the NFL Draft and helped maintain the team's college scouting database. Delp also handled a number of operational duties for the club, including work with the team's football budget.

A graduate of Great Bend High School in Great Bend, Kansas, Delp was an all-area selection as both a cornerback and wide receiver on the football squad. He also lettered in basketball, baseball and tennis.

Education: University of Kansas (B.S. 2001). Family: Wife - Jennifer; Child - Jackson.

CHIEFS VISIT FORT LEAVENWORTH

Chiefs General Manager Scott Pioli led a Chiefs contingent to Fort Leavenworth on May 11th as part of the club's partnership with the VFW. Pioli was accompanied by members of the club's defensive line, "Voice of the Chiefs" Mitch Holthus, VFW leaders and members of the Chiefs Cheerleaders. The visit began at the installation's PX, where Lt. General Robert Caslen welcomed the Chiefs. A former football letterman as a center at Army, Caslen even got into a three-point stance when was informed that the Chiefs defensive linemen were on base. The oldest active Army post located west of the Mississippi River, Fort Leavenworth is recognized as the "Intellectual Center of the Army" as home of the US Army Command and General Staff College.

"This is an honor for us," Pioli said. "The team (at Fort Leavenworth) does much more than this (football) team. I don't mean that disrespectfully for our guys or what we do in our profession, but this team and the things that you accomplish - without you taking care of our country, we don't have the right or the ability to do what we do."

Perhaps the most moving portion of the visit came at the famed Buffalo Soldier Monument (below), a tribute conceived by General Colin Powell to African-American soldiers in the 9th and 10th Cavalry Regiments who helped settle the American West. At the monument, the Chiefs met with the mothers, spouses and children of fallen soldiers from Fort Leavenworth who were serving in Iraq and Afghanistan. The visit included autographs, photos, hugs, handshakes and expressions of mutual appreciation.

TRIP MACCRACKEN
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

MacCracken enters his first year as the Chiefs Director of Football Administration. He arrived in Kansas City after spending 11 seasons with Cleveland ('99-09), where his duties included contract negotiations, as well as other responsibilities in football operations. During his tenure with the Browns, he served as Legal Counsel (2009), Director of Football Administration (2006-08), Salary Cap Coordinator (2001-05) and Salary Cap Administrator ('99-00).

Prior to joining the Browns, MacCracken served an internship at the NFL Management Council in '98. He earned a degree from the Duke University School of Law in '99 after graduating Cum Laude from Hamilton College in Clinton, New York in '96. During the fall of '94, the Hudson, Ohio native interned at the White House and worked for the Washington Redskins on game days. MacCracken captained the football and baseball teams as a prep at Hawken School in Gates Mills, Ohio.

Education: Duke University School of Law (J.D. '99), Hamilton College (B.A. '96). Family: Wife - Beth.

KATIE DOUGLASS
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Katie Douglass enters her first season as the Chiefs Director of Player Development. Her ultimate objective is to assist players in making a positive contribution to the Chiefs and the NFL.

Douglass served as a Venue Manager at the Vancouver 2010 Winter Olympic Games. As Event Manager for the Chicago 2016 Olympic Committee, Douglass forged relationships with key corporate, political and sports decision-makers. The San Antonio, Texas native spent nearly five years with the New England Patriots, where her duties included Player Development, Community Affairs and Youth Football initiatives. She was instrumental in helping the franchise earn numerous NFL Player Development awards.

Douglass enjoyed a two-year stint working in Player and Employee Development for the National Football League after beginning her professional career at a private law firm in New York. Douglass earned a Masters of Education in Counseling/Sport Psychology from Boston University and received her undergraduate degree from Bryn Mawr College.

Education: Boston University (M.E. '07), Bryn Mawr College (B.A. '00). Family: Single.

Denny Thum

President

37th NFL Season
37th with Chiefs

Denny Thum was promoted to President of the Kansas City Chiefs on May 8, 2009 by Chiefs Chairman Clark Hunt. Thum oversees all aspects of the club's business operations and reports directly to Hunt.

"Denny has been an outstanding member of the Chiefs organization for almost four decades," Hunt said. "We are very fortunate to have a person with his level of experience and expertise running the business."

In addition to his day-to-day responsibilities managing the Chiefs business operation, Thum has been heavily involved with the Hunt family in the development of the New Arrowhead, which will celebrate its grand opening in 2010. Thum has also been the club's primary liaison with Missouri Western State University during the construction of the Chiefs new training camp facility in St. Joseph, Missouri.

One of the NFL's most respected administrators, Thum continues to represent the franchise at the league level, and frequently supports the organization's involvement with various civic and charitable groups in the Kansas City community.

Thum is the fourth President of the Chiefs.

Entering his 37th season of service with the Chiefs organization in 2010, Thum is one of just two current members of the Chiefs organization who own the distinction of being continuously employed by the team during the tenure of every head coach in franchise history. Over those past 36 seasons, Thum has been an important player in helping the franchise evolve with a changing business and NFL climate, serving in a variety of roles.

Prior to his appointment as the franchise's interim President in December of 2008, Thum had served as the franchise's Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer since May of 2006. In that capacity, he oversaw the budgets for the business side of the Chiefs operation and worked in conjunction with team ownership in formulating short-term and long-term strategic plans to ensure the continued vitality of the Chiefs franchise in Kansas City.

Before taking on his present duties, Thum had played a major role in the club's day-to-day football operation. With the advent of the salary cap in '94, he worked to formulate Kansas City's strategy relative to player compensation and the salary cap. He was also intimately involved in the negotiation of Kansas City's player contracts. In addition, he was responsible for assisting with the preparation of the entire football budget. He worked closely with the football staff and oversaw the coordination of the club's training camp operations and other team logistical issues.

Thum was promoted to the post of Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer in May of 2006. He had served the previous 10 seasons as the club's Executive Vice President/Assistant General Manager. Thum originally received the title of Assistant General Manager in '89 and added the responsibilities of Executive Vice President to his Assistant GM duties in '96.

The St. Louis, Missouri native began his longtime tenure with Kansas City's NFL franchise as a staff accountant in '74 before being promoted to Chief Accountant in '82. He was named Director of Accounting in '83 before being elevated to the position of Assistant to the General Manager from '84-88.

Thum is an alumnus of St. Louis University High School in St. Louis and is a '74 graduate of Rockhurst College in Kansas City. He currently serves on Rockhurst University's Board of Trustees after previously sitting on the Alumni Board of Directors. He was selected as the school's 2006 Alumnus of the Year for Outstanding Achievement and has assisted with fundraising efforts for Rockhurst and its athletic program for many years.

Thum is on the Board of Directors for the St. Joseph Medical Center Foundation. He is also an active board member with SAFE (Surviving Spouse and Family Endowment Fund), which benefits families of fallen police, fire and emergency personnel in the Kansas City area. He and his wife Carmen also take a hands-on role with a number of other charitable causes in Kansas City, including the Medical Missions Foundation and the Children's Center for the Visually Impaired. The Thums reside in Kansas City, Missouri with their two daughters - Megan and Lindsay.

Mark Donovan

Chief Operating Officer

12th NFL Season
2nd with Chiefs

Mark Donovan enters his second season as Kansas City's Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. Entering his 12th season in the National Football League, Donovan reports to President Denny Thum. He works with Chiefs Chairman Clark Hunt and Thum in directing the club's business operations.

"Mark's track record of success on the business side of the NFL has earned the respect and praise of the entire league," Hunt commented upon hiring Donovan in May of 2009.

Recognized as one of the league's more innovative business executives, Donovan's ongoing efforts have further strengthened the Chiefs brand. He is also a driving force in the efforts to further the reputation of the New Arrowhead as a premiere entertainment destination. That objective begins with improving the overall Chiefs gameday experience.

Thanks to the highly-anticipated renovations to the "Home of the Chiefs," the New Arrowhead now boasts the Chiefs Hall of Honor, the Founder's Plaza, the Horizon Level and a number of other fan-friendly features that should only enhance the connection between Chiefs supporters and their favorite team.

Donovan joined the Chiefs executive team in 2009.

From hosting one of world's most popular sports franchises, Manchester United, at the New Arrowhead to bringing top college football rivalries and other marquee events to Mid-America, Donovan is constantly striving to make Kansas City a major player in the national sports scene.

In 2010, Donovan worked with the Chiefs sales team to extend a multi-year radio agreement with 101 The Fox (KCFX-FM) as the flagship station of the Chiefs Fox Football Radio Network, while forging a groundbreaking new partnership with Sports Radio 810 (WHB-AM). These affiliations will give Chiefs fans more coverage of their team than ever before.

Donovan's efforts to create compelling year-round Chiefs programming aren't limited to traditional media means. He leads a team has rapidly transformed kcchiefs.com into the foremost destination for complete coverage of the Kansas City Chiefs on the web.

He came to Kansas City after a six-year stint as Senior Vice President of Business Operations for the Philadelphia Eagles (2003-08). During his tenure in Philadelphia, Lincoln Financial Field hosted major concerts, international soccer contests, as well as college football and NCAA championship events.

Donovan led the Eagles efforts in sponsorship sales and services, television and radio production, retail operations, event acquisition and ticket sales, as well as new media strategy. He also directed premium sales and customer service.

Prior to joining the Eagles, Donovan was the NFL's Senior Director of Sales and Marketing where he played an active role in developing new revenue for the league. Upon his arrival at the NFL office in September of '99, Donovan managed the relationships with the league's major corporate partners and oversaw numerous league-wide marketing initiatives. He served as Director of Sales and Marketing for the National Hockey League from '97-99 after a five-year stint in the private business sector.

Donovan's tenure with Philadelphia saw the franchise gain several prestigious awards. In 2007, Forbes magazine, in calculating the brand value of the 122 professional sports teams, named the Eagles as the "fastest growing brand" in the NFL. Under his direction, The Eagles Television Network won 32 Emmys and 53 Telly Awards, while the team earned 11 Philadelphia Addys, including Best Television Campaign for the club's "You Can't Script This Stuff" campaign. In addition, philadelphiaeagles.com was selected the best overall web site among NFL teams three times during Donovan's tenure.

The Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania native graduated from Brown University with a double major in Political Science and Organizational Behavior/Management. He captained the Brown football squad as the club's quarterback and signed with the N.Y. Giants as a free agent upon graduation.

Donovan serves on the National Board of Directors of Pop Warner Football. He sits on the Board of Directors of the Kansas City Convention & Visitors Association. He is also a member of the Kansas City Sports Commission Advisory Board.

Along with his family, Donovan has been involved in a number of philanthropic efforts in Kansas City. He has helped foster the development of the Chiefs Community Caring Team, encouraging members of the organization to participate in ongoing club efforts with local charities.

He and his wife Kathleen have two children - Luke and Maeve.

IN MEMORIUM: DARVIN WALLIS

The Kansas City Chiefs organization mourned the passing of longtime Chiefs assistant coach Darvin Wallis on October 28, 2009. Wallis, 60, spent 26 seasons in the NFL coaching ranks with Kansas City ('89-07) and Cleveland ('82-88). He spent 19 seasons with the Chiefs as a defensive assistant/quality control coach before his retirement in January of 2008. He is survived by his wife Vicky and three sons: Tyson, Darvin, Jr. and Austin.

Wallis' 19-year tenure with Kansas City ranked as the second-longest stint by an assistant coach in franchise history, trailing only Tom Pratt (21 years). Wallis also joined Pratt by holding the distinction of becoming the only other assistant coach in club history to serve under four different head coaches. Wallis worked under Marty Schottenheimer ('89-98), Gunther Cunningham ('99-00), Dick Vermeil (2001-05) and Herm Edwards (2006-08). He began his NFL career with the Cleveland Browns under head coach Sam Rutigliano in '82.

A 36-year coaching veteran, Wallis was a member of 14 playoffs teams, including nine with the Chiefs. He was one of only six assistant coaches in Kansas City history to serve more than one full decade with the club. In addition, he was one of 19 coaches in NFL history to work for a team in all 10 years of a 100-win decade as Kansas City produced a 102-58 record from '90-99.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Wallis served in a similar capacity for seven years under Schottenheimer and Rutigliano with the Cleveland Browns ('82-88). Before embarking on his NFL coaching career, he tutored the tight ends and tackles at the University of Mississippi ('80-81). He also was the offensive line and strength coach at Tulane ('78-79) and oversaw the offensive front at Adams State ('76-77). The Fort Branch, Indiana native began his coaching career at Wilcox High School ('72) before taking the head coaching reins at Ajo High School in Ajo, Arizona ('73-75).

KCFX will broadcast all Chiefs preseason, regular season and playoff games live.

New in 2010, Sports Radio 810 WHB has secured exclusive rights to the second hour of the official Chiefs postgame show. Sports Radio 810 iss the official AM radio partner of the Chiefs, and owns exclusive live radio broadcast rights to the Chiefs weekly in-season press conferences with Head Coach Todd Haley and the other Chiefs programming.

One of the Midwest's most recognizable radio and television personalities, Mitch Holthus handles the play-by-play duties for the 17th-straight year, giving him more years of service than any other "Voice of the Chiefs" in team history. Holthus has called a franchise-record 254 regular and postseason contests for Kansas City. Only six active NFL play-by-play announcers have been in their current roles for more seasons than Holthus.

Holthus is a past president of the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association, an eight-time winner of the Kansas Sportscaster of the Year Award and was inducted into the Kansas Broadcaster Hall of Fame in 2008.The Smith Center, Kansas native also served as the voice of Kansas State athletics for 14 years from '83-96. In addition to his Chiefs duties, he began his duties as the lead TV play-by-play broadcaster for FOX Sports coverage of the Missouri Valley Conference in '95. In 2008, Holthus added TV play-by-play coverage of Big 12 basketball to his resume and continued to broadcast select Missouri Valley basketball contests.

Adding the color analysis to the Chiefs Radio Network for the 26th-consecutive year is QB Len Dawson, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in '87. Dawson was the MVP in Kansas City's Super Bowl IV triumph over Minnesota and guided the franchise to three AFL titles. Pro Bowl long snapper Kendall Gammon enters his third season providing in-game sideline updates. A 15-year NFL veteran, Gammon played in 106 games in a Chiefs uniform and was a member of Pittsburgh's Super Bowl XXX squad. Dan Israel serves as the Executive Producer of the Chiefs Radio Network. A member of the Chiefs Radio Network since '89, his talents have also been used by HBO, CBS, NBC and ABC. "Voice of the Missouri State Bears" Art Haines anchors the pre-game show, halftime and in-game reports.

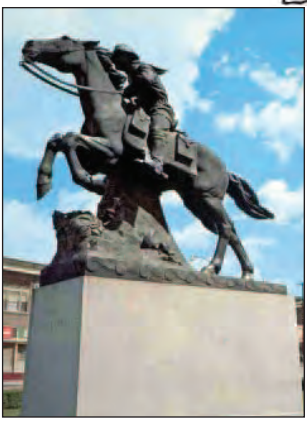
2010 CHIEFS TRAINING CAMP



Pony Express Monument

For the first time in 20 years, Chiefs Training Camp moves back to the state of Missouri as Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, MO becomes the "Summer Home of the Chiefs" in 2010.

"We are very excited about bringing training camp back to the state of Missouri," Chiefs Chairman Clark Hunt said. "Given the increased year-round interest in the Chiefs, it was important to our family to conduct camp closer to our fans in Mid-America."

St. Joseph and Missouri Western are located approximately an hour north of the New Arrowhead, and roughly 40 minutes north of Kansas City International Airport. This community of 72,000 and Missouri Western have embraced the Chiefs. The famed Pony Express got its start in St. Joseph in 1860, while noted Wild West figure Jesse James met his demise in the city in 1882.

The Chiefs enjoy a number of amenities at the new climate-controlled Griffon Indoor Complex (below), including state-of-the-art locker rooms, training rooms, meeting rooms, weight room facilities and a 120-yard indoor field. In addition to the indoor practice area, two 120-yard regulation NFL grass fields have been installed, in addition to the artificial surface of Spratt Stadium. Blum Union houses the team's dining needs and serves as the club's media headquarters.

The Missouri Development Finance Board approved a $25 million tax credit in June of 2009 to help bring Chiefs training camp back to Missouri. Through the Hunt family's additional contributions to the Arrowhead project, the family and the Chiefs organization made a $10 million investment toward the Griffon Indoor Complex at Missouri Western.

The Kansas City Chiefs have committed to holding the club's training camp in the state of Missouri for the next 10 years, while the club and Missouri Western State University agreed to the university's plans for the current training facility that will keep Kansas City's training camp in St. Joseph for a minimum of five years.

DIRECTIONS TO TRAINING CAMP FROM ARROWHEAD & KCI AIRPORT

Take I-435 North from Arrowhead and merge onto I-29 North near Kansas City International Airport. Take I-29 approximately 29 miles. Exit right on Hwy. 36 East (St. Joseph Exit - 46A). Take first exit (Riverside Road). Turn left on Riverside Road (also marked as County AC). Turn left at first stoplight (Mitchell Avenue). Turn right at main entrance to Missouri Western State University (SE Ronald Reed Road). Turn left on Downs Drive. Follow Downs Drive to Blum Union, where reserved media parking is available. The Chiefs Public Relations office is located in Room 220 on the second floor. Mileage from the Kansas City International Airport to St. Joseph is approximately 36 miles. Travel time under normal traffic conditions is approximately 30-40 minutes.

HALL OF FAMOUS MISSOURIANS

Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt was posthumously inducted into the Hall of Famous Missourians on February 20, 2008. A bronze bust of the world-renowned sportsman was dedicated during a ceremony at the Missouri State Capitol in Jefferson City. Hunt's sons Clark (left) and Dan (right) were on hand at the ceremony as representatives of the Hunt Family. Hunt's numerous contributions to Missouri have made him an important part of the state's history. The Hall of Famous Missourians is located in the third-floor rotunda of the State Capitol and honors the accomplishments of the state's most famous residents. The Speaker of the House is the official "keeper" of the Hall.

THE FOUNDER'S PLAZA

Forming a dramatic entrance to the north side of the New Arrowhead is the expansive Founder's Plaza, a tribute to Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt, who was also the driving force behind the formation of the American Football League.

The Founder's Plaza is an engaging outdoor area that serves as a meeting place for Chiefs fans and will be a lasting reminder of Hunt's contributions to the game. The Founder's Plaza features a large AFL logo built into decorative pavement at the center. Eight fountains flank the stone and symbolize the league's eight original franchises.

A nine-foot heroic sculpture of Hunt designed by Bruce Wolfe (right), greets visitors and fans as they make their way across grounds that feature. Bronze plaques highlight Hunt's many innovations in pro football, soccer and tennis.

Greeting fans as they move from the Founder's Plaza through the entrance into the stadium is a three-dimensional diagram of Po Football Hall of Fame Head Coach Hank Stram's famous "65 Toss Power Trap" play from Super Bowl IV. Commemorative bricks from Chiefs fans are located in and around the Founder's Plaza, giving Chiefs fans an opportunity to share space with one of the greatest sports innovators and one of the most influential pioneers of professional football that the sport has ever seen.

THE LAMAR HUNT SUPER BOWL GALLERY

An official ribbon-cutting ceremony took place for the Lamar Hunt Super Bowl Gallery at the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio on August 8, 2009. NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell, Chiefs Chairman Clark Hunt and members of the Hunt family, as well officials from the Hall of Fame presided over the ceremonies.

"This is a perfect way to remember his legacy and his contribution to this sport," Hunt commented.

The final person to step to the podium was Lamar's wife, Norma Hunt, the only woman known to have attended all 44 Super Bowls. "There is no honor on Earth that Lamar would rather have," she said about the gallery bearing her late husband's name, "because he loved the Super Bowl and he loved the Hall of Fame both so much."

The museum's newest gallery, a $2.4 million renovation and modernization project, is named in honor of Hunt, whose vision and love of sports not only gave birth to a new league, but an international sports phenomenon. Hunt is credited with naming the NFL's championship contest, coining the term Super Bowl after watching one of his children play with a 'Super Ball.'

Within the Lamar Hunt Super Bowl Gallery dynamic displays and exciting interactive video kiosks highlighting every Super Bowl, the great plays and the game's stars, complements the one-of-a-kind game artifacts that permeates throughout the 4,000-square-foot space. Hunt was the inaugural American Football League figure enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in '72.

CHARLES INDUCTED INTO THE PORT ARTHUR HALL OF FAME

RB Jamaal Charles was honored by his hometown of Port Arthur, Texas on March 12th when he was inducted into the Sports Legends Gallery at the Museum of the Gulf Coast as part of the Port Arthur Historical Society.

He was nominated for inclusion into the museum by his Woodrow Wilson Middle School art teacher, Terry Thompson. Charles will have a display case in the Gallery to honor his accomplishments.

"This is a real special day for me," Charles said in front of family, friends and fans at the induction. "I'm proud of being from Port Arthur. I always tell everybody where I'm from. To be a part of this museum is something that I've wanted from the first time I came in here as a kid."

Charles graduated from Memorial High School in 2005 after a prep career that included earning two-time All-Texas accolades and District 22-5A Player of the Year honors. Charles continued his football career at the University of Texas where he won the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year Award as a freshman, registering 878 yards with 11 TDs as Texas won the 2006 BCS National Championship Game. Charles rushed for over 1,400 yards in 2007 as a junior. He finished his career as the Longhorns fourth all-time leading rusher before being selected in the third round of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs.

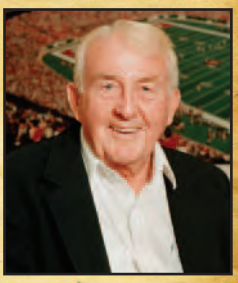
BILL GRIGSBY RETIRES AFTER A 62-YEAR BROADCASTING CAREER



Longtime Kansas City Chiefs broadcaster Bill Grigsby officially announced his retirement from the broadcast booth in 2010 after a 62-year career in broadcasting. There are few individuals in the history of sports broadcasting who can rival the remarkable and memorable career of Kansas City's own. Grigsby became a vibrant part of the Chiefs broadcast scene in '63 after he and the first of his many "ol partners' - Merle Harmon - defected from the Kansas City A's to join Lamar Hunt's upstart American Football League team. He owns the distinction of calling the play-by-play for both Super Bowl I and Super Bowl IV.

As versatile as he was enthusiastic, Grigsby broadcast games in the both the AFL and the NFL, in addition to working in Major League Baseball and in the National Hockey League. He once called eight straight basketball games at the NAIA basketball tournament in '64 and was behind the microphone for the first-ever basketball game played at Allen Fieldhouse on the University of Kansas campus in '55.

Grigsby was honored on April 13th when he was presented with the Regional Media Hall of Fame Award from the Department of Communication at Missouri Southern State University. Grigsby has also earned spots in the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame and in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) Hall of Fame.

REMEMBERING SUPER BOWL IV

The Chiefs captured a 23-7 win in Super Bowl IV vs. Minnesota (1/11/70) as Head Coach Hank Stram's play call of "65 Toss Power Trap" was immortalized by NFL Films. RB Mike Garrett scored a five-yard TD on that play to give the Chiefs a commanding 16-0 lead. In addition to Founder Lamar Hunt and Stram, six Chiefs players on field that day were eventually indicuted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame: LBs Bobby Bell and Willie Lanier, QB Len Dawson, DT Buck Buchanan, K Jan Stenerud and CB Emmitt Thomas. Dawson was named the game's MVP.

ANN ROACH RETIRES AFTER 44 SEASONS

Longtime Kansas City Chiefs employee Ann Roach officially announced her retirement on February 12th after 44 seasons of dedicated service to the Hunt family and the Chiefs organization. She began her tenure with the franchise on November 7, 1966. Roach is one of only three employees in team history to serve the Chiefs during the tenure of every head coach in franchise annals, joining President Denny Thum (left), who also holds that distinction. Roach served as an assistant to 10 different Chiefs head coaches, beginning with Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee, Hank Stram.

Roach began her tenure with the Chiefs known as Ann Renchtler, working as the assistant to head talent scout/asistant coach Tommy O'Boyle. In '71, she began her familiar role assisting Chiefs head coaches. She would continue in that role over the course of 37 seasons, witnessing the construction of Arrowhead, as well as the evolution of the game, its coaches and players. She spent the past two seasons as a customer relations associate, a role which suited her amicable disposition, as well as her unique knowledge of the Chiefs.

A trusted confidante, valued friend, and tireless worker, Ann Roach was an integral thread of the fabric of the Chiefs franchise for 44 seasons. Her ability to manage the demands and idiosyncrasies of so many different personalities have made her one of the most unique individuals in the colorful history of Chiefs football. A grateful Kansas City Chiefs organization salutes Ann for her many years of dedication and devotion to the team.

NFL POSTSEASON OVERTIME RULE CHANGES

The National Football League initiated new playoff overtime rules for the 2010 season. The information below highlights the new changes and regulations regarding overtime periods in postseason action.

- Both teams must have the opportunity to possess the ball once during the extra period, unless the team that receives the opening kickoff scores a touchdown on its initial possession, in which case it is the winner.
- If the team that possesses the ball first scores a field goal on its initial possession, the other team shall have the opportunity to possess the ball. If that team scores a touchdown on its possession, it is the winner. If the score is tied after both teams have a possession, the team next scoring by any method shall be the winner.
- If the score is tied at the end of a 15-minute overtime period, or if the overtime period's initial possession has not ended, another overtime period will begin, and play will continue until a score is made, regardless of how many 15-minute periods are necessary.

IN MEMORIUM: BOB KARMELOWICZ

The Kansas City Chiefs organization mourned the passing of former Chiefs assistant coach Bob Karmelowicz on May 2, 2010. Karmelowicz, 60, spent 18 seasons in the NFL coaching ranks, including nine as a defensive line coach with Kansas City ('97-05). He is survived by his wife Olga and three children: Liz, Marissa and Dave.

During his nine-year coaching career with the Chiefs, Karmelowicz worked under three different head coaches – Marty Schottenheimer ('97-98), Gunther Cunningham ('99-00) and Dick Vermeil. (2001-05). As a former collegiate nose tackle, Karmelowicz brought a wealth of knowledge and an enthusiastic coaching style to the position.

Karmelowicz most recently coached with the Detroit Lions in 2009. In addition to his tenure with Kansas City, he served NFL coaching stints with Houston (2006-08), Washington ('94-96) and Cincinnati ('92-93).

He also spent 16 seasons on the collegiate level before entering the NFL coaching ranks. Karmelowicz enjoyed a three-year coaching stint as the defensive line coach for the University of Miami ('89-91). He was a member of a coaching staff that led the Hurricanes to a 33-3 record over those three seasons and a pair of national championships. for Karmelowicz at Miami.

Before joining the Hurricanes coaching staff, he coached on the college level at Washington State ('87-88), Illinois ('83-86), UNLV ('82), Texas-El Paso ('81), Massachusetts ('80) and his first five years as a coach at Arizona State ('75-79). He served as an offensive line coach at UTEP, Massachusetts and Arizona State, and he was both a defensive line and offensive line coach at Illinois.

Karmelowicz, a native of Plainville, Conn., was a three-year starter and consensus Little All-America nose tackle at the University of Bridgeport, where he earned his bachelor's degree. He also received a Master's degree from Arizona State.

CHIEFS VISIT FORT RILEY

The Chiefs continued their support of the VFW's "Return the Favor" program on June 18th when a contingent of Kansas City personnel led by President Denny Thum and the club's 2010 Rookies Club visited Fort Riley. The Chiefs contingent also featured former players LB Gary Spani and T Ricky Siglar, as well as members of the Chiefs Cheerleaders and KC Wolf. Fort Riley serves as the home of the US Army's famed 1st Infantry Division, known as "The Big Red One," whose motto is "No Mission Too Difficult, No Sacrifice Too Great, Duty First!" The oldest division in the United States Army, "The Big Red One," has seen continuous active duty since being sent being deployed to Europe in World War I in 1917. "The Fighting First" has gone on to proudly defend freedom in World War II, Vietnam, the Gulf War, as well as in Bosnia, Kosovo, Iraq and Afghanistan.

"It's important for our players to get a chance to visit these bases," Thum said. "It's a great chance to visit not only the troops, but their families and kids. It shows thankfulness and appreciation for all they do in giving us our freedom and our way of life."

The players stood at attention like a well trained military unit as Brigadier General David C. Peterson, Command Sergeant Major Darrell Wallace and other top US Army personnel addressed the crowd. The highlight of the day was the opportunity to climb into the tanks for a full, hands-on tour. WRs Dexter McCluster and Rich Gunnell (right) learn how to operate a tank before climbing inside for a first-hand inspection.

CHIEFS FACT

The Chiefs have won 23 games against Denver at Arrowhead, the club's highest total against any single opponent.

CHIEFS FACT

BUCHANAN, LANIER ENSHRINED IN THE BLACK COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Chiefs DT Buck Buchanan (Grambling) and LB Willie Lanier (Morgan State) were among the inaugural class of inductees enshrined in the Black College Football Hall of Fame in Atlanta, Georgia on February 20th. The Black College Football Hall of Fame honors the greatest football players, coaches and contributors from historically black colleges and universities.

In the only trade ever personally orchestrated by Lamar Hunt, the Chiefs acquired the top choice in the '63 AFL Draft, making Buchanan (right) the initial player from a historically black college or university to be chosen with the first overall selection. Called the "finest lineman I've ever seen," by his college coach Eddie Robinson – also a member of the Black College Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2010 – Junious "Buck" Buchanan was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in '90. He joined the Chiefs Hall of Fame in '81 and was selected to join the College Football Hall of Fame in '96.

A second-round selection in the '67 draft, Lanier became the first African-American in pro football history to become a regular starter at the middle linebacker position. Lanier was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in '86 after being inducted into the Chiefs Hall of Fame in '85. He was also named to the NFL's 75th Anniversary Team in '94. Selected to the AFL All-Star Game or the Pro Bowl on eight different occasions, he saw action in 149 regular season games with the Chiefs, registering 27 INTs with two TDs, as well as 18 fumble recoveries. He started five postseason games with Kansas City, including the club's win in the '69 AFL Championship Game, as well as a 23-7 victory vs. Minnesota in Super Bowl IV. Lanier was a two-time Small College All-America pick at Morgan State and was the MVP of the '66 Tangerine Bowl.

CHIEFS, VFW PARTNER TO "RETURN THE FAVOR"

VFW FOUNDATION

RETURN THE FAVOR

On April 22nd, the Kansas City Chiefs announced a unique partnership with the Veterans of Foreign Wars. This innovative agreement between two of Kansas City's most recognizable community leaders further strengthens the Chiefs long-standing commitment to honoring the contributions of our military personnel, both past and present.

"The Kansas City Chiefs proudly join the VFW as we honor the courageous men and women who defend our freedom at home and abroad," Chiefs Chairman Clark Hunt said. "The Chiefs organization gratefully salutes the bravery and dedication of our veterans and active-duty personnel, while also recognizing the many untold sacrifices made by military families."

"We are especially appreciative of the incredible interest and concern that the Kansas City Chiefs organization has shown for our troops and their families," said VFW National Commander Thomas J. Tradewell, Sr., a combat-wounded Vietnam veteran from Sussex, Wisconsin. "We appreciate the fact that patriotic Kansas Citians care about them and are not going to forget about them."

General Manager Scott Pioli speaks with Lieutenant General Robert L. Caslen, Jr. (middle) and Commanding Sergeant Major Phillip F. Johndrow at Ft. Leavenworth.

As part of the partnership, Chiefs coaches, executives, players, cheerleaders and staff visted troops at Ft. Leavenworth, Whiteman Air Force Base and Ft. Riley during the off-season.

The Chiefs have a long-standing appreciation for the men and women in our armed forces, and have a proud tradition of hosting military personnel at Arrowhead. This season, the VFW will serve as the presenting sponsor of "Military Appreciation Day" at the New Arrowhead. To make a donation, text "RETURN" to 90999 or visit www.returnthefavor.org.

AUTHORIZED BIOGRAPHY OF LAMAR HUNT TO BE WRITTEN BY MICHAEL MACCAMBRIDE

On June 7th, the Kansas City Chiefs announced that Michael MacCambridge will write the authorized biography of Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt. This project will chronicle the lasting legacy of one of America's greatest sportsmen. MacCambridge will examine in rare detail Hunt's life and career which forever changed the landscape of professional sports.

"As the author of the definitive history of professional football, America's Game, Michael MacCambridge has few peers in his craft, and we are thrilled that Michael has elected to dedicate his time, energy and expertise to chronicle my father's life," Chiefs Chairman Clark Hunt said. "This is a very important project to me and my family, and we believe Michael is the perfect person to tell the story of Lamar Hunt."

MacCambridge is widely respected in NFL circles for his previous work on the critically-acclaimed America's Game – the definitive history of professional football. During his research for the book, MacCambridge forged a relationship with Lamar Hunt, spending more than 25 hours interviewing the humble Texan who founded the American Football League, named the Super Bowl and served as a driving force in the landmark AFL-NFL merger. Hunt (above) was a three-year end on the SMU football team and often visited his alma mater.

MacCambridge's in-depth biography will trace the life of Hunt, who appropriately earned the nickname "Games" as a youth. Hunt spent his adult life immersed in the American sports scene. In addition to founding the AFL, Hunt helped usher in the open era of professional tennis (through his World Championship Tennis tour), was a central figure in popularizing the sport of soccer in the United States (owning franchises in both the North American Soccer League and Major League Soccer), and was a founding co-owner of the NBA's Chicago Bulls. In total, Hunt was inducted into 11 different halls of fame thanks in large part to his involvement in six different professional sports leagues. MacCambridge's work will thoroughly document the life of one of America's great sports pioneers and shed new light on Hunt's tremendous legacy.

CHIEFS YOUTH FOOTBALL FIELD

The team unveiled the Chiefs Youth Football Field in 2008 at the its newly renovated training facility. Erected in the shadows of Arrowhead Stadium, this new synthetic field allows all youth to dream big and feel as though they are a part of the Chiefs family. More than 8,000 youth played football games on the field in its first two years. Football players and youth from Heart of America Pop Warner, Kansas City Pop Warner, Johnson County Cheerleading and Football Club, Police Athletic League, Boys & Girls Clubs and YMCA have competed on this field of dreams. In addition to the Chiefs Youth Football Field, the Chiefs have upgraded and installed youth football fields in Kansas City, MO and Kansas City, KS. Since '99, nearly $2 million in field refurbishment grants has been allocated to 12 metro-area youth and high school fields. This is through a combined effort of the Chiefs Children's Fund and the NFL Grassroots Program.

THE LAMAR HUNT MEMORIAL HIGHWAY

A major section of Interstate 435 was designated the 'Lamar Hunt Memorial Highway' by the Missouri General Assembly. House Bill 683, passed by Representative Darrel Pollock, directed the Missouri Department of Transportation to honor the founder of the Kansas City Chiefs with highway signs that are located on Northbound I-435 near the Stadium Drive/Raytown Road Exit, as well as Southbound I-435, near 48th Street and Worlds of Fun. The designation was recognized in a special pregame ceremony before the Chiefs vs. San Diego (10/25/09).

Four-Time Pro Bowler (2004-06, 08)

Pro Career: Four-time Pro Bowl left guard enters his 11th campaign in Kansas City in 2010 ... The two-time first-team All-Pro selection by the Associated Press has played in 147 games (133 starts) with the Chiefs, the highest total of any active Kansas City player ... Only 24 players in franchise annals have played in more games, while only 13 Chiefs have started more regular season games ... Also has two postseason starts to his credit ... Unquestionably benefitted greatly from the tutelage of former 12-time Pro Bowl G Will Shields both on and off the field ... Has followed in Shields' philanthropic footsteps in the community ... Earned the 2009 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award for his off-the-field community service in addtion to his on-field successes ... Became the fifth Chiefs player to earn the prestigious honor ... Through his "Brian Waters 54 Foundation" has made a huge impact in his hometown of Waxahachie, Texas, in addition to impacting countless individuals in both Kansas City and Dallas ... Has helped pave the way for each of the top four individual single-season rushing performances in franchise history ... Has also been on the field for the top three individual single-game rushing efforts in club annals, including RB Jamaal Charles' franchise-record 259-yard performance at Denver (1/3/10) ... Is also a sturdy pass protector ... Became the first offensive lineman to ever be named AFC Offensive Player of the Week since that honor's inception in '84 after a dominating performance in a 56-10 win vs. Atlanta (10/24/04) in which the Chiefs registered an NFL-record eight rushing TDs. No guard in either conference had previously claimed that honor ... Was named to the All-Foxhole Team of The Sporting News in 2004, a prestigious list of NFL tough guys who "you'd want fighting on your side in a foxhole" ... Gained his share of the national spotlight after manhandling Ravens Pro Bowl LB Ray Lewis for much of the evening in a 27-24 victory on Monday Night Football at Baltimore (10/4/04) ... Paired with Shields in 2004 to form the first tandem of Pro Bowl guards from the same team since Larry Allen and Nate Newton did it for Dallas following the '95 season ... Joined with Shields to become the first guard duo from the same team to be named to three straight Pro Bowls ... Also became the first undrafted guard to make the Pro Bowl since Newton did it following the '98 season ... Owned a string of 79 consecutive starts before suffering a knee injury at St Louis (11/5/06) ... Has come a long way since being cut by Dallas as a rookie free agent in '99 ... Came to Kansas City for a free agent workout in 2000 when the Chiefs convinced him to make the move to offensive line after working as a tight end in camp for the Cowboys the previous year ... Was originally envisioned to be Tim Grunhard's replacement at center before the club inked Casey Wiegmann in 2001 ... Started the 2001 opener in place of an injured Wiegmann before moving into his current role at guard midway through that campaign ... Worked as both a collegiate tight end and a defensive lineman ... Never played offensive line until entering the pro ranks with the Chiefs in 2000 ... Has also seen limited action for the Chiefs as a fullback in short-yardage situations ... Was part of a Kansas City offensive front that opened the same five players at the same five positions for 32 consecutive games in 2002-03, the NFL's longest streak since the San Diego offensive line accomplished the feat for 40 straight games in '71-73 ... Spent the spring of 2000 playing in NFL Europe with the Berlin Thunder ... Went to camp with Dallas in '99, but did not make that club's active roster.

Transactions: Signed with Kansas City (11/14/05) ... Signed with Kansas City (11/4/02) ... Signed a one-year exclusive rights contract with Kansas City (6/3/02) ... 2009 WALTER PAYTON NFL MAN OF THE YEAR — BRIAN WATERS

Waters was joined by Norma Hunt and Chiefs Chairman Clark Hunt for the 2009 Man of the Year Award presentation at Super Bowl XLIV in South Florida.

The Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award is the only NFL award that recognizes a player's off-the-field community service as well as his playing excellence. Five Chiefs players have won this prestigious accolade since its inception in '70, the most of any NFL team. G Brian Waters became the latest member of the Chiefs to earn this honor in 2009. NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell presented presented Waters with the honor prior to the kickoff of Super Bowl XLIV.

Waters' heart and passion led him to establish the Brian Waters 54 Foundation in 2004. Through the Brian Waters 54 Foundation, Kansas City's four-time Pro Bowl guard provides opportunities for underprivileged children and low-income families. He also personally donates hundreds of thousands of dollars to the foundation and has impacted thousands of youth lives in both Kansas City and his native Waxahachie, Texas. To date, his foundation has awarded 82 college scholarships to low-income students. Meanwhile, thousands of children have benefited from his back-to-school program that provides backpacks full of school supplies, as well as haircuts, uniforms, shoes, immunizations and dental care.

In all, his foundation works closely throughout the year with more than 20 different agencies. Waters has also served as a spokesperson for numerous NFL and Kansas City Chiefs outreach campaigns and devotes his time to the Love Fund for Children, K.E.Y.E.S., First Downs for Down Syndrome, the Special Olympics, the Willa Gill Center, the Third and Long Foundation, the United Way and many other causes.

Baltimore 38, Chiefs 24

September 13, 2009 • M&T Bank Stadium • 71,099

KANSAS CITY	0	7	7	10	— 24
BALTIMORE	10	0	7	21	— 38

In a second half that resembled a back-and-forth heavyweight title bout, Kansas City and Baltimore traded touchdowns instead of punches. It was the Ravens who delivered the final two blows on the scoreboard to secure a 38-24 victory over the Chiefs at M&T Bank Stadium.

Kansas City struggled to move the ball offensively early in the contest and the Ravens kept the Chiefs defense on the field for much of the day. Baltimore owned a huge advantage in time of possession, holding the ball for 39:49 compared to 20:11 for Kansas City.

Baltimore was first on the scoreboard after constructing a nine-play, 54-yard drive capped by a 44-yard K Steve Hauschka FG, putting the Ravens up 3-0.

After a another three-and-out series by the Chiefs, Flacco scrambled to buy time before finding McGahee in the left flat for a three-yard TD extending the Baltimore lead to 10-0 with 2:04 left in the first quarter.

A 57-yard punt by P Dustin Colquitt following KC's fourth possession pinned the Ravens at their own nine-yard line. The Chiefs defense forced Baltimore to go three-and-out. S Jon McGraw then turned the momentum in Kansas City's favor, blocking P Sam Koch's punt and recovering the ball in the end zone to cut the Ravens lead to 10-7 with 10:09 left in the first half.

After converting several successful third downs, the Ravens next drive stalled. A 41-yard FG attempt by Hauschka went wide left, leaving the score 10-7 in favor of Baltimore at intermission.

Kansas City's defense then came up with a big play on the Ravens opening possession of the second half. On third and nine from the Kansas City 33-yard line, LB Derrick Johnson intercepted a Flacco pass and returned it 70 yards to the Baltimore six-yard line. Two plays later, QB Brodie Croyle – who was starting in place of an injured QB Matt Cassel – found WR Dwayne Bowe in the back of the end zone to capitalize on the turnover giving the Chiefs a 14-10 lead with 8:52 left in the third quarter.

Baltimore responded as Flacco orchestrated an 11-play, 64-yard TD drive that was capped with a nine-yard TD to TE Todd Heap, giving the Ravens a 17-14 lead. Croyle came right back, hitting WR Mark Bradley for a 50-yard strike. That play set up K Ryan Succop, who drilled a 53-yard FG on his first NFL attempt, the longest make by a Chiefs rookie since K Jan Stenerud hit a 54-yarder in '67. Succop's FG tied the score at 17-17.

Flacco marched his squad down the field again. FB Le'Ron McClain dove into the end zone for a one-yard TD to put the Ravens back up 24-17 with 8:10 remaining.

A roughing the passer penalty helped keep Kansas City's next drive alive, giving the Chiefs a first down at their own 43-yard line. Three consecutive completions put the Chiefs at the Ravens 10-yard line. Croyle then found TE Sean Ryan who dove into the end zone for his first NFL score to tie the game at 24-24 with 5:21 to play.

Flacco and company moved the ball to the Kansas City 35-yard line before connecting with Clayton on a post route for a 31-yard TD, giving Baltimore a 31-24 lead with 2:06 left in the game.

After the touchdown the Chiefs failed to convert on a fourth and 18. Baltimore took over at the Kansas City nine-yard line and eventually scored on a McGahee one-yard TD run to make the final count 38-24.

Raiders 13, Chiefs 10

September 20, 2009 • Arrowhead Stadium • 69,169

OAKLAND	0	3	3	7	— 13
KANSAS CITY	3	0	0	7	— 10

In typical Chiefs-Raiders fashion, a tight game came right down to the wire as both clubs scored TDs in the final three minutes. Raiders QB JaMarcus Russell orchestrated a nine-play, 69-yard drive that was capped by a five-yard TD run by RB Darren McFadden with 1:07 left to play as Oakland registered a 13-10 victory at Arrowhead.

The Chiefs dominated the contest statistically outgaining the Raiders in total yards by a 409-to-166-yard margin. Kansas City held the ball for 38:39 compared to a 21:21 time of possession for the Raiders. The Chiefs also had over a two-to-one edge in first downs (25 to 11) and rushing yards (173 to 67).

The contest started on a positive note for the Chiefs as QB Matt Cassel made his first regular start after a knee injury kept him out of the season opener. On his first possession, Cassel found newly-acquired WR Bobby Wade for 16 yards, keeping Kansas City's drive alive. Facing fourth and two from the Oakland 40-yard line, head coach Todd Haley elected to go for it, and a three-yard rush by RB Jackie Battle kept the chains moving. Kansas City penetrated to the Raiders 13-yard line, but couldn't convert on third and nine, setting up a 23-yard K Ryan Succop FG that capped a 17-play, 74-yard drive that ate 9:25 off the clock and gave the Chiefs a 3-0 advantage.

Kansas City's defense forced a third consecutive three and out before the Raiders mounted their first serious scoring threat of the game. Russell connected on an 18-yard pass to rookie WR Darrius Heyward-Bey and found RB Michael Bush for a 17-yard gain to propel the Raiders. However, Oakland was forced to settle for a 48-yard FG by K Sebastian Janikowski to tie the score at 3-3 with 4:45 left in the second quarter.

With time winding down in the first half, the Chiefs once again appeared poised to add to the scoreboard. Cassel guided the club to the Oakland nine-yard line, setting the team up with first and goal. But the Chiefs were out of timeouts and RB Dantrell Savage was tackled in bounds on the half's final play, thwarting a golden scoring opportunity.

The Chiefs received the ball to open the second half and Cassel had the Chiefs on the move again. But that momentum was short-lived as a Cassel pass was picked off by Raiders S Michael Huff. The Raiders gained one first down before their drive stalled, setting up a 54-yard FG by Janikowski to give Oakland a 6-3 lead with 8:33 remaining in the third quarter.

Two possessions later, Huff would once again victimize Cassel, this time intercepting him at the six-yard line. Oakland would again be forced to give it back to KC.

A steady Chiefs drive brought them to the Oakland 29-yard line, then Cassel went deep down the left sideline where WR Dwayne Bowe hauled in a 29-yard TD. Cassel's first TD pass in a Chiefs uniform highlighted a nine-play, 72-yard drive that gave Kansas City a 10-6 lead with 2:38 remaining.

Oakland took over on its own 31-yard line and drove to the Chiefs 14-yard line with 1:17 left. McFadden caught a nine-yard pass then added a five-yard TD run to punctuate a nine-play, 69-yard drive putting the Raiders ahead with 1:07 left in the game.

The Chiefs regained possession at their own 20 with 1:07 left and all three timeouts remaining, but Cassel was sacked on third and one and his fourth down pass fell incomplete, allowing Oakland to run out the clock and take home a 13-10 victory.

KC — Succop, 23-yard field goal (17-74, 9:25).
OAK — Janikowski, 48-yard field goal (12-58, 6:49).
OAK — Janikowski, 54-yard field goal (7-13, 2:58).
KC — Bowe, 29-yard pass from Cassel (Succop kick) (9-72, 4:23).
OAK — McFadden, 5-yard run (Janikowski kick) (9-69, 1:31).

Eagles 34, Chiefs 14

September 27, 2009 • Lincoln Financial Field • 69,144

KANSAS CITY	0	7	0	7	—	14
PHILADELPHIA	14	10	3	7	—	34

On a day when most headlines were focused on the return of Philadelphia QB Michael Vick to the NFL, it was Eagles QB Kevin Kolb and WR DeSean Jackson who provided the highlights in a dominating offensive performance as Philadelphia topped the Chiefs by a 34-14 margin at Lincoln Financial Field.

Kansas City was dominated statistically as the Eagles led in total yards (420 to 196). Kansas City was unable to convert any of its 11 third down opportunities, while committing 10 penalties for 90 yards.

Rookie RB LeSean McCoy gave the Eagles an early 7-0 lead with 6:08 left in the first quarter on Philadelphia's second possession of the game. McCoy took a direct snap from the backfield for a five-yard TD to cap an eight-play, 48-yard drive that took 3:10 off the clock.

Kolb, filling in for injured QB Donovan McNabb, led the Eagles 73 yards down the field on their next drive hitting Jackson for 43 yards to the Kansas City 20-yard line. Kolb then connected with TE Brent Celek for eight yards to the one-yard line. After DT Ron Edwards stuffed McCoy for no gain, Kolb dove into the end zone on a sneak to push the Philadelphia lead to 14-0 with 1:21 left in the first quarter.

Then the Chiefs defense made its first big play of the afternoon. With Philadelphia facing a fourth-and-one situation from the Kansas City 44-yard line, Kolb's pass was batted down at the line by LB Mike Vrabel, giving the offense the ball and new hope.

On second and 17, QB Matt Cassel hit WR Mark Bradley on a lateral and Bradley then threw to RB Jamaal Charles for a 26-yard gain to the Philadelphia 26-yard line. Three plays later, Cassel found Bradley in the end zone for a 13-yard TD, cutting the Eagles lead to 14-7 with 8:34 left in the half.

Philadelphia wasted no time in regaining the momentum and a 14-point margin as Jackson hauled in a 64-yard pass from Kolb on Philadelphia's next offensive snap, putting the lead back to 21-7 in favor of the Eagles.

With 6:15 left in the half, Philadelphia started driving down the field and managed to make the Kansas City 11-yard line before being forced to settle for a 29-yard K David Akers FG. Akers' kick gave the Eagles a 24-7 lead going into the locker room at half.

After a three and out by the Chiefs to open the second half, Philadelphia took the ball on its first drive and moved to the Kansas City 20-yard line. After overthrowing Jackson in the end zone, Kolb and the Eagles offense settled for a 38-yard Akers FG with 9:15 left in the third quarter to make the score 27-7.

On KC's next possession the Chiefs faced a fourth and two, Colquitt and the Chiefs lined up for a punt. But Kansas City snapped the ball to S Jon McGraw who picked up four yards on the fake punt, keeping the Kansas City drive alive. Two plays later, a RB Larry Johnson fumble recovered by Philadelphia ended the threat.

Both teams traded punts to open the game's final stanza. Kolb then hit Celek for 15 yards on Philadelphia's next drive, followed by a pass to Celek two plays later for a 35-yard TD that extended the Eagles lead to 34-7 with 6:43 left to go in the game.

QB Jeff Garcia entered the game and fumbled a snap, which was recovered by McGraw at the Philadelphia 20-yard line, giving the Chiefs offense another scoring opportunity. Cassel converted a fourth and seven with an eight-yard pass to WR Terrance Copper. On the next play, Cassel found WR Bobby Wade for a nine-yard TD, his second TD pass of the day.

Philadelphia was able to run out the clock after Kansas City did not recover a last-minute onside kick, sealing the 34-14 victory.

Giants 27, Chiefs 16
October 4, 2009 • Arrowhead Stadium • 69,238

N.Y. GIANTS	7	10	3	7	— 27
KANSAS CITY	3	0	0	13	— 16

The Chiefs scored 13 points in the fourth quarter, but it wasn't enough as the N.Y. Giants registered a 27-16 victory at Arrowhead. Giants QB Eli Manning threw for 292 yards with three TDs, including a pair scores to WR Steve Smith, who finished the contest with 11 receptions for 134 yards. New York added 156 rushing yards.

The contest got off to an ominous start as RB Jamaal Charles fumbled on the game's opening kickoff. Giants LB Bryan Kehl recovered the fumble at the Kansas City 16-yard line, setting up New York for its first score. A three-yard Manning-to-Smith TD pass gave the Giants an early 7-0 lead.

After going three and out on their opening possession, the Chiefs registered their own takeaway as LB Tamba Hali recorded his 13th career forced fumble while sacking Manning. DE Glenn Dorsey recovered the ball at the New York 41-yard line. RB Larry Johnson was given the ball on four successive plays to get to the Chiefs 16-yard line. A 34-yard K Ryan Succop FG narrowed the Giants lead to 7-3.

On New York's ensuing possession, Chiefs CB Brandon Flowers intercepted a Manning pass, returning it to the Kansas City 20-yard line. But the Chiefs couldn't capitalize. Manning then orchestrated a four-play, 71-yard drive to start the second quarter that was capped by a 25-yard TD pass to Smith pushing the New York lead to 14-3 with 13:39 left in the first half.

Late in the half, Manning ran the two-minute drill proficiently, getting the Giants in field goal range. K Lawrence Tynes drilled a 25-yard FG to extend New York's lead to 17-3 at halftime.

The Chiefs attempted an onside kick to open the second half, but were unable to recover, giving the Giants the ball on the Kansas City 42-yard line. New York was forced to settle for a 40-yard Tynes FG as the Giants extended their lead to 20-3.

After a Chiefs punt, Manning again drove the Giants deep into Kansas City territory, but Tynes misfired wide right on a 38-yard FG try with 3:00 remaining in the third quarter, keeping the score at 20-3.

Following another Chiefs punt, Manning notched his third TD drive of the game. A six-play, 66-yard scoring march was highlighted by a 54-yard TD pass to WR Hakeem Nicks, giving the Giants a 27-3 lead with 13:17 left to play.

But the Chiefs wouldn't go away. Charles returned the ensuing kickoff 53 yards to the Giants 48-yard line. On fourth down and 11, WR Bobby Engram made a great second effort to get to the sticks for a first down. The Chiefs then converted another fourth-and-11 play when Cassel hit WR Dwayne Bowe, to give KC first and goal at the eight. Cassel eventually punctuated the 11-play, 48-yard drive with a one-yard TD pass to TE Sean Ryan. KC's two-point try failed, making the count 27-9.

Kansas City forced a three and out on New York's next series. Cassel quickly moved the Chiefs into scoring territory once again. Facing fourth and goal from the two, Cassel appeared to pull the ball down to run, but instead threw a lob pass to a diving WR Bobby Wade for a two-yard TD making the score 27-16 in favor of the visitors with 5:01 left in the game.

After a failed onside kick attempt the Chiefs defense held, getting the ball back with 3:56 left to go in the game. But the Chiefs could only manage one first down. The Giants effectively milked the clock after Kansas City turned the ball over on downs. The Chiefs got one final snap to end the contest as New York departed Arrowhead with a 27-16 victory.

Cowboys 26, Chiefs 20 OT

October 11, 2009 • Arrowhead Stadium • 71,214

DALLAS	0	3	7	10	6	—	26
KANSAS CITY	0	10	3	7	0	—	20

It took overtime to settle "The Game That Never Was," but it was the Cowboys who prevailed by a 26-20 duel at Arrowhead. Cowboys WR Miles Austin caught a 60-yard TD with 8:33 left in the extra session for the decisive score. Dallas went ahead for the first time in the game, taking a 20-13 lead with 2:16 left in regulation on a 59-yard TD pass from QB Tony Romo to Austin, who finished the game with 10 catches for 250 yards.

Kansas City forced a fifth quarter as QB Matt Cassel hit WR Dwayne Bowe in the back of the end zone for a 16-yard TD on fourth and seven, knotting the game at 20-20 with 0:24 seconds remaining in regulation. But Dallas would eventually prevail in overtime.

The Chiefs dug deep into their bag of tricks early with a flea-flicker and a double reverse on back-to-back plays but couldn't manage a first down and had to punt on their first series. The defense held strong forcing a K Nick Folk field goal attempt that sailed wide left from 40 yards out; to keep the score deadlocked at 0-0.

The Chiefs were first on the board when K Ryan Succop nailed a 47-yard FG. That FG capped a four-play drive that was set up after Dallas WR Patrick Crayton muffed a punt that was recovered by CB Maurice Leggett at the Dallas 23-yard line. On the Cowboys ensuing possession, a Romo fumble on second and six was recovered by S Mike Brown who returned it to the Cowboys 16-yard line. Five plays later, Cassel hit LB Mike Vrabel, who checked in as a tackle eligible, for a one-yard TD to take a 10-0 lead with 11:04 left in the first half.

Late in the first half Romo led Dallas on an 11-play, 83-yard drive, but KC's defense held Dallas to a 22-yard FG from Folk, making the count 10-3 at intermission.

After exchanging punts, KC was faced with third and three. Cassel kept the drive moving with a seven-yard completion to WR Mark Bradley. The drive stalled at the Dallas 20-yard line with Succop connecting on a 38-yard FG, giving Kansas City a 13-3 lead. The Cowboys registered their first explosive play of the day as RB Tashard Choice scampered 36 yards into the end zone, narrowing the Kansas City lead to 13-10 with 1:55 left in the third quarter.

In the final quarter, Romo connected with Austin for 34 yards and KC's defense stepped up again in the Red Zone as the Chiefs held the Dallas offense to a 28-yard Folk FG, knotting the game at 13-13 with 11:10 left to go. After an unnecessary roughness penalty kept KC's drive alive, Succop lined up for a 53-yard FG that was blocked by Dallas NT Jay Ratliff, giving Dallas the ball back at its own 36-yard line with 3:09 left to play.

Dallas took only three plays and 53 seconds to cover 64 yards capped by a 59-yard Romo-to-Austin TD pass to take a 20-13 lead with 2:27 left in the game.

Faced with third and 14, Cassel dropped back in the two-minute offense and hit WR Bobby Wade down the middle for 25 yards to keep the drive moving. Cassel then found Bowe for 17 yards to the Dallas 19 yard-line. After two incompletions and a three-yard completion to RB Jamaal Charles, Cassel fired a bullet to Bowe in the back of the end zone to tie the score at 20-20.

Kansas City won the overtime toss, and the teams exchanged punts. After the Chiefs punted on their second possession of overtime the Cowboys sealed the game with a 60-yard Romo-to-Austin TD pass to vault the Cowboys to the 26-20 victory.

Chiefs 14, Redskins 6

October 18, 2009 • FedExField • 79,572

KANSAS CITY	0	3	3	8 —	14
WASHINGTON	0	0	6	0 —	6

The Chiefs registered their initial victory under General Manager Scott Pioli and Head Coach Todd Haley with solid performances in all three phases of the game. Rookie K Ryan Succop nailed a career-high four FGs, including a 46-yarder with 3:36 left to give the Chiefs a 9-6 lead. He added a 24-yard FG with 0:41 left to give the Chiefs the 12-6 lead, while LB Tamba Hali sacked QB Todd Collins in the end zone with 0:26 remaining to make the final count 14-6.

Kansas City's defense was stifling for most of the afternoon, permitting just seven first downs, the club's best single-game total in over a decade. The Chiefs also held a significant margin in the time of possession battle (37:10 to 22:50).

It was punt-for-punt before Kansas City put together its first scoring drive of the afternoon. RB Larry Johnson turned in his longest rush from scrimmage of the season as he scampered 17 yards off the right tackle. Six plays later, Succop hit a 39-yard FG to give the Chiefs the 3-0 lead with 5:34 left in the second quarter.

With time winding down in the first half, Washington went into its two-minute offense, but the Redskins opted to forgo a 54-yard FG attempt and instead went for the end zone. QB Jason Campbell's pass was intercepted by CB Brandon Flowers at the three-yard line, locking in a 3-0 Chiefs advantage at halftime.

Washington opened the second half with QB Todd Collins under center. Two plays into the third quarter, Collins hit WR Santana Moss for 42 yards to the Kansas City 27-yard line setting up K Shaun Suisham's 40-yard FG that tied the game at 3-3.

On the ensuing Redskins drive, RB Clinton Portis broke free for a 78-yard rush before he was hauled down by S Mike Brown at Kansas City's 10-yard line. From there, Washington threw three straight incompletions, setting up Suisham for a 28-yard FG that put his team up 6-3 with 6:06 left in the third period. Kansas City answered on its very next drive, orchestrating a nine-play drive that covered 42 yards and was capped by a 46-yard Succop FG, tying the game at 6-6 with 1:12 left in the third quarter, which would be the score heading into the final stanza.

After unsuccessful drives by both squads, the Chiefs got on the move when QB Matt Cassel hit TE Sean Ryan for 11 yards and a first down, getting the ball to the Washington 25-yard line. Three plays later Succop connected on his third kick and second 46-yard FG of the day to give Kansas City a 9-6 lead with 3:36 left in the contest.

After a Redskins punt, Kansas City took over at the Washington 37-yard line. Cassel hit WR Dwayne Bowe for a 32-yard completion to get the ball into the Red Zone inside the two-minute warning and setting up Succop for his fourth FG of the afternoon. Succop put his 24-yard attempt through the uprights, extending the Kansas City lead to 12-6 with 0:41 left in the game.

After kicking off and a block in the back penalty by Washington, Hali sacked Collins in the end zone for a safety giving Kansas City a 14-6 lead with 0:26 left. Washington's onside kick attempt was unsuccessful and Cassel was able to assemble the Chiefs in the victory formation for their initial win of 2009.

GAME NOTES

- The Chiefs permitted seven first downs, the club's best mark since allowing six vs. San Diego (9/20/98).
- The Chiefs allowed six points, the club's best total since posting a 41-0 win vs. San Francisco (10/1/06).
- P Dustin Colquitt landed three punts inside the 20, giving him 120 for his career to bypass P Louie Aguiar (117) for the Chiefs all-time lead in that category.

GAME 7

Chargers 37, Chiefs 7

October 25, 2009 • Arrowhead Stadium • 69,337

SAN DIEGO	14	6	7	10	—	37
KANSAS CITY	0	0	7	0	—	7

The Chargers made big plays in all three phases of the game on a soggy afternoon at Arrowhead as they registered a 37-7 victory vs. Kansas City. QB Philip Rivers threw three TDs, while San Diego's defense picked off three passes. The Chargers special teams scored on a blocked punt which was recovered for a TD as San Diego registered its highest point total in Kansas City since '86.

San Diego held a staggering 200-yard advantage in total yards (403 to 203), outgaining the Chiefs through the air by a 268-to-82-yard margin as Rivers completed 18 of 30 passes with three TDs.

On their second possession, the Chargers put themselves on the board first when Rivers found WR Malcom Floyd in the end zone to cap a 10-play, 80-yard drive giving San Diego an early 7-0 lead.

San Diego got the ball back in Chiefs territory when Kansas City turned the ball over on downs. Faced with fourth and one from their own 41-yard line, the Chiefs went for it, but QB Matt Cassel's QB sneak came up short. Eight plays later, Rivers hit WR Vincent Jackson for a 10-yard TD to take a 14-0 lead with 1:31 left in the first quarter.

Following another Chiefs punt, Rivers connected with Jackson for 51-yards but San Diego was forced to settle for a 20-yard K Nate Kaeding FG after the Chiefs mounted a goal-line stand to make the score 17-0.

On San Diego's next possession, Rivers again hit Jackson for a 51-yard gain, but San Diego picked up just four yards on its next three plays, setting up a 43-yard Kaeding FG attempt. The kick sailed wide right, giving the Chiefs the ball at their own 33-yard line.

The Chiefs moved the ball to the San Diego 26-yard line and took a shot to the end zone, but the pass to WR Lance Long was upheld by replay as being incomplete. K Ryan Succop's subsequent 43-yard FG attempt was wide right, leaving the Chiefs scoreless. San Diego took over with 1:07 left in the half and Rivers promptly orchestrated another scoring drive. A 39-yard Kaeding FG gave San Diego a 20-0 halftime advantage.

Kansas City's offense moved the ball efficiently in the no huddle to open the second half. Cassel hit WR Bobby Wade for 24 yards to move the ball to the San Diego 34-yard line. Faced with fourth and one from the San Diego seven-yard line, Cassel fired the ball across the field to the corner of the end zone where a leaping WR Dwayne Bowe snagged the ball to get Kansas City on the board as the Chiefs cut the margin to 20-7 with 9:54 left in the third quarter.

After both squads exchanged punts, Rivers hit RB Darren Sproles out of the backfield for a 58-yard TD, extending the San Diego lead to 27-7 with 5:56 left in the third quarter. As the rains intensified at Arrowhead, turnovers began to mount for the Chiefs. A Cassel pass was bobbled by TE Sean Ryan and was promptly picked off by LB Tim Dobbins, snapping a streak of 150 consecutive attempts without an INT.

On Kansas City's next possession the Chargers picked off Cassel again. This time S Paul Oliver returned the ball to the Kansas City two-yard line. Again, the Chiefs defense held the Chargers four straight times near the goal line. Kansas City took over on downs at its own one-yard line, but S Steve Gregory intercepted Cassel. San Diego drove the ball to the Kansas City one-yard line, but again couldn't punch it in, this time settling for a 19-yard Kaeding FG to make the count 30-7 with 11:37 left to play.

Adding insult to injury, FB Jacob Hester came untouched off the right side of Kansas City's protection, blocking a P Dustin Colquitt punt that he recovered in the end zone to seal a 37-7 victory.

Jaguars 24, Chiefs 21

November 8, 2009 • Jacksonville Municipal Stadium • 45,546

KANSAS CITY	3	3	0	15	— 21
JACKSONVILLE	7	7	3	7	— 24

Despite a furious fourth-quarter rally that saw the Chiefs score 15 unanswered points in the final 2:32 thanks to two TD passes from QB Matt Cassel to newly acquired WR Chris Chambers, Jacksonville was able to hold on for a 24-21 victory vs. Kansas City.

The Chiefs were haunted by big plays defensively all day, including a 61-yard TD catch by WR Mike Sims-Walker, who finished the contest with 147 yards. Jacksonville held a sizeable advantage in offensive categories, outgaining the Chiefs by over 100 yards (426 to 301). The Jaguars also held a significant margin in time of possession (36:13 to 23:47).

The Kansas City defense started the day on a high note, holding the Jacksonville offense and explosive RB Maurice Jones-Drew to a three and out on its opening possession. The Chiefs offense then moved the ball to the Jacksonville 28-yard line, where K Ryan Succop nailed a 45-yard FG to give the Chiefs a 3-0 lead with 9:54 left in the first quarter.

On Jacksonville's ensuing possession, Jaguars RB Rashad Jennings punctuated a nine-play drive with a 28-yard TD run to give Jacksonville a 7-3 lead with 4:33 left in the first period.

After a three and out by Kansas City, Jacksonville sustained a solid drive, but the Chiefs defense rose to the occasion forcing Jacksonville K Josh Scobee to attempt a 53-yard FG. His attempt was wide left, keeping the score at 7-3.

After trading punts with Jacksonville on three straight drives, Kansas City LB Derrick Johnson forced a WR Torry Holt fumble, a play that was upheld by instant replay. S DaJuan Morgan recovered the loose ball at the Jacksonville 20-yard line.

RB Kolby Smith, who was activated from Reserve/PUP a day earlier, rushed for 12 yards to get to the Jacksonville eight-yard line. The drive stalled at the three-yard line setting up Succop for his second FG of the day, a 21-yard kick to narrow the Jaguars lead to 7-6 with 2:38 left in the first half.

Jacksonville answered when QB David Garrard connected with Sims-Walker for a 61-yard TD, extending the Jaguars lead to 14-6 with 1:02 left before halftime.

After the TD, Kansas City got the ball close enough for a 56-yard Succop FG attempt with time expiring, but into a stiff wind, his kick fell well short, ending the half.

On Jacksonville's second possession in the second half, Garrard connected with Sims-Walker for 45 yards to the Kansas City 26-yard line. Seven plays later, Scobee hit a 27-yard FG to extend the lead to 17-6 with 0:47 left in the third quarter.

After the two squads exchanged punts throughout the fourth quarter, WR Mike Thomas returned a punt 44 yards to the Kansas City 22-yard line. Five plays later, Jones-Drew rumbled into the end zone from 10 yards out with 4:26 left to play to extend the lead to 24-6 in favor of the Jaguars.

Then the Kansas City rally began. Cassel connected with Chambers for a 54-yard TD to make the score 24-13 with 2:32 left in the game and giving the Chiefs their longest offensive play of the season.

Following the score, Succop recovered his own onside kick as it bounced off a Jacksonville player, giving the Chiefs the ball back with just over two minutes left to play. Cassel connected again with Chambers for his second TD catch of the day, this time from five yards out, bringing the score to 24-21 with 1:01 left to play.

The Jaguars recovered Succop's second onside kick and were able to run out the clock, handing the Chiefs a 24-21 defeat.

KC — Succop, 45-yard field goal (6-29, 2:53).
JAX — Jennings, 28-yard run (Scobee kick) (9-79, 5:21).

GAME 9
Chiefs 16, Raiders 10
November 15, 2009 • Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum • 40,720

KANSAS CITY	3	10	0	3	— 16
OAKLAND	10	0	0	0	— 10

The Chiefs made critical plays at crucial junctures to claim their seventh consecutive victory at Oakland. Kansas City produced a 16-10 win at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum as S Mike Brown clinched the victory with an INT with 0:38 remaining, his second INT of the day. RB Jamaal Charles finished the contest with 103 rushing yards, including a 44-yard TD run, while K Ryan Succop banged through three FGs.

Raiders RB Michael Bush scampered for 60 yards down to the Kansas City four-yard line on the second play from scrimmage. Bush's run set up a one-yard RB Justin Fargas TD two plays later, giving the Raiders the 7-0 lead with 12:42 left in the first quarter.

Following Oakland's opening-drive score, QB Matt Cassel looked for WR Chris Chambers deep down the right sideline on third and 12 on the Chiefs opening drive, but his pass was intercepted by CB Chris Johnson.

It was punt-for-punt before Cassel sparked the offense with a 30-yard pass to Chambers. The drive stalled, setting up a 50-yard Succop FG to make the score 7-3 with 4:54 left in the first quarter.

KC forced Oakland three and out, but the momentum shifted right back to the Raiders as Chiefs RB Dantrell Savage muffed the punt which was recovered by LB Jon Condo at the KC 37-yard line. Oakland settled for its own 50-yard FG by K Sebastian Janikowski, making the score 10-3 with 2:10 left in the first quarter.

Faced with fourth and one at the Oakland 44-yard line, Head Coach Todd Haley left his offense on the field, and Charles reeled off a 44-yard TD run to tie the score at 10-10 with 12:25 left in the first half.

After another Raiders punt, Cassel went to work finding WR Dwayne Bowe for 41 yards down the left sideline to get in Oakland territory on the opening play of KC's ensuing drive. Cassel then hit Chambers for 24 yards to move the ball to the Oakland seven-yard line. The drive stalled bringing out Succop for a 25-yard FG that gave KC a 13-10 lead with 6:48 left in the first half.

On their first possession in the second half, the Chiefs penetrated as deep as the Raiders 37-yard line. Succop's 52-yard FG try sailed wide left, leaving the score 13-10 with 10:43 to go in the third quarter. Oakland could not take advantage as Janikowski misfired his own 45-yard attempt wide left, his initial miss of the year.

On Kansas City's ensuing possession, Cassel hit Bowe for 12 yards, but Bowe had the ball jarred lose as he was being tackled. Multiple players from both squads attempted to gain possession of the ball before Chiefs G Brian Waters jumped on it at the Oakland 32-yard line to regain possession. But Kansas City would give it away on downs after failing to convert a fourth-and-one pass from the Oakland 14-yard line.

On Oakland's next possession, Brown registered the Chiefs first takeaway of the day as he intercepted QB Bruce Gradkowski's pass intended for WR Johnnie Lee Higgins. Cassel then orchestrated an eight-play drive that ended in Succop's third field goal of the contest, this time from 31 yards out to extend the Kansas City lead to 16-10 with 6:17 left to play in the game. After a three and out by the Raiders, Kansas City got the ball back with 4:38 remaining and was able to run the clock down to the two-minute warning before giving the Raiders one final opportunity.

The Raiders took over at their own 20-yard line with 1:53 left to play. A 22-yard completion to WR Darrius Heyward-Bey that was upheld by a replay review moved the ball to the Kansas City 26-yard line with 0:38 remaining. Brown then hauled in his second interception at the 10-yard line, sealing a 16-10 victory.

GAME 10
Chiefs 27, Steelers 24 OT
November 22, 2009 • Arrowhead Stadium • 70,261

PITTSBURGH	0	17	0	7	0	—	24
KANSAS CITY	7	0	10	7	3	—	27

The Chiefs capped a dramatic comeback at Arrowhead with a 22-yard FG from rookie K Ryan Succop to register a 27-24 OT win vs. Pittsburgh. The game-winning score was set up by a 61-yard pass from QB Matt Cassel to WR Chris Chambers. Kansas City's defense forced three takeaways, including two INTs from LB Andy Studebaker, who made his first NFL start for injured LB Mike Vrabel.

Pittsburgh won the overtime coin toss and was driving before QB Ben Roethlisberger was knocked out of the contest. QB Charlie Batch came in, but Pittsburgh's drive was thwarted when LB Jovan Belcher dropped RB Mewelde Moore for a three-yard loss on third and two from the Kansas City 35-yard line. The Chiefs took over at their own 20-yard line to begin the game-winning scoring march.

RB Jamaal Charles returned the opening kickoff for a 97-yard TD to give Kansas City a 7-0 lead. Then the Steelers would register 17 unanswered points. CB Brandon Flowers forced Kansas City's first takeaway of the game when he stripped Steelers WR Mike Wallace, but the Chiefs couldn't capitalize.

The Steelers marched to the KC 34-yard line where they converted a key fourth and one before eventually settling for a 36-yard K Jeff Reed FG to narrow the Chiefs lead to 7-3. After a Kansas City punt, Roethlisberger capped a 95-yard scoring drive with an eight-yard TD pass to WR Hines Ward giving the Steelers a 10-7 lead with 5:32 left in the first half.

The Chiefs punted again on their next possession and Roethlisberger promptly answered. A 10-yard TD pass to TE Heath Miller gave the Steelers a 17-7 lead heading into halftime. Pittsburgh got the ball to start the second half, but a Roethlisberger pass was picked off by Studebaker, giving the Chiefs possession at their own 38-yard line. Cassel then led a seven-play drive that culminated with a 21-yard TD to a wide open TE Leonard Pope to close the gap to 17-14.

With Pittsburgh poised at the Chiefs 10-yard line, Studebaker recorded his second interception of the day as he picked off a Roethlisberger pass two yards deep in the end zone and returned it 94 yards to the Pittsburgh eight-yard line. That set up a 27-yard FG from Succop to knot the score at 17-17 with 0:09 left in the third quarter.

After a Steelers punt, Cassel was sacked by LB Lawrence Timmons and lost the ball. LB James Harrison recovered the fumble at the Kansas City 32-yard line. Roethlisberger then connected on an eight-yard pass to RB Rashard Mendenhall, giving Pittsburgh a 24-17 lead with 8:35 left in regulation.

On Kansas City's next possession, Cassel hooked up with WR Lance Long for a 30-yard gain and followed that with a 47-yard pass to Chambers, moving the ball to the Pittsburgh 13-yard line. Charles rushed for a first down to the Steelers two-yard line and then grabbed a two-yard pass from Cassel on the next play to tie the score at 24-24 with 4:54 left to play.

After exchanging punts, the Chiefs got the ball back with 0:22 remaining in regulation and ultimately opted to take their chances in the extra session.

Pittsburgh won the overtime toss and began moving downfield before Roethlisberger exited the game. The Steelers eschewed a 53-yard FG attempt and punted, setting the stage of Kansas City's game-winning drive in OT.

GAME NOTES

- RB Jamaal Charles returned the opening kickoff for a 97-yard TD, tying for the fifth-longest kickoff return in franchise history.
- LB Andy Studebaker registered his first two career INTs, including one that he returned 94 yards, the fifth-longest INT return in Chiefs history.

Chargers 43, Chiefs 14

November 29, 2009 • Qualcomm Stadium • 65,280

KANSAS CITY	0	7	7	0	—	14
SAN DIEGO	7	21	10	5	—	43

The Chargers broke open a game tied at 7-7 in the second quarter with 28 unanswered points en route to a 43-14 win at Qualcomm Stadium. After allowing just 23 points off turnovers in the club's first 10 games, Kansas City permitted 28 points off four giveaways against San Diego.

Kansas City committed its first turnover of the game on its second possession when QB Matt Cassel was picked off by CB Quentin Jammer, giving San Diego the ball at its 39-yard line. San Diego wasted little time in capitalizing as TE Antonio Gates hauled in a 19-yard TD from QB Philip Rivers to take a 7-0 lead.

Both clubs exchanged punts before the Chiefs orchestrated an eight-play, 91-yard TD drive. A 31-yard run by RB Jamaal Charles and a facemask penalty moved Kansas City to the Chargers 13-yard line. Former Chargers WR Chris Chambers also caught passes of 14 and 10 yards on the scoring march, as well as a seven-yard TD pass to tie the game at 7-7 with 10:46 left in the second quarter.

Things would rapidly go downhill from there for Kansas City. Rivers would connect with WR Malcom Floyd for 53 yards setting up a one-yard TD run from RB LaDainian Tomlinson. San Diego then capitalized on a Charles fumble when Rivers connected with Gates for his second TD catch from 15 yards out, giving San Diego a 21-7 lead.

Charles returned the ensuing kickoff 49 yards to the San Diego 45-yard line, but on the first play from scrimmage, Cassel lost grip on the ball and Chargers S Paul Oliver scooped up the fumble in midair. Oliver returned the ball for a 40-yard TD, making the count 28-7 with 2:32 left before the half.

On the Chiefs opening possession of the second half, C Rudy Niswanger's shotgun snap went over the head of Cassel and was recovered by San Diego LB Larry English at the Kansas City 10-yard line. Two plays later, Tomlinson registered a three-yard TD to push the San Diego advantage to 35-7.

But the Chiefs showed signs of spark on their next possession. Cassel hit Charles on a 49-yard pass to give the Chiefs offense new life. Charles capped an eight-play, 79-yard drive with a four-yard TD run, making the score 35-14 with 9:45 left in the third quarter. K Nate Kaeding then nailed a 55-yard FG to extend the Chargers lead to 38-14. After the Chiefs turned the ball over on downs, the Chargers drove the ball deep into Chiefs territory. Tomlinson was headed for paydirt before CB Brandon Flowers jarred the ball free just shy of the goal line. Flowers jumped on the loose ball at the four-yard line to thwart the scoring threat. But Cassel was called for intentional grounding in the end zone three plays later. The resulting safety made the count 40-14.

Following the free kick, San Diego marched 60 yards, chewing 7:37 off the clock as Kaeding hit a 23-yard FG to make the final score 43-14.

December 6, 2009 • Arrowhead Stadium • 68,912

DENVER	7	7	20	10	—	44
KANSAS CITY	0	6	0	7	—	13

The Chiefs trailed by a narrow 14-6 margin at halftime, but were outscored 20-0 in the third quarter as Denver capitalized on three Kansas City turnovers and a failed fake punt en route to a 44-13 victory at Arrowhead. On a day when the Chiefs honored the memory of LB Derrick Thomas and retired his #58, LB Tamba Hali registered a pair of sack and strips, finishing the game with a career-best 3.0 sacks.

After Denver moved the ball quickly downfield on the game's opening possession, LB Demorrio Williams tipped a QB Kyle Orton pass that S Mike Brown promptly picked off in the end zone.

The Chiefs offense stalled giving Denver the ball back. The Broncos quickly atoned for their opening-drive turnover, and on second and goal from the seven, a throwback screen from Orton to TE Daniel Graham capped an eight-play, 63-yard drive, that put the Broncos up 7-0 with 7:20 left in the first quarter.

The Chiefs responded by going on a 20-play scoring march that featured six Kansas City first downs, the club's longest scoring drive in terms of plays since '88. The Chiefs were forced to settle for a 22-yard K Ryan Succop FG to make the count 7-3.

Both clubs traded punts before Denver drove 80 yards to the end zone capped by RB Knowshon Moreno's two-yard TD run, putting Denver up 14-3 with 7:03 left in the first half. After the teams traded punts, Hali registered sacks on back-to-back plays, the second of which resulted in a fumble that was recovered by DE Glenn Dorsey at midfield. A 47-yard Succop field goal made the count 14-6 at intermission.

Kansas City appeared to line up in punt formation at its own 28-yard line on its opening possession of the second half, but QB Brodie Croyle lined up in the shotgun and attempted a pass to LS Thomas Gafford on fourth down. The ball was batted down, giving Denver the ball at the Kansas City 27-yard line. The Chiefs defense would limit the Broncos to a 44-yard K Matt Prater FG, making the count 17-7.

Things quickly went downhill from there. CB Andre Goodman picked off a QB Matt Cassel pass on Kansas City's next possession, returning the ball to the Chiefs 21-yard line. That turnover set up a seven-yard TD pass to WR Brandon Marshall, making the score 24-6 with 10:31 left in the third quarter. S Renaldo Hill picked off Cassel on the Chiefs next drive, setting up the Broncos again in Kansas City territory at the 42-yard line, but the Chiefs again held Denver to another Prater FG, this time from 38 yards out, giving Denver a 27-6 lead with 5:53 left in the third period.

After trading punts, Denver LB Mario Haggan forced a RB Jamaal Charles fumble that was scooped up by Goodman, who returned the ball for a 30-yard TD, giving Denver a 34-6 advantage. After the Chiefs punted and pinned the Denver offense at its own four-yard line, Hali recorded his third sack of the game and forced his second fumble of the day, knocking the ball out of Orton's hands. Again, Dorsey recovered the ball, and the Chiefs were in business at the Denver three-yard line. Croyle entered the contest for Kansas City, and a four-yard TD run by Charles would make the count 34-13 with 14:57 left in the game.

But as they did all day, the Broncos had an answer, rattling off 10 more points on an 18-yard Moreno TD run and a Prater field goal to cap a 44-13 victory.

Bills 16, Chiefs 10

BUFFALO	7	3	3	3	— 16
KANSAS CITY	0	3	7	0	— 10

Despite 181 yards from scrimmage from RB Jamaal Charles, including an electrifying 76-yard TD run, the Bills held on for a 16-10 win at Arrowhead. Kansas City's defense forced three turnovers, but the Chiefs committed four turnovers themselves. KC held Buffalo to 73 net passing yards, but relinquished 200 rushing yards in the loss.

LB Mike Vrabel registered the game's first big play as he sacked QB Ryan Fitzpatrick on the Bills second possession of the game and forced a fumble that was recovered by DT Ron Edwards at the Buffalo nine-yard line. But the Bills rebuffed the Chiefs scoring opportunity when QB Matt Cassel was tackled on fourth and goal at the one-yard line.

On Buffalo's next offensive play, RB Marshawn Lynch rattled off a 47-yard run to set up Fitzpatrick's nine-yard TD pass to WR Terrell Owens giving Buffalo a 7-0 advantage at the end of the first quarter.

On the Chiefs next possession, a replay review upheld that WR Chris Chambers was short on third and three from the five-yard line, setting the stage for a 21-yard K Ryan Succop FG that made the count 7-3 in favor of the Bills with 10:25 left in the first half.

On Buffalo's ensuing possession, CB Brandon Carr stripped the ball from TE Shawn Nelson and recovered it at the Buffalo 49-yard line, but the Chiefs were forced to punt. Buffalo would score on a 41-yard FG from K Rian Lindell to up their lead to 10-3 before halftime.

KC's defense forced the Bills to go three and out on their opening possession of the second half. But on the Chiefs initial play from scrimmage, Cassel was picked off by CB Terrence McGee at the Kansas City 27-yard line. Chiefs CB Brandon Flowers returned the favor, intercepting Fitzpatrick in the end zone.

Again, the Chiefs couldn't move the ball after the turnover, and the Bills extended their lead 13-3 with a 24-yard Lindell FG with 3:10 left in the third quarter. On the Chiefs next play from scrimmage, Charles exploded for a career-long 76-yard TD run to narrow the Buffalo lead to 13-10 with 2:53 left in the third stanza. He finished the game with 143 rushing yards.

After a Kansas City punt, Lindell misfired on a 51-yard FG attempt, giving the ball back to the Chiefs at their own 41-yard line. Two plays later, a Cassel pass went off the hands of Chambers and into the arms of LB Paul Posluszny, who returned the ball to the Kansas City 35-yard line. Charles appeared to strip Posluszny on the return, but instant replay was unable to verify that the ball was recovered by Kansas City.

On Buffalo's ensuing drive, the Bills were able to register another FG from Lindell, this time from 36 yards out as Buffalo took a 16-10 lead with 8:01 left in the game.

After Kansas City orchestrated a 13-play drive that put the Chiefs at Buffalo's 21-yard line with 3:01 to play, a third and 10 pass slipped through the hands of Chambers inside the Buffalo five-yard line. Cassel's subsequent pass on fourth and 10 was tipped and ultimately intercepted by S Jairus Byrd.

Kansas City's defense forced another three and out to give the Chiefs one last possession at their own 27-yard line with 1:00 remaining. Kansas City's final desperation heave was thwarted as Cassel's pass was intercepted by S George Wilson in the end zone as time expired, sealing Buffalo's 16-10 victory.

GAME NOTES

- RB Jamaal Charles had a career-long 76-yard TD run, tying as the seventh-longest run in franchise history.

CLEVELAND	10	10	7	14	—	41
KANSAS CITY	3	21	0	10	—	34

In a game filled with big plays and drastic momentum swings, Cleveland ultimately prevailed by a 41-34 margin thanks to two kickoff return TDs by WR Josh Cribbs and a franchise-record 286 rushing yards by RB Jerome Harrison, who scored three TDs.

QB Matt Cassel led the Chiefs on an eight-play, 58-yard TD drive to tie the game at 34-34 with 2:20 left to play, connecting on a 12-yard TD pass to WR Mark Bradley on fourth and six. Cleveland answered as Harrison broke off a 28-yard TD run to give the Browns a 41-34 lead with 0:44 left in the contest. Cassel finished the game with a season-high 331 passing yards and led the Chiefs to Cleveland's 26-yard line before his final pass attempt fell incomplete.

After Cleveland opened the contest with a 12-play, 46-yard scoring drive that culminated with a 47-yard FG by K Phil Dawson, Kansas City was driving before RB Tim Castille lost a fumble. But the Chiefs defense returned the favor as CB Brandon Carr grabbed an errant QB Brady Quinn pass and returned it 31 yards to the Cleveland 49-yard line. Kansas City would be forced to settle for a 30-yard K Ryan Succop FG to tie the game at 3-3.

Cribbs took the ensuing kickoff back for a 100-yard TD, pushing the Browns back into the lead, making the score 10-3 with 3:56 left in the first quarter. After a Chiefs punt, the Browns tacked on a 30-yard Dawson FG increasing Cleveland's lead to 13-3 with 12:32 left in the opening half. The Chiefs would answer with a nine-yard TD pass from Cassel to WR Chris Chambers, trimming the Browns lead to 13-10 with 10:04 left in the first half.

After a Cleveland punt, Cassel hit TE Brad Cottam for 24 yards. Three plays later, RB Jamaal Charles broke loose for a 47-yard TD run, giving the Chiefs the 17-13 lead with 4:10 left in the first half. Charles would finish the day with 154 rushing yards.

The Browns next possession stalled and an errant punt snap was recovered by LB Andy Studebaker in the end zone, giving the Chiefs a 24-13 lead with 2:44 left before intermission. But Cleveland would regain the momentum almost immediatley as Cribbs returned the ensuing kickoff for a 103-yard TD, cutting the Chiefs advantage to 24-20.

After Kansas City was forced to punt on its opening possession of the second half, Harrison broke off a 71-yard TD run to give the Browns a 27-24 advantage. CB Brandon Flowers registered an INT to halt another Browns scoring drive, but the Chiefs failed to capitalize.

Early in the fourth quarter, Harrison extended the Browns lead with an eight-yard TD run making it 34-24 with 12:09 left to play. The Chiefs added a 27-yard Succop FG, narrowing the Cleveland margin to 34-27 with 8:08 left in the game. After Dawson's subsequent 52-yard FG attempt came up short, the Chiefs took the ball on their own 42-yard line with 4:26 remaining.

Cassel then orchestrated a game-tying drive as his 12-yard TD to Bradley made the count 34-34. Harrison put the final dagger into the Chiefs with his 28-yard TD run with 0:44 left to play. Cassel attempted to put together one final drive for the Chiefs, but there wasn't enough time as the Browns left Arrowhead with a 41-34 victory.

Bengals 17, Chiefs 10

December 27, 2009 • Paul Brown Stadium • 64,333

KANSAS CITY	0	3	0	7	— 10
CINCINNATI	0	3	7	7	— 17

The Chiefs put on one of their best defensive performances of the season, holding the explosive Bengals to just 17 points and 274 total yards, but Cincinnati was able to secure the AFC North title with a 17-10 victory at Paul Brown Stadium.

With the score tied at 10-10, the Bengals offense orchestrated a 14-play, 98-yard drive that culminated with a six-yard TD pass to WR Chad Ochocinco to take a 17-10 lead with 2:03 remaining. CB Leon Hall essentially sealed the victory when he intercepted QB Matt Cassel with 1:13 left in the contest.

S Jon McGraw registered the Chiefs biggest defensive play of the day when he intercepted a QB Carson Palmer pass. However, the Bengals responded with an INT of their own when S Chinedum Ndukwe picked off a Cassel pass intended for WR Dwayne Bowe.

Chiefs DE Wallace Gilberry dropped Palmer for a nine-yard sack on third and 11, forcing another Bengals punt. The Chiefs were forced to punt on their ensuing possession, but LS Thomas Gafford's snap sailed over P Dustin Colquitt's head, setting Cincinnati up with first and goal at KC's seven-yard line.

The Bengals appeared to score when Ochocinco caught a ball in the end zone, but a replay review ruled that the Bengals receiver had stepped out of bounds, resulting in an illegal touching penalty. The Chiefs defense held, forcing a 29-yard K Shayne Graham FG to give Cincinnati a 3-0 lead with 1:38 left in the second quarter.

Cassel and the Kansas City offense responded by moving the ball efficiently in the two-minute offense. A 15-yard completion to RB Jamaal Charles and a 13-yard strike to WR Bobby Wade kept the drive moving, getting the Chiefs to the Bengals 21-yard line. K Ryan Succop's 22nd made FG of the season, a 30-yard effort, tied the game at 3-3 with five seconds remaining in the opening half.

Cincinnati received the second-half kickoff and RB Cedric Benson rattled off a 32-yard run to open the quarter. That play would jumpstart a 10-play, 77-yard TD drive that was capped by a 10-yard TD pass from Palmer to WR Laveranues Coles, giving the Bengals a 10-3 lead with 9:10 left in the third quarter. After Cincinnati's ensuing drive stalled, TE Jake O'Connell deflected P Kevin Huber's punt, giving the Chiefs possession at the Cincinnati 49-yard line.

Cassel then connected with WR Chris Chambers for nine yards. A 13-yard run by Charles, who registered his third consecutive 100-yard rushing game with 102 yards, set the Chiefs up at the Cincinnati 20-yard line. On third down, Cassel hit a leaping RB Tim Castille between three Bengals defenders to register his first NFL touchdown. That score knotted the contest at 10-10 with 14:52 left to play.

After the two clubs exchanged punts again, the Chiefs pinned the Bengals deep in their own territory when WR Quinten Lawrence downed the ball at the Cincinnati two-yard line. Cincinnati drove 98 yards on 14 plays capping the drive with a six-yard TD pass from Palmer to Ochocinco to put the Bengals up 17-10 with 2:03 left to play in the game, as the drive chewed 7:18 off the clock.

The Chiefs got the ball back with an opportunity to match the Bengals score, but a deep pass intended for Chambers was intercepted by Hall, effectively sealing the 17-10 win and the division title for the Bengals.

GAME NOTES

• K Ryan Succop hit his 22nd FG of the season, surpassing Hall of Fame K Jan Stenerud (21) for the most made FGs by a rookie in Chiefs history.

GAME 16

Chiefs 44, Broncos 24

January 3, 2010 • INVESCO Field at Mile High • 73,725

KANSAS CITY	7	3	17	17	—	44
DENVER	0	10	14	0	—	24

It was a record-setting day for a pair of former Texas Longhorns as RB Jamaal Charles set a franchise single-game rushing record with 259 yards and a pair of TDs. Meanwhile, LB Derrick Johnson tied an NFL record, becoming the third linebacker in league annals to record two INT return TDs. Kansas City's 44-24 win knocked Denver out of the playoff chase and gave the Chiefs their first-ever victory at INVESCO Field.

The Chiefs quickly marched 86 yards on their first possession as QB Matt Cassel opened with three straight completions including a 50-yard pass to WR Terrance Copper. FB Mike Cox dove in from one yard out on the drive's fourth play to give the Chiefs an early 7-0 lead.

On Denver's next possession, Chiefs DE Glenn Dorsey sacked QB Kyle Orton for a one-yard loss and the Broncos were eventually forced to punt. Charles broke off a 52-yard run on KC's third possession, setting the Chiefs up at the Denver 35-yard line. Two plays later RB Tim Castille attempted an ill-advised throwback pass to Cassel that was intercepted by CB Andre Goodman at the Denver five-yard line.

Denver responded with a 10-play, 95-yard drive. A pass interference call in the end zone gave the Broncos the ball on KC's one-yard line. RB Knowshon Moreno punched it in on third down, evening the score at 7-7.

After exchanging punts, K Ryan Succop's 20-yard FG put the Chiefs up 10-7 with 5:03 left in the second quarter. Denver answered when K Matt Prater knocked through a 25-yard FG with 0:27 left in the first half to knot the score at 10-10.

WR Quinten Lawrence opened the second half with a 26-yard end around. A 15-yard run, plus a pair of Denver penalties, would set the stage for a five-yard TD run from Charles to give the Chiefs a 17-10 lead.

Denver answered quickly as Orton hit WR Brandon Lloyd for 44 yards set up a one-yard Moreno TD to knot the score at 17-17 with 8:25 left in the third quarter. Kansas City's next drive stalled and Succop hit a 36-yard FG to give the Chiefs the 20-17 lead.

Johnson kept the Chiefs momentum rolling as he intercepted an Orton pass on Denver's first play of the next drive and returned it for a 45-yard TD to give the Chiefs a 27-17 lead.

CB Ty Law put the Broncos back in business when he returned an INT to the three-yard line. Orton hit WR Brandon Stokley in the end zone to make the score 27-24. Kansas City extended the lead to 30-24 with 12:57 left in the game on a 47-yard Succop FG.

Johnson haulted Denver's next drive with a 60-yard INT return TD, extending the Chiefs lead to 37-24 with 9:52 left in the game.

After another Broncos punt, Charles scampered for a 56-yard TD on the second play of the drive, making the score 44-24 with 6:25 left. CB Brandon Flowers brought down Kansas City's third INT of the day as he grabbed an errant Orton pass in the end zone with 2:50 left to play, effectively sealing the Chiefs win.

GAME NOTES

- Kansas City's 44 points were the club's most at Denver since a 45-24 win (10/1/72).
- Kansas City's 317 rushing yards were the fourth-highest total in team history.

AFL ORIGINS

1958 — Lamar Hunt's efforts to acquire an expansion NFL franchise for his hometown of Dallas were rebuked by the league. However, his desire to secure a professional football franchise was further heightened after watching the historic '58 NFL Championship Game between Baltimore and the N.Y. Giants.

1959 — After another attempt at landing an NFL expansion franchise for Dallas was spurned, NFL officials suggested that Hunt contact the Wolfner family, owners of the Chicago Cardinals franchise. Violet Bidwell Wolfner, mother of current Cardinals owner William Bidwell, and her husband Walter eventually agreed to sell Hunt 20 percent of the Cardinals franchise. Hunt declined the opportunity. He then conceived the concept of forming a second league. "Why wouldn't a second league work?" Hunt recalled. "There was an American and National League in baseball, why not football?" Hunt contacted several other individuals who had expressed interest in the Cardinals franchise – Bud Adams (Houston), Bob Howsam (Denver), Max Winter and Bill Boyer (Minneapolis) – and gauged their interest in forming a second league. Adams quickly signed on and the young league, albeit still very much in its infancy stages, already had its first rivalry.

With four teams in the ranks including Hunt's Dallas franchise, he sought franchises in New York and Los Angeles. Before ownership in those cities was secured, Hunt sought the NFL's blessing for his endeavor, hoping that NFL Commissioner Bert Bell would oversee both leagues. "I told myself I didn't want to go into this if it meant some kind of battle," Hunt remembered. "Of course, this was one of the more naive thoughts in the history of pro sports." Although the NFL wanted no part of Hunt's new league, Hunt gave his blessing for Bell to mention it in the course of his testimony before a Congressional committee on July 28th. "At that point, no one had put up a penny and I had no commitments from New York or Los Angeles," Hunt continued. "But Bert Bell had announced it. We were in business."

THE FOOLISH CLUB

The whole idea of the AFL seemed so far-fetched, the eight team owners were whimsically named "The Foolish Club." Lamar Hunt credited Wayne Valley of the Oakland ownership group for coining that moniker. "I was an amateur photographer and had taken some color pictures of the '64 season," Hunt explained. "I sent out a montage as Christmas gifts one year. At the top was the hand-lettered phrase, The Foolish Club." Both the name and the league would stick.

Within weeks, Barron Hilton (Los Angeles) and Harry Wismer (New York) agreed to enter the six-team league. On August 14th, the first meeting of the new league was held in Chicago. Charter memberships were issued to six original cities — Dallas, New York, Houston, Denver, Los Angeles and Minneapolis. The league was officially christened the American Football League on August 22nd. Ralph Wilson (Buffalo) was extended the league's seventh franchise on October 28th and William Sullivan (Boston) became the league's eighth owner on November 23rd, the date of the inaugural AFL draft, which lasted 33 rounds. All eight original owners agreed to contribute $25,000 and to post a performance bond of $100,000. "Before there was a player, coach or general manager in the league, there was Lamar Hunt," said Sullivan. "Hunt was the cornerstone, the integrity of the league. Without him, there would have been no AFL."

In November, the league nearly disbanded before it even played a single game. Winter announced that he was withdrawing from the league to accept an NFL franchise for Minneapolis. The NFL now envisioned an expansion franchise for Dallas, as well, but Hunt declined that offer. "It (the AFL) was so important to me," Hunt said. "I had a lot of money in it, a lot invested in it. Emotionally, I spent a lot of time, effort and energy on it. I felt an obligation. A guy like Billy Sullivan had everything he had in it. It wouldn't have been the right thing to do."

The AFL forged forward as former World War II hero and two-term South Dakota governor Joe Foss was named commissioner on November 30th. A second, 20-round AFL draft was held on December 2nd. Hunt pursued both legendary University of Oklahoma coach Bud Wilkinson and N.Y. Giants defensive assistant Tom Landry to lead his Texans franchise. Wilkinson opted to stay at Oklahoma, while Landry was destined to coach the NFL's franchise in Dallas. Hunt settled on a relatively unknown assistant coach from the University of Miami (Florida), Hank Stram. "One of the biggest reasons I hired Hank was that he really wanted the job," Hunt explained. "It turned out to be a very lucky selection on my part."

1960 — Hunt was elected President of the AFL on January 26th. Minneapolis officially withdrew from the AFL on January 27th. An ownership group from Dallas was awarded an expansion NFL franchise on January 28th to begin play that season in direct competition with the Texans. That same day, AFL owners approved the two-point conversion rule which was utilized for the AFL's 10-year existence, a rule that wouldn't resurface in the NFL for 34 more years. On January 30th, Oakland replaced Minneapolis as the eighth AFL outpost. In another ironic twist, the Chicago Cardinals franchise which Hunt had attempted to purchase a year earlier received permission from the NFL to transfer to St. Louis on March 13th. Perhaps the most important moment in the AFL's formative years came on June 9th when the league signed a five-year television contract with ABC that paid each club $112,000 during the '60 season.

The Texans set up offices in the Mercantile Securities Building, while Foss headquartered the AFL offices out of Dallas, as well. The Texans shared the Cotton Bowl for three seasons with the NFL's Cowboys. Reserved seats were $4, general admission $2 and high school students paid $.90 that initial season. Don Rossi served as the team's General Manager until November when he was succeeded by Jack Steadman. The Texans conducted their inaugural training camp at the New Mexico Military Institute in Roswell, NM. The club embarked on a whirlwind preseason barnstorming tour that featured road games in Oakland, Tulsa, Boston, Abilene and Little Rock. An announced crowd of 51,000 at the Cotton Bowl witnessed a 24-3 victory vs. Houston (9/2) as the club concluded a perfect 6-0 preseason record.

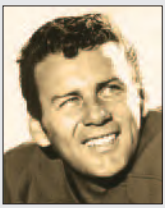
The initial regular season victory in team history came by a 34-16 count at Oakland (9/16) thanks to 88 rushing yards, a TD and two FGs from FB Jack Spikes (TCU). In addition to Spikes, the Texans also had a strong home-state identity with QB Cotton Davidson (Baylor), LB Sherrill Headrick (TCU) and RB Abner Haynes (North Texas State). Haynes led the league with 875 rushing yards and nine TDs, as well as combined net yards (2,100) and punt return average (15.4). Haynes' combined net yardage mark remained a franchise record until 2001. Thanks to Haynes, the Texans had a flashy, high-scoring club, which finished the year at 8-6 as three close losses kept the squad from challenging for the division title. The Texans averaged 24,500 for their home games, the highest average in the league.

1961 — Don Klosterman joined the franchise as Director of Player Personnel and a wealth of college talent was infused into the franchise's veins. The Texans and the NFL's Dallas Cowboys both drafted LB E.J. Holub (Texas Tech), described by many scouts as "the best football player in America." Holub decided to play for the Texans, joining three future Chiefs Hall of Famers – DT/DE Jerry Mays (SMU), TE Fred Arbanas (Michigan State) and T Jim Tyrer (Ohio State) – as part of the club's draft class. The club moved its training camp to Hunt's alma mater of SMU and started the regular season at 3-1 before hitting a six-game losing skid, the longest such streak of Stram's tenure with the franchise. One of those losses was a 28-21 decision in a Friday night contest at Boston (11/3) which featured a bizarre ending as a raincoat-clad fan knocked down a potential game-tying TD from Davidson to E Chris Burford on the game's final play. The team rebounded to claim wins in three of its final four contests to finish 6-8, marking the club's second straight finish behind the Chargers in the AFL West standings.

1962 — Stram was named Coach of the Year and RB Curtis McClinton (Kansas) was named the '62 AFL Rookie of the Year. Haynes became the franchise's first 1,000-yard rusher, concluding the season with 1,049 yards and an AFL-high 13 rushing TDs.

The Texans clinched their initial AFL Western Division Championship in November and finished with an 11-3 regular season record. Dallas won the '62 AFL Championship when K Tommy Brooker connected on a 25-yard field goal during the second overtime of the title game, giving the Texans a 20-17 victory at Houston (12/23). Spanning an elapsed time of 77:54, the game still stands as the second-longest contest in pro football history as the franchise claimed its first of three AFL titles.

Stram



LENNY THE COOL

A pivotal moment in franchise history took place on July 2, 1962 when Hank Stram signed free agent QB Len Dawson. Dawson entered the NFL as a first-round draft pick of Pittsburgh in '57, but was waived by Cleveland on June 12th. After spending five uneventful years in the NFL with the Steelers and Browns, Dawson received his final shot at pro football redemption from Stram. Convinced that Dawson was the man to lead the franchise on the field, the only trade personally orchestrated by Lamar Hunt in team history occurred after the season's first game when the Chiefs sent QB Cotton Davidson to Oakland in exchange for the Raiders first-round pick in '63, a pick that was used to select Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan with the first overall selection. As for Dawson he didn't disappoint in '62, throwing 29 TD passes to earn AFL Player of the Year honors.

GOIN' TO KANSAS CITY

1963—Despite the Texans championship season in '62, the Dallas market simply could not sustain two professional football franchises. Kansas City Mayor H. Roe Bartle learned of Hunt's interest in a new home for the Texans and extended an invitation for Hunt and Jack Steadman to move the franchise to Mid-America. After the duo visited Kansas City on an incognito basis, an ambitious campaign took shape to deliver on Bartle's guarantee to Hunt of tripling the season-ticket base the Texans had enjoyed in Dallas. Kansas City's mayor, nicknamed "The Chief," also promised to add 3,000 permanent seats to Municipal Stadium, as well as 11,000 temporary bleacher seats. Along with Bartle, a number of other prominent Kansas Citians stepped forward to aid in the efforts, putting together more than 1,000 workers to sell season tickets. On May 22nd, Hunt announced he was moving the franchise to Kansas City. Hunt and Stram jested at one point about calling the relocated team the Kansas City Texans, but thanks to the insistence of Steadman and a "name-the-team" contest, the Chiefs were officially christened on May 26th, in part to honor the efforts of Bartle. During their inaugural season in Kansas City, the Chiefs charged $7 for box seats and $6 for reserved seats at Municipal Stadium.

Three highly-touted draft choices began their tenures with the club in '63. Hunt's trade of Davidson landed the number one overall selection in the AFL Draft which Kansas City used to select Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan (Grambling). Ironically, the Raiders would later draft Hall of Fame G Gene Upshaw in '67 for the express purpose of blocking Buchanan. The Chiefs tabbed G Ed Budde (Michigan State) with their own number one selection, while stealing another future Hall of Fame inductee, LB Bobby Bell (Minnesota) in the seventh round. Buchanan, Budde and Bell all became starters on their way to a combined 526 games with the team. The first appearance of the Chiefs in Municipal Stadium attracted just 5,721 fans for a 17-13 preseason victory vs. Buffalo (8/9). Tragedy struck the club when rookie RB Stone Johnson (Grambling), who was a sprinter in the '60 Olympics in Rome, suffered a fractured vertebra in his neck in a preseason game vs. Houston (8/30) in Wichita, KS. He died 10 days later on September 8th and his jersey number 33 was subsequently retired. Kansas City opened the regular season with a 59-7 victory at Denver (9/7), a contest that remains the highest-scoring effort in team history. On October 1st, the club moved into its new Swope Park practice facility located on East 63rd Street, where the team's headquarters remained until the opening of Arrowhead Stadium in '72. The Chiefs managed just one win and two ties in their next nine games before racking up three consecutive wins to close the year at 5-7-2.

1964 — On January 29th, the AFL and NBC signed a landmark five-year, $36-million television contract beginning with the '65 season. The Chiefs began the year with a 2-1 mark before dropping three consecutive games as several of the team's best players, including LB E.J. Holub, TE Fred Arbanas and S Johnny Robinson, missed numerous games with injuries. Arbanas missed the final two games of the year after undergoing surgery to his left eye, in which he suffered almost total loss of vision. RB Mack Lee Hill (Southern), who signed with the club as a rookie free agent and received a mere $300 signing bonus, muscled his way into the starting lineup and earned a spot in the AFL All-Star Game. The club rounded out the season with two consecutive wins to close the season at 7-7, finishing second in the AFL West behind San Diego (8-5-1). An average of just 18,126 fans attended each home game at Municipal Stadium, prompting discussion at the AFL owners' meeting about the future of the franchise in Kansas City.

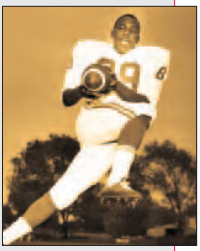
BIDDING WARS, MERGER TALKS & GLORY DAYS

1965 — The AFL and NFL had been openly competing for talent for years, but that bidding war for players heated up for the Chiefs in '65. Kansas City made RB Gale Sayers (Kansas) their first-round draft pick, but Sayers eventually signed with the Chicago Bears.

The club suffered a devastating blow when RB Mack Lee Hill suffered torn ligaments in his right knee in the next-to-last regular season game of the year at Buffalo (12/12). Following what was expected to be a routine surgery on December 14th at Menorah Hospital in Kansas City, Hill died from what was termed "a sudden and massive embolism." Hunt called Hill's death "the worst shock possible." Beginning the following year, the club annually bestowed the Mack Lee Hill Award on its top rookie or first-year performer in honor of this fallen young star. Just days after Hill's unexpected death, the mourning Chiefs defeated Denver (12/19) to finish the year with a 7-5-2 record.

1966 — The escalation in player salaries paid by the two leagues eventually led to a series of clandestine meetings between Hunt and Tex Schramm of the Cowboys that began in April at Love Field in Dallas. While merger groundwork was being laid, the Chiefs engaged in more subterfuge during the '66 draft. DE Aaron Brown (Minnesota) was highly coveted by many clubs, including the NFL's Steelers. The Steelers couldn't locate Brown on draft day since he was already aboard a flight with Hunt, who carried out the first mid-air signing in team history. Despite being drafted in the 20th round of the AFL Draft, the Chiefs signed Heisman Trophy RB Mike Garrett (USC) who earned AFL Rookie of the Year honors. Plans for the AFL-NFL merger were officially announced by NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle on June 8th. The Chiefs started the season at 3-0, including a 32-10 win at Oakland (9/18) in the first contest played at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. A crowd of 43,885 attended the Chiefs home opener vs. defending AFC Champion Buffalo (10/2), the largest ever to witness a sports event in Kansas City at the time. The Chiefs dropped a 29-14 decision to the Bills, but after the contest, Stram and Buffalo Head Coach Joe Collier negotiated a trade in the middle of the field. Kansas City got K Mike Mercer for a fifth-round pick, solidifying one of the few weaknesses on the squad. Dawson led the league in passing, while Taylor became the first 1,000-yard receiver in franchise history, registering 1,297 yards. The Chiefs finished three games in front of Oakland to claim an AFL West title with an 11-2-1 record, setting the stage for the franchise's second trip to the AFL Championship Game.

THE OTIS ACQUISITION



One of the more colorful tales in franchise lore transpired days before the '65 draft. The Cowboys had WR Otis Taylor (Prairie View A&M) sequestered at the Continental Hotel in Dallas. Chiefs scout Lloyd Wells, who was instrumental in the signing of many key players during the '60s, thought he had Taylor's services secured for the Chiefs when he learned of the Cowboys chicanery. After ascertaining the receiver's location from Taylor's mother, Wells posed as a reporter from Ebony magazine and slipped his phone number to Taylor unbeknownst to a Cowboys "bodyguard" watching Taylor's hotel door. At 3:00 AM one of the greatest "escapes" in franchise history was consummated as the receiver climbed out a bathroom window and into an awaiting Cadillac. Taylor and Wells boarded a flight for Kansas City later that morning and Taylor, with a shiny new vehicle in his possession, was subsequently drafted by the Chiefs in the fourth round, beginning an illustrious Kansas City career.

1967 — Using a dazzling I-formation offense and a smothering defense, the Chiefs claimed a dominating 31-7 victory in the AFL title game at Buffalo (1/1) on the same day that future Chiefs star Derrick Vincent Thomas was born in Miami, Florida. That victory propelled Kansas

City to the first AFL-NFL World Championship Game, later renamed Super Bowl I. The term "Super Bowl" was coined by Hunt during a committee meeting, inspired by a "Super Ball" owned by each of his three children. Although not officially adopted until the third such AFL-NFL World Championship Game, the name Super Bowl was seized upon by the media and quickly became a part of the worldwide sports lexicon. At the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, the Chiefs met Vince Lombardi's powerful Green Bay Packers (1/15). The Chiefs played the Packers close for a half, trailing 14-10, but Green Bay took control in the final two quarters, winning the game by a score of 35-10.

LEGENDARY LINEBACKERS

The Chiefs found a pair of linebacking gems in the second round of the '67 draft in #51 Jim Lynch (Notre Dame) and #63 Willie Lanier (Morgan State). That duo joined #78 Bobby Bell to form one of the most legendary linebacker trios in pro football annals.

The club's special teams got a boost with the addition of K Jan Stenerud (Montana State), who originally enrolled in school on a skiing scholarship and KR Noland "Super Gnat" Smith (Tennessee State). Interest in the team skyrocketed, forcing an increase in seating capacity at Municipal Stadium from 40,000 to 47,000. In June, Jackson County voters approved a $43 million bond issue for construction of The Truman Sports Complex. The first contest between AFL and NFL teams in Kansas City resulted in a commanding 66-24 Chiefs victory vs. Chicago at Municipal Stadium (8/23). Injuries again hit the club hard during the regular season as the Chiefs clawed their way to a 9-5 record.

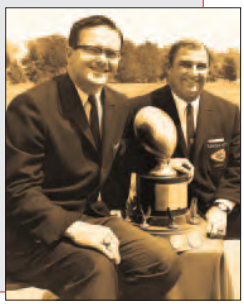
1968 — A debate raged in Kansas City whether the club's new stadium should be built downtown or at a "remote" location. A location in Eastern Jackson County was chosen as the site and groundbreaking ceremonies took place in July with plans calling for a unique "rolling roof" design. The '68 Chiefs boasted one of the finest defenses ever assembled by the club, allowing a franchise-low 170 points (12.1 ppg). The nucleus of the defensive unit was clearly in its prime, producing six AFL All-Stars, including all three of the squad's linebackers. Offensively, Dawson led the AFL in passing for the fourth time. The Chiefs began the season with a 7-1 record and rattled off five straight victories to close the regular season at 12-2, sharing the AFL West crown with the Raiders and setting up an AFL Western Division Playoff Game. Kansas City lost a 41-6 decision at Oakland (12/22) in the club's first postseason outing since Super Bowl I as the Raiders advanced to the AFL Championship Game against the N.Y. Jets.

1969 — The Chiefs continued the momentum they built during the '68 campaign by posting a perfect 6-0 record during preseason play. Kansas City began the regular season with four consecutive road games for the only time in team history. After a decisive 27-9 win at San Diego (9/14), the club posted a 31-0 shutout at Boston (9/21), but Dawson sustained a knee injury against the Patriots. The once-optimistic picture for the Chiefs went from bad to worse the following week when backup QB Jacky Lee went down with a broken ankle in a 24-19 loss at Cincinnati (9/28). That injury left the team's most crucial position in the hands of second-year QB Mike Livingston, who took just five snaps as a rookie in '68. However, Livingston engineered a five-game winning streak, while getting plenty of help from the club's defense. The team's home opener at Municipal Stadium was played in a daylong deluge referred to as a "frog-strangler" by Chiefs radio broadcaster Bill Grigsby. The Chiefs and Oilers combined for 14 fumbles in a 24-0 Kansas City victory (10/12). Dawson returned to the starting lineup in a 27-3 win vs. San Diego (11/9) and guided the club to three wins in the season's next four games. Broncos coach Lou Saban was infuriated following the Chiefs 31-17 win vs. Denver (11/27). Trailing 24-17 late in the game, Denver attempted an onside kick that was recovered by LB Bobby Bell, who promptly returned that kick for a 53-yard TD. Livingston started the following week vs. Buffalo (12/7) for an again-injured Dawson, who returned for the regular season finale at Oakland (12/13). A 10-6 loss vs. the Raiders gave the Chiefs an 11-3 record, good for second in the division behind Oakland (12-1-1). In an AFC Divisional Playoff Game at the N.Y. Jets (12/20), Kansas City rode its dominating defense which produced a crucial goal-line stand en route to a 13-6 win over the defending Super Bowl champions to set up a rematch with the Raiders in the final AFL Championship Game.

1970 — In the final game in AFL history, the Chiefs became the league's only three-time champions, defeating the Raiders by a 17-7 count at Oakland (1/4). Making the victory even more satisfying for the Chiefs was the fact that the Raiders players had to sheepishly walk out of the stadium with the luggage they had packed for New

THREE-TIME AFL CHAMPIONS

With a 17-7 win over the Oakland Raiders in the '69 AFL Championship Game, Kansas City became the only team in AFL history to claim three league titles. The club also won AFL Championships in '62 and in '66. During the AFL's 10-year existence, the Chiefs compiled a league-best 87-48-5 (.639) regular season record under head coach Hank Stram.



Hunt and Stram

Orleans and Super Bowl IV. During the days preceding Kansas City's clash with the heavily-favored Vikings, unsubstantiated media reports associating Dawson with a known gambler hounded the Chiefs quarterback. The night before the game, Ed Sabol of NFL Films approached Vikings coach Bud Grant about being miked for the game. Grant declined, but Stram accepted. As both the Chiefs and the cameras rolled, Stram clamored for his team to run "65 toss power trap" and to "keep matriculating the ball down the field." The Chiefs used the game as a crusade for the American Football League and wore "AFL-10" patches which referred to the league's 10-year existence. The Chiefs used three Stenerud FGs and a Garrett TD run to take a 16-0 halftime lead. A dynamic 46-yard TD pass from Dawson to Taylor in the third quarter sealed the victory as Dawson was named the game's Most Valuable Player. Perhaps the grittiest performance of the day came from S Johnny Robinson, who registered two interceptions and a fumble recovery despite playing with three broken ribs. At approximately 5:20 PM, the final seconds ticked off the clock at Tulane Stadium as the biggest moment in Kansas City sports history came to a peak as the Chiefs were crowned World Champions by claiming a 23-7 victory in Super Bowl IV (1/11). A victory parade ensued upon the club's triumphant return to Kansas City the following day.

Replicating the success of '69 proved a difficult task for Stram and company. RB Mike Garrett, who was the club's all-time leading rusher at the time, was traded to San Diego and replaced in the lineup by RB Ed Podolak. Despite a 44-24 win at Baltimore (9/28) in just the second-ever telecast of ABC's Monday Night Football package, the Chiefs owned a 3-3-1 record at the season's midpoint. One of the season's pivotal junctures came in a 17-17 tie vs. Oakland (11/1). The Chiefs were ahead 17-14 when Dawson apparently sealed the win, running for a first down which would have allowed Kansas City to run out the clock. While on the ground, Dawson was speared by Raiders DE Ben Davidson in an infamous incident that cost the Chiefs a victory and further inflamed the already heated Chiefs-Raiders rivalry. WR Otis Taylor retaliated and a bench-clearing brawl ensued. Offsetting penalties were called, nullifying Dawson's first down. The Chiefs were forced to punt and Raiders K George Blanda eventually booted a game-tying FG with 0:08 remaining. That tie ultimately cost the Chiefs a tie with Oakland for the division crown as Kansas City finished the year with a 7-5-2 record, while the Raiders went 8-4-2.

Podolak

1971 — The '71 Chiefs were regarded by many as the finest squad ever assembled by the franchise, including Lamar Hunt. "I always thought that was the peak of our best team, our '71 squad," Hunt recalled. The '71 Chiefs fielded perhaps the most complete squad in franchise history, featuring a team-record 11 Pro Bowl performers. Offensively, WR Otis Taylor led the league with 1,110 receiving yards. The longstanding linebacking trio of Willie Lanier, Bobby Bell and Jim Lynch was the league's best. The offensive line was headlined by G Ed Budde and T Jim Tyrer, while the defensive front featured a pair of Pro Bowlers in DTs Buck Buchanan and Curley Culp. Both K Jan Stenerud and P Jerrel Wilson represented the squad in the Pro Bowl, as well. The '71 squad became the first in team annals to register two Monday Night Football wins. After bolting to a 5-1-1 start, the club went 5-2 during the second half of the season to finish the year at 10-3-1. A 16-14 home victory vs. Oakland (12/12) gave the franchise its initial AFC West title.

The great promise of the '71 campaign ended dramatically in the longest game in NFL history, an AFC Divisional Playoff Game played on Christmas Day. It took 82:40, but a 37-yard FG from Dolphins K Garo Yepremian finally ended this epic as Miami claimed a 27-24 double OT win in the final football contest played at Municipal Stadium. Podolak accounted for an incredible 350 combined net yards, a figure that remains an NFL postseason record. The baton of power in the AFC was officially passed to the Dolphins, who went on to appear in three consecutive Super Bowls. It would be the Chiefs last playoff appearance for 15 years, effectively signaling the conclusion of the franchise's original glory days.

FOND FAREWELLS

1972 — The last original member of the '60 Dallas Texans departed on July 12th when S Johnny Robinson announced his retirement at training camp. Meanwhile, QB Len Dawson ended speculation about his retirement by signing a two-year contract. Hunt became the first AFL figure to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29th.

The Chiefs lost a 20-10 decision vs. Miami (9/17) on Opening Day at Arrowhead in front of a crowd of 79,829. Municipal Stadium hosted its final pro sporting event as the Royals defeated the Rangers by a 4-0 count (10/4). A standing-room-only crowd of 82,094 fans was in attendance for a 27-14 victory vs. Oakland (11/5), the largest "in-house" attendance total for an NFL contest in Arrowhead's history. After a 5-3 start, a three-game losing streak effectively eliminated the club from playoff contention. An 8-6 record was good enough for only a second-place finish in the AFC West behind Oakland. LB Willie Lanier became the first Chiefs player to receive the prestigious NFL Man of the Year Award.

ARROWHEAD OPENS

After two different construction strikes and a myriad of other delays, Arrowhead Stadium was officially dedicated on August 12, 1972 when the Chiefs registered a 24-14 victory vs. the St. Louis Cardinals. RB Ed Podolak scored the first TD in the facility. "It was supposed to be finished on July 1st and it wasn't even close," recalled Jack Steadman. In fact, seats weren't even installed yet in some areas of the stadium, including Hunt's private suite, where guests sat on folding chairs that inaugural year. Regular season ticket prices for the team's first season in Arrowhead were $8 for box seats and $7 for reserved seating. Mayor H. Roe Bartle is shown at right trying out the first seat installed in Arrowhead.

1973 — The defense kept the club in virtually every game thanks to a nucleus that still included the bulk of the squad's Super Bowl IV starters. QB Mike Livingston started in a 23-13 Opening Day loss vs. Oakland (9/16), but Dawson returned to rally the club for three consecutive wins to get the club off to a 3-1 start for a third straight year. Inconsistency and injuries took their toll down the stretch, though. Dawson made his final start of the year in a 23-14 loss at Buffalo (10/29) and was replaced for the remainder of the year by Livingston, beginning a string of three straight seasons in which both players split time at the position. Livingston led the club to three straight wins, putting the team in first place in mid-November with a 6-3-1 record. A 1-2-1 ledger over the season's final month ended the club's postseason aspirations as the team finished the year in a second-place tie with Denver at 7-5-2. Dawson became the second Chiefs player in as many years to win the NFL Man of the Year Award.

1974 — The AFC-NFC Pro Bowl was held at Arrowhead on January 20th with the AFC claiming a 15-13 win thanks to five FGs from Miami K Garo Yepremian. While the club's sparkling new facility was drawing rave reviews, the Chiefs roster was beginning to show its age. The result was the team's first losing season in 11 years as the club was unable to string together consecutive victories during the year, a first in Chiefs franchise history. Many of the club's key players were entering the twilight of their careers: Dawson was 39, T Jim Tyrer was 35, LB Bobby Bell, DT Buck Buchanan and G Ed Budde were 34, T Dave Hill was 33 and WR Otis Taylor was 32. One of the year's few bright spots in the 5-9 season was CB Emmitt Thomas, who led the league with a franchise-record 12 INTs. The final game of the '74 campaign marked the final time all six of Kansas City's Pro Football Hall of Fame players from the club's Super Bowl era took the field together with Stram. Including Lamar Hunt and five future Vikings Hall of Famers, an amazing total of 13 Hall of Fame inductees were involved in that '74 game. That 35-15 loss vs. Minnesota (12/14) provided an anti-climatic conclusion to Stram's illustrious coaching career in Kansas City and was also the final game in a Chiefs uniform for eight-time All-Pro LB Bobby Bell. Three days later, the only head coach in franchise history was relieved of his duties on December 27th after compiling a 124-76-10 regular season record with the club.

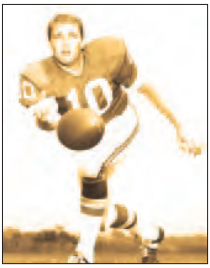
1975 — San Francisco 49ers defensive coordinator Paul Wiggin was named the second head coach in franchise history on January 23rd. A former Pro Bowl defensive end for the Cleveland Browns, Wiggin inherited the unenviable task of rebuilding a squad whose pool of talent had been largely depleted due to age and a number of ill-fated trades that had left the club devoid of first-round draft choices in '73 and '75. After an 0-3 start to the season, Wiggin directed the Chiefs to three straight wins, beginning with a convincing 42-10 victory vs. Oakland (10/12). The highlight of the season was a 34-31 upset win at Dallas (11/10) on Monday Night Football. But the club could not maintain that success. Owning a 5-5 record heading into the homestretch of the season, injuries to a number of key players crippled the team. The team dropped its final four contests of the year to finish at 5-9 for the second consecutive season. The regular season finale at Oakland (12/21) marked the final games in the Hall of Fame careers of Dawson and Buchanan.



Livingston

1976 — Buck Buchanan officially hung up his spikes in February, while Dawson announced his retirement on May 1st. Off the field, Jack Steadman was promoted to President and Jim Schaaf was named General Manager in August. On the field, Kansas City's fortunes didn't improve in the second year of the Wiggin regime. The club dropped three straight home games before suffering a 50-17 setback at Buffalo (10/3), opening the season at 0-4 for the first time in team history. The team registered a 3-1 record during a successful midseason stretch, but could not maintain that momentum. After lingering in Dawson's shadow for eight seasons, QB Mike Livingston was firmly entrenched as the team's starter, becoming the first signal-caller to start every regular season game since Dawson in '68. Even though he played well and rallied the squad for wins in two of the season's final three games, the Chiefs still ended the year with their third consecutive 5-9 record. RB Ed Podolak surpassed RB Abner Haynes as the all-time leading ground gainer in team history in the final game of the year vs. Cleveland (12/12). RB MacArthur Lane was another offensive threat, becoming the first player in franchise history to lead the league in receptions (66). One of the club's final ties to its glory days was severed when the dismantling of Municipal Stadium began on April 13th. A portion of the site was later developed into a community garden.

1977 — On the field, the Chiefs suffered their worst season to date, winning just twice and undergoing a midseason coaching change. An 0-5 start doomed the squad with a 44-7 loss at Cleveland (10/30) effectively sealing Wiggin's fate. Despite the club's record Wiggin was still a popular figure in Kansas City, but was nonetheless relieved of his duties on Halloween, marking the only in-season coaching switch in team history. Wiggin concluded his tenure with an 11-24 record. Defensive backs coach Tom Bettis was named interim coach and claimed a 20-10 victory vs. Green Bay (11/6) in the club's initial contest under his direction, but it was the only victory of his brief head coaching tenure. The team endured a six-game losing streak to conclude the season at 2-12. Bettis and the remainder of the coaching staff assembled by Wiggin were released on December 19th one day after a 21-20 loss at Oakland (12/18) in the regular season finale. Marv Levy, the former head coach of the CFL's Montreal Alouettes, was named the fourth head coach in franchise history on December 20th. The heart and soul of the Chiefs once-vaunted defense departed when roommates Lanier and Lynch, who both joined the club together as second-round draft picks in '67, retired following the '77 campaign. Baltimore later acquired Lanier's rights in a trade, but failed to lure him out of retirement.

"GIVE A CHEER FOR KANSAS CITY"
by Marv Levy

Give a cheer for Kansas City,
Loud and clear for the Red and Gold,
As the Chiefs march on to victory
Like our mighty teams of old.

(Refrain)

Rah, Rah, Rah, for Kansas City
Rah, Rah, Rah for Red and Gold
As the Chiefs march on to victory
Like our mighty teams of old

Beat the drum, here they come
Warriors, brave and strong.
In the stands, loyal fans
Cheer our team along

THE LEVY ERA

1978 — Levy's systematic restocking of a relatively barren defensive roster began with a '78 draft class that included a pair of future Chiefs Hall of Fame enshrinees in DE Art Still (Kentucky) and LB Gary Spani (Kansas State). Another tie to the club's Super Bowl IV team was cut when RB Ed Podolak, who was the club's all-time leading rusher at the time, retired on June 15th. Perhaps Levy's most unconventional tactic in rebuilding the Chiefs was installing the Wing-T offense. "It was a situation where we took over a team that had the worst defensive record in the history of the National Football League," he later explained. "We wanted to keep that defense off the field, so we ran the ball 60 times a game." The '78 Chiefs ran and ran often, posting franchise records with 663 rushing attempts and 2,986 ground yards. Levy's squad ran the ball a staggering 69 times in a 24-23 Opening Day win at Cincinnati (9/3), the most rushing attempts in an NFL contest since '48. Five different players had 100-yard rushing games during the year, including RB Tony Reed who finished the season with 1,053 yards to become the team's first 1,000-yard back since '67. Despite the squad's Opening Day success, the club lost 10 of its next 11 games, including a pair of OT decisions. However, the team showed signs of improvement with the defense recording a 23-0 shutout vs. San Diego (11/26) as the club concluded its first 16-game schedule with a 4-12 mark.

1979 — Kansas City owned a pair of picks in the first round of the draft, selecting DE Mike Bell (Colorado State) and QB Steve Fuller (Clemson). By the season's third game, Fuller had supplanted QB Mike Livingston as the club's starter. With Fuller at the helm, the Chiefs owned a 4-2 record after six games, but a five-game midseason losing stretch sullied that effort. Despite finishing fifth in the AFC West for a second straight season, Kansas City's 7-9 record was a notable accomplishment considering the fact that the division's other four clubs all posted winning records for a second consecutive season. The Chiefs lost a 3-0 decision at Tampa Bay (12/16) in one of the most water-logged contests in franchise annals. As both clubs struggled to move the ball under monsoon-like conditions, a late, fourth-quarter FG by the Buccaneers averted the NFL's first scoreless tie since '43.

1980 — An infusion of new talent continued at Arrowhead. G Brad Budde (USC), the son of Chiefs Hall of Fame G Ed Budde, was selected as the club's first-round draft choice, making the Buddes the first father-son combination to become first-round draftees of the same team in NFL history. In a then-controversial move on August 26th, the Chiefs released K Jan Stenerud, who at the time was the club's all-time leading scorer. He was replaced by journeyman K Nick Lowery, who had been cut 11 times by eight different teams himself. He finished his career with the club in '93 as the franchise's all-time leading scorer with 1,466 points. After enduring an 0-4 start, the club rebounded to post a four-game victory streak. After Fuller was sidelined with a knee injury late in the season, former Miami 12th-round draft choice QB Bill Kenney entered the lineup. He was so anonymous that when he appeared in that contest, the name on the back of his jersey was inadvertently misspelled "Kenny." Kenney went on to lead the club to a 31-14 victory vs. Denver (12/7) in his initial NFL start. The defense continued to evolve as DE Art Still and S Gary Barbaro became the first Chiefs defensive players to be elected to the Pro Bowl in five seasons. The Chiefs finished the year at 8-8, the club's highest victory tally since '72.

1981 — Kenney supplanted Fuller as the club's starting quarterback and directed the Chiefs to a 6-2 start, including a 37-33 win over the defending Super Bowl champion Steelers at Pittsburgh (9/6) on Opening Day. Second-round draft choice RB Joe Delaney (NW Louisiana) electrified the club's offense by rushing for 1,121 yards, a team single-season record at the time. He was named the AFC's Rookie of the Year and became the first running back to represent the franchise in the Pro Bowl. Delaney registered a 193-yard performance in a 23-10 win vs. Houston (11/15), the best single-game total ever amassed by a Kansas City rookie. "I've played against the best – O.J. Simpson, Gale Sayers, Walter Payton and (Delaney) ranks right up there with them," remarked Oilers Hall of Fame DE Elvin Bethea. "He is great with a capital G." Owning an 8-4 record with four games remaining, the Chiefs were poised to make the playoffs for the first time in 10 years before hitting a three-game losing skid. Kenney missed the club's final three contests due to injury. Fuller guided the club to a 10-6 win at Minnesota (12/20) in the final contest played at Metropolitan Stadium as Vikings fans began dismembering the stadium in the second half, taking seats, pieces of the scoreboard and even chunks of sod as souvenirs. The victory assured the Chiefs of a 9-7 record, the club's first winning mark since '73 as Levy increased the club's victory total for a third consecutive year. Inspired by Washington's "Hail to the Redskins," Levy penned a fight song for the Chiefs, but much like the Wing-T offense, the concept never really caught on.

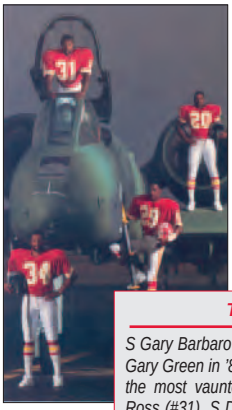
1982 — RB Joe Delaney underwent surgery in May to repair a detached retina in his eye, a radical procedure at the time. Optimism abounded at Arrowhead thanks to the club's promising 9-7 record from '81, but swelling labor unrest spelled doom for both the Chiefs and Levy in '82. The Chiefs split their first two games of the year before a 57-day strike by the NFL Players Association began at midnight on September 20th. The strike concluded on November 17th after six games were cancelled and one was rescheduled, but the Chiefs would never recover, dropping four straight games after their return to the field. C Jack Rudnay, who had been one of the franchise's most durable and decorated offensive performers over the past decade, announced on December 20th that the '82 campaign would be his last. Despite wins in two of the season's final three games, the Levy era concluded as the club finished the strike-shortened campaign at 3-6.

JOE DELANEY (1958-1983)

Tragedy struck the club on June 29, 1983 when Delaney drowned trying to save the lives of three youngsters in Monroe, Louisiana. An overflow crowd that included the Hunt family, prominent members of the Chiefs administration and head coach John Mackovic attended a memorial service held in Delaney's high school gymnasium in Haughton, Louisiana on July 4th. Delaney was posthumously awarded the Presidential Citizen's Medal by Ronald Reagan on July 13th.

TRAGEDY, TRIUMPHS AND TRANSITIONS

1983 — Marv Levy was released as the club's head coach on January 4th. Dallas Cowboys QBs coach John Mackovic was named the fifth head coach in Kansas City history on February 2nd. The 39-year-old Mackovic became the youngest individual ever to hold that post for the club. The Chiefs held the seventh overall pick in the quarterback-laden '83 NFL Draft and selected QB Todd Blackledge (Penn State). The five other signal-callers selected in the first round that year included John Elway (1st – Baltimore), Jim Kelly (Buffalo – 14th), Tony Eason (New England – 15th), Ken O'Brien (N.Y. Jets – 24th) and Dan Marino (Miami – 27th). LB Bobby Bell became the first Chiefs player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 30th, providing some solace to the franchise which was still mourning the death of RB Joe Delaney.



With Kenney and Blackledge both on the roster, QB Steve Fuller was traded to the L.A. Rams on August 19th. Kenney earned a Pro Bowl berth after racking up a franchise-record 4,348 passing yards, while WR Carlos Carson hauled in 80 passes for 1,351 yards. Despite the team's high-flying aerial game, Mackovic had trouble finding a suitable replacement for Delaney on the ground. The highest scoring contest in franchise history took place as the Chiefs and Seahawks combined for 99 points in a wild, 51-48 OT loss at Seattle (11/27). A meager crowd of 11,377 attended the club's season-ending 48-17 win vs. Denver (12/18), the smallest attendance ever for a Chiefs game at Arrowhead as the club finished at 6-10.

THE INTERCEPTORS

S Gary Barbaro's departure and the trade of Pro Bowl CB Gary Green in '84 began a youth movement that produced the most vaunted secondary in team history. CB Kevin Ross (#31), S Deron Cherry (#20), CB Albert Lewis (#29) and S Lloyd Burruss (#34) accounted for a combined 13 Pro Bowl appearances with the Chiefs.

1984 — Wayne Rudy, the only head trainer the team had ever known, retired and passed the reins to his assistant Dave Kendall in February. Pro Bowl S Gary Barbaro became the most notable Chiefs player to defect to the rival USFL, signing with the New Jersey Generals on February 2nd after sitting out the entire '83 campaign in a contract dispute. All-America NT Bill Maas (Pitt) and T John Alt (Iowa) were both tabbed in the first round of the draft. Maas was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, while Alt eventually became the cornerstone of the club's offensive line later in the decade. Kansas City's defense registered a team-record 11.0 sacks in a 10-6 win vs. Cleveland (9/30), coming one sack shy of the NFL single-game record. Kenney suffered a broken thumb during the preseason and was sidelined until the season's seventh week. Blackledge opened the first six contests of the season and had the club at 3-3. Kenney returned to the starting lineup at the N.Y. Jets (10/21), but the club dropped four of its first five contests after his return. However, the team rattled off three consecutive wins to conclude the year at 8-8.

1985 — The Chiefs got off to a flying start with a 47-27 win at New Orleans (9/8), while Cherry tied an NFL record by registering four interceptions in a 28-7 win vs. Seattle (9/29) as the club boasted a 3-1 record four games into the season. The club was then confronted with a seven-game losing streak that was not snapped until Blackledge was installed as the starter vs. Indianapolis (11/24). The team rebounded to win three of its final five contests of the season with Blackledge under center, further inflaming a quarterback controversy that continued into the '86 campaign.

One of the few remaining bright spots in a disappointing 6-10 season came in the regular season finale vs. San Diego (12/22) when WR Stephone Paige set an NFL record with 309 receiving yards in a 38-34 win, breaking the previous mark of 303 yards set by Jim Benton (Cleveland) in '45. Paige's mark was subsequently surpassed by a 336-yard effort by WR Willie Anderson (L.A. Rams) in '89.

1986 — LB Willie Lanier was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 2nd. On the field, the pieces started coming together for Mackovic. His offense displayed plenty of scoring punch, while the club's defense and special teams became increasingly effective. With the team sitting at 3-3, Kenney replaced Blackledge for the second half vs. San Diego (10/19), guiding the club to a 42-41 victory. That win was the first of four consecutive triumphs with Kenney at the helm, the club's longest winning streak since '80. Poised with a 7-3 record after 10 games, three straight losses in November put the Chiefs playoff chances in jeopardy. Two December wins gave Kansas City a 9-6 mark, putting the Chiefs tantalizingly close to their first postseason berth in 15 years.

The defining moment of the '86 campaign came in the regular season finale at Pittsburgh (12/21). Despite being outgained in total yardage by a 515-to-171-yard margin, the Chiefs were able to notch a 24-19 victory as all of the team's points came via special teams on a blocked punt return, a FG, a kickoff return and a blocked FG return. With a 10-6 record the Chiefs earned an AFC Wild Card berth, winning a tiebreaker with Seattle. Kenney was injured in the fourth quarter of the Steelers contest, meaning Blackledge would draw the starting assignment for the club's first playoff contest since '71, a 35-15 loss at the N.Y. Jets (12/28). Little did anyone know at the time that it would be the final contest of the Mackovic era.

1987 — One of the most tumultuous weeks in franchise history took place following the club's playoff loss vs. the Jets. Assistant head coach and special teams coach Frank Gansz, who had been an integral figure in the club's remarkable '86 campaign, resigned his position on January 7th in order to pursue opportunities as an NFL offensive coordinator. It was announced in an impromptu press conference that Mackovic was relieved of his duties on January 8th. A popular figure among Chiefs players, Gansz was reinstated on January 10th and was named the sixth head coach in franchise history.

CARL & MARTY

Carl Peterson and Marty Schottenheimer formed one of the most successful GM/Head Coach duos in all of professional sports from '89-98, registering a 101-58-1 (.634) regular season record over that span. The Chiefs registered seven postseason appearances over those 10 seasons, including a club-record six straight playoff berths from '90-95.

QB Len Dawson became the third Chiefs player inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 8th, while injuries forced the retirement of the club's all-time leading tackler LB Gary Spani. A duo of rookies made a splash in a 20-13 win on Opening Day vs. San Diego (9/13) as RB Paul Palmer returned a kickoff for a TD and RB Christian Okoye dashed for 105 yards. A 24-day NFLPA strike began on September 22nd. The club's contest vs. Minnesota (9/27) was cancelled before replacement games were conducted the next three weeks. Much like Marv Levy five years earlier, Gansz's grip on the club's coaching reins was crippled by the labor unrest.

The Kansas City replacement squad was constructed primarily of players cut in training camp. One of the few bright spots among this motley crew was RB Jitter Fields, who remained on the active roster following the strike. The Chiefs strike squad received an ominous welcome in Los Angeles when in the early morning hours prior to a contest vs. the Raiders (10/4), an earthquake rattled Southern California. The visibly shaken Chiefs lost a 35-17 decision later that day. The low point of the year came the following week at Miami (10/11) in the first regular season game played at what then was known as Joe Robbie Stadium. Chiefs QB Matt Stevens was injured early in the contest, forcing into duty QB Alex Espinoza, a player who had never taken an NFL snap. The result was a 42-0 Dolphins victory, setting the stage for an 0-3 performance by Kansas City's replacement unit, giving the Chiefs a 1-4 record before the club's regular roster returned at San Diego (10/25). Five straight losses followed, giving the Chiefs a team-record nine-game losing skid. For the only time in team history, five different players started games at quarterback for the club. Behind Kenney, Kansas City won two of its last three games to conclude the strike-shortened 4-11 campaign.

1988 — The spring was marked by several notable trades as the club jockeyed to improve on its 4-11 finish in '87. Blackledge was traded to Pittsburgh on March 29th and 12-year veteran QB Steve DeBerg was acquired from Tampa Bay on March 31st. The Chiefs moved up one spot in the first round of the draft to select DE Neil Smith (Nebraska) with the third overall pick. Kenney opened the team's initial two games, but was replaced by DeBerg at halftime at Seattle (9/11). In his initial start as a member of the Chiefs, DeBerg guided the team to a 20-13 win vs. Denver (9/18). However, six losses and a tie ensued as Kenney and DeBerg jostled for the QB job. As the season drew to a close, it became apparent the winds of change were blowing across the organization. President Jack Steadman resigned on December 8th, while General Manager Jim Schaaf was relieved of his duties the same day. Steadman was later named Chairman of the Board. On the field, the Chiefs finished the year at 4-11-1 as questions swirled regarding Gansz's future and who would fill the club's leadership void. Those winds of change became a full-fledged gale one day after the season's conclusion when former Philadelphia Eagles and USFL executive Carl Peterson was named the club's President/General Manager and Chief Operating Officer on December 19th.

A RETURN TO PROMINENCE: CARL PETERSON AND MARTYBALL

1989 — After compiling an 8-22-1 record in two seasons, Gansz was relieved of his duties as head coach on January 5th. Peterson's selection as Gansz's successor was former Cleveland Head Coach Marty Schottenheimer, who was named the seventh head coach in Chiefs history on January 24th. The first draft choice of the Peterson era set the tone for the next decade as the club selected Hall of Fame LB Derrick Thomas (Alabama) with the fourth overall selection. Thomas paired with Smith to form one of the most feared pass-rushing duos in NFL history, compiling a combined 212.5 sacks during their illustrious Chiefs careers. The Peterson-Schottenheimer era got off to an inauspicious start in a 34-20 loss at Denver (9/10) as DeBerg's first pass attempt was intercepted and returned for a TD. The club won just four times in its next 10 games as former Eagles QB Ron Jaworski and QB Steve Pelluer, who was acquired in a trade from Dallas, each opened three games apiece during that span. DeBerg regained the starting job for the final five weeks of the season, generating four wins that put the Chiefs just out of postseason qualification at 8-7-1. A 34-0 shutout win vs. Houston (11/26) highlighted the club's stretch run. RB Christian Okoye became the first Chief to lead the NFL in rushing with 1,480 yards, while Thomas won consensus NFL Rookie of the Year honors.

Word

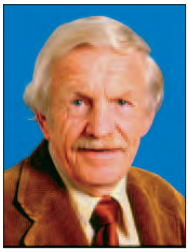
1990 — The foundation for the club's formidable offensive line of the '90s gathered two key ingredients when C Tim Grunhard (Notre Dame) and G Dave Szott (Penn State) were acquired in the draft. Construction began on the club's indoor practice facility at the Truman Sports Complex, giving the Chiefs an 80-yard indoor field and weight room facilities upon its completion. DT Buck Buchanan was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 4th. The Chiefs made their initial overseas appearance, losing a 19-3 American Bowl decision vs. the L.A. Rams at Olympic Stadium in Berlin, Germany (8/11). Schottenheimer's club got out of the starting gate quickly, winning three of their first four games. The club then struggled, splitting its next six contests.

Free agent RB Barry Word produced a 200-yard rushing outburst in a 43-24 victory vs. Detroit (10/14), becoming the first player in team history to top the 200-yard plateau. Kansas City led the NFL with a franchise-record 60.0 sacks, including a team-record 20.0 by LB Derrick Thomas. Thomas established an NFL single-game record with 7.0 sacks in an inspiring Veterans Day performance vs. Seattle (11/11), a game the Seahawks miraculously won, 17-16, on a last-second, 25-yard TD pass to WR Paul Skansi by future Chiefs QB Dave Krieg. That loss brought on the furious stretch run which saw the club record victories in six of its last seven outings. Behind DeBerg's offensive leadership (23 TD passes with just four INTs) Kansas City finished the year with a franchise-best +26 turnover differential. The Chiefs clinched their first postseason berth since '86 with a 24-21 win at San Diego (12/23) and finished the year at 11-5, marking the franchise's best finish since '69.

MONTANA AND MARCUS

A pair of Hall of Famers — QB Joe Montana and RB Marcus Allen — guided the club to its first-ever AFC Championship Game appearance in '93.

1991 — The Chiefs suffered a heart-breaking, 17-16 loss at Miami (1/5) in an AFC Wild Card Game as K Nick Lowery's potential game-winning 52-yard FG fell short with 0:56 remaining. On July 27th, K Jan Stenerud became the first pure placekicker to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The Chiefs became members of Wisconsin's "Cheese League," moving their training camp to the University of Wisconsin - River Falls after spending the previous 28 summers at William Jewell College in Liberty, MO. The club's 14-3 win vs. Atlanta (9/1) on Opening Day initiated the 141-game sellout streak at Arrowhead that carried into the 2008 campaign. The Chiefs were featured on Monday Night Football three times, including a 33-6 victory over the defending AFC Champion Buffalo Bills before a raucous crowd at Arrowhead (10/7), marking the club's first home MNF contest in eight years. The club finished the regular season at 10-6, marking the first time since '68-69 that the franchise had qualified for the playoffs in consecutive seasons. A 27-21 victory at the L.A. Raiders (12/22) in the regular season finale gave the Chiefs the right to host the Silver and Black just six days later in the inaugural postseason game in Arrowhead's history. Thanks to six takeaways, the Chiefs registered their first postseason victory since Super Bowl IV with a 10-6 win in an AFC Wild Card Game vs. the L.A. Raiders (12/28).



Dovell

1992 — The Chiefs lost a 37-14 decision at Buffalo (1/5) in an AFC Divisional Playoff matchup as the Bills dynamic offense proved to be too much for the Chiefs. A longtime nemesis with Seattle, "Plan B" free agent QB Dave Krieg was signed as the club's starter on March 19th. A melancholy off-season awaited the Chiefs, who mourned the passing of Player Personnel Director Whitey Dovell on May 11th and Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan on July 16th. Both Dovell and Buchanan lost courageous battles with cancer. Six-time Pro Bowl S Deron Cherry who originally joined the club as a free agent punter, announced his retirement in July after registering 50 interceptions in 11 seasons with the franchise. The Chiefs retired the jerseys of Buchanan (86), LB Willie Lanier (63) and K Jan Stenerud (3) in a ceremony prior to a preseason contest vs. Buffalo (8/24).

First-round draft pick CB Dale Carter (Tennessee) won the Bert Bell Trophy as the NFL's Rookie of the Year. The very first time Carter touched the ball in an NFL contest, he registered a 46-yard punt return TD in a 24-10 win at San Diego (9/6). RB Christian Okoye surpassed RB Ed Podolak as the all-time leading rusher in team history vs. Seattle (9/13). Injuries eventually made the '92 campaign Okoye's last with the Chiefs after he compiled 4,897 rushing yards with the franchise. The club got off to a 3-1 start, but was faced with a 4-4 record at the season's midpoint. Despite four consecutive victories, the club's postseason hopes still came down to the season's final contest. Owning a 9-6 record and needing one more victory to secure a playoff berth, the Chiefs defense tallied three TDs, while Krieg tossed a pair of scoring passes as Kansas City claimed a 42-20 win vs. Denver (12/27) to finish the season with a 10-6 record.

1993 — The Chiefs made a quick exit from the playoffs as Krieg was sacked 7.0 times in a 17-0 AFC Wild Card loss at San Diego (1/2). The Chiefs spent the off-season installing the "West Coast" offense under the direction of new offensive coordinator Paul Hackett, who at one time served as QBs coach to Joe Montana in San Francisco. On April 20th, the Chiefs traded for Montana, who directed the 49ers to four Super Bowl victories. G Will Shields (Nebraska) was selected with the club's third-round draft choice, rounding out the "law firm" of Grunhard, Szott and Shields which anchored the interior of Chiefs offensive line for most of the decade. On June 9th the club signed another future Canton enshrinee, inking unrestricted free agent RB Marcus Allen, who had spent 11 seasons tormenting the Chiefs as a member of the Raiders. Montana and Allen made their debuts in a 27-3 win at Tampa Bay (9/5), marking Montana's first Opening Day appearance since '90. Shields initiated a franchise-record streak of 223 consecutive starts the following week at Houston (9/12). Thanks to a pair of Monday Night Football wins at Arrowhead, the club owned a 6-2 midseason mark. Before taking the field in a Sunday night contest at Minnesota (12/26), the team learned it had clinched its first AFC West title since '71 thanks to a Raiders loss earlier in the day. The team finished the season with an 11-5 regular season record, marking the club's fourth consecutive year with a double-digit victory tally. LB Derrick Thomas was named the NFL's Man of the Year following the season. Thomas, who founded "The Third and Long Foundation," received the honor in large part due to his efforts in promoting children's literacy.

1994 — Kansas City got its first true taste of "Montana Magic" as the Hall of Fame passer engineered a brilliant comeback in a 27-24 OT win in an AFC Wild Card thriller vs. Pittsburgh (1/8). Next up was a red-hot Oilers squad that had won 11 straight games to conclude the regular season. Heavily-favored Houston opened up a 13-7 lead in the fourth quarter, but once again, Montana had a comeback in mind, guiding the club to a 28-20 victory at Houston (1/16). The Chiefs playoff journey ended as the club made its initial AFC Championship Game appearance at Buffalo (1/23). Montana was knocked out of the contest early in the second half as Buffalo claimed its fourth straight AFC title by a score of 30-13.

While the previous off-season saw the Chiefs stockpile several key free agents, a number of familiar faces departed following the '93 season, most notably CBs Albert Lewis (Raiders) and Kevin Ross (Falcons), as well as K Nick Lowery (Jets). QB Steve Bono was acquired in a trade with San Francisco on May 2nd to serve as Montana's backup. The most dramatic change in Arrowhead's appearance occurred as a grass playing field was also installed, replacing the previous AstroTurf surface. The club made its second American Bowl appearance, meeting Minnesota in Tokyo, Japan (8/7).

The Chiefs home opener was one of the most-ballyhooed regular season contests in team history as Montana made his only career appearance vs. San Francisco (9/11). The Chiefs prevailed over the 49ers and Montana's replacement, QB Steve Young, by a 24-17 count before a crowd of 79,907, the second-largest "in-house" attendance in Arrowhead history. After starting the season 3-0, the Chiefs dropped back-to-back games before snapping an 11-game losing streak at Denver's Mile High Stadium (10/17) in a memorable Monday night contest. Montana orchestrated a masterful comeback, connecting with WR Willie Davis for a five-yard TD with 0:08 remaining to give the Chiefs a 31-28 triumph. A late-season, three-game losing skid put the club's playoff hopes in jeopardy. The Chiefs found themselves at 8-7 faced with a do-or-die regular season finale vs. the L.A. Raiders (12/24) in the final NFL contest ever played at the L.A. Coliseum. Allen had his finest game in a Chiefs uniform, rushing 33 times for 132 yards en route to a 19-9 win. At 9-7, Kansas City qualified for the playoffs for a fifth straight season. However, the Chiefs made a rapid departure from the playoffs in Montana's final professional contest at Miami (12/31). Montana and Dolphins QB Dan Marino conducted a masterful first-half duel that ended deadlocked at 17-17, but Miami eventually prevailed by a 27-17 count.

HALLELUJAH CORNER

The term "Hallelujah Corner" was coined in '95 after Kansas City won three separate contests via return scores culminating in Arrowhead's West end zone. The first of those hallowed victories was a 23-17 OT decision vs. Oakland (9/17) that culminated when CB James Hasty returned an interception for a 64-yard TD, prompting head coach Marty Schottenheimer to plant a celebratory postgame kiss on the cornerback.

1995 — Montana announced his retirement from football after 16 years in the NFL on April 18th and Bono was promoted to the starting job. Immediately, so-called media experts predicted much gloom and doom for the '95 Chiefs, leading Schottenheimer to quip during training camp that his club had been picked "sixth in a five-team division." Led by Bono, who merited a Pro Bowl berth, Kansas City posted an NFL-best 13-3 record with unblemished 8-0 marks in the AFC West and at Arrowhead. The Chiefs led the NFL in rushing offense (138.9 ypg), scoring defense (15.1 ppg) and turnover ratio (+12). A 24-3 win at Arizona (10/1) featured a surreal, 76-yard TD run on a bootleg by Bono as the Chiefs initiated a seven-game winning streak, the franchise's longest since '69. In a Monday Night Football classic vs. San Diego (10/9), WR Tamarick Vanover returned a punt for an 86-yard TD to provide the winning points in a 29-23 victory, the team's third straight home win in overtime. The club's defense began to flex its muscle, beginning with a 21-7 win at Denver (10/22). The contest, played in a Rocky Mountain snowstorm, featured the 100th rushing TD of Marcus Allen's career. The Chiefs won a home game for the third time on a last-second return score that concluded in Arrowhead's West end zone when CB Mark Collins scooped up a fumble for a 20-13 win vs. Houston (11/19). Kansas City clinched a division title with a 29-23 victory at Oakland (12/3) en route to a 13-3 regular season record and a team-record sixth consecutive postseason berth. The Chiefs were represented by seven players in the Pro Bowl, more than any other AFC team.

1996 — The Chiefs dropped an AFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Indianapolis (1/7) on a blustery afternoon with the temperature at 11 degrees and a wind chill of -9. Three INTs and a trio of missed FGs contributed to the 10-7 loss at Arrowhead. The Chiefs entered the '96 campaign with essentially the same lineup as the club boasted in '95 and were featured on the cover of Sports Illustrated along with Green Bay as preseason Super Bowl favorites. Kansas City made its third American Bowl appearance, this time vs. Dallas in Monterrey, Mexico (8/5). The club started the season with a 4-0 record for the first time in team history, but the season's lofty expectations came crashing down as the squad lost three of its next four games. A three-game winning streak, including a victory over the eventual Super Bowl champion Green Bay Packers, put the club back in postseason contention at 8-3.

That rosy picture quickly crumbled in a 28-14 loss vs. San Diego (11/24) as Bono was relieved in the second half by QB Rich Gannon. Gannon assumed the starting reins for a 28-24 win in a Thanksgiving Day game at Detroit (11/28) as Allen registered his 111th career rushing TD to surpass Walter Payton as the NFL's all-time leader in that department, a mark that was later broken by Emmitt Smith. Needing just one more win to qualify for the playoffs, the Chiefs dropped their next two games as an injury-hampered Gannon was sidelined for good in the second quarter of a 24-19 loss vs. Indianapolis (12/15). Faced with a must-win situation in a frigid regular season finale at Buffalo (12/22), the club's postseason hopes hinged on Bono. Despite a 20-9 loss to the Bills, the Chiefs still had a shot to slip into the playoffs if Atlanta could secure a win at Jacksonville.

Grbac and Rison

However, Atlanta K Morten Andersen's 30-yard FG attempt went wide left with 0:04 remaining, preserving a 19-17 win and the AFC's final Wild Card spot for the Jaguars, who won a tiebreaker with Kansas City. The Chiefs finished with a 9-7 record, missing the postseason for the first time since '89.

Stoyanovich

1997 — Kansas City dramatically retooled its roster in '97, beginning with free agent QB Elvis Grbac, who signed with the club on March 17th. In addition to Grbac, the Chiefs lineup featured 11 new starters, including WR Andre Rison, who won team MVP honors after becoming the club's first Pro Bowl receiver in a decade. On defense, the club's top four picks from the '96 Draft, S Jerome Woods, S Reggie Tongue, DE John Browning and LB Donnie Edwards, all emerged as starters. T John Alt announced his retirement at training camp in River Falls, WI on July 21st. All the new faces quickly formed a cohesive unit as the Chiefs posted a 13-3 record, an 8-0 Arrowhead mark and their second AFC West title in three years. The club engineered several dramatic finishes, the first of which came in a Monday Night Football thriller at Oakland (9/8) when Grbac connected with Rison on an improbable 32-yard TD pass with just 0:03 remaining to cap a 28-27 win. Six days later, Kansas City's defense produced a remarkable goal-line stand to preserve a 22-16 victory at Arrowhead vs. Buffalo (9/14).

After posting a 6-2 record during the season's first half, Kansas City's good fortune appeared to run out vs. Pittsburgh (11/3) when Grbac suffered a broken clavicle. However, Gannon led the team to a 5-1 mark in their next six outings.

K Pete Stoyanovich provided one of the year's most memorable moments, connecting on a line-drive 54-yard FG as time expired to give Kansas City a 24-22 win vs. Denver (11/16). San Francisco entered Arrowhead boasting an 11-game winning streak and departed after suffering a 44-9 defeat (11/30), while the Chiefs vaunted defensive unit pitched a 30-0 shutout vs. Oakland (12/7). The Chiefs led the NFL in scoring defense, allowing a mere 14.5 points per game. The 232 total points permitted by the Chiefs in '97 were the lowest tally ever allowed in a 16-game season in team history. Kansas City also broke a 63-year-old mark owned by the '34 Detroit Lions by not permitting a second-half TD in 10 consecutive games. Grbac returned for the regular season finale vs. New Orleans (12/21) as the squad finished the year with six consecutive victories, a first in team history.

1998 — The two teams with the AFC's top records squared off when Denver (12-4) visited Kansas City (13-3) for an AFC Divisional Playoff Game (1/4). Grbac started the contest for Kansas City and despite holding an edge in total yardage, the Chiefs could not convert on several key scoring opportunities, dropping a 14-10 decision to their division foe. On April 9th, RB Marcus Allen announced his retirement, concluding a brilliant 16-year NFL career. A whirlwind preseason saw the Chiefs play another American Bowl contest, this time vs. Green Bay in Tokyo, Japan (8/1), as well as a preseason game vs. Tampa Bay in Norman, Oklahoma (8/8).

A '98 campaign which began with much promise had its high hopes dashed as the Chiefs suffered several major injuries beginning in a season-opening victory vs. Oakland (9/6) that featured 6.0 sacks from LB Derrick Thomas. Grbac was lost for four games due to a shoulder injury, while All-Pro G Dave Szott's year came to an end with a biceps tear. In total, 11 different starters missed a total of 45 games due to injuries. Gannon led the team to a 4-1 start that included a water-logged, 17-6 Sunday night win vs. Seattle (10/4), a contest that was delayed for 54 minutes due to torrential rains. However, the club would never recover from an ensuing six-game losing streak, the longest of Schottenheimer's tenure. The low point of that stretch came in a penalty-marred 30-7 loss vs. Denver (11/16) on Monday Night Football. The club was hampered by crucial penalties throughout the season, setting dubious NFL records for penalties (158) and penalty yardage (1,304). Despite registering wins in three of the season's final five games, the club finished the year at 7-9, snapping a string of nine consecutive winning seasons.

GUN'S RUN & A FALLEN HERO

DERRICK VINCENT THOMAS (1967-2000)

On January 23, 2000 nine-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Thomas was seriously injured in a one-vehicle accident just east of the Kansas City International Airport on I-435. Ten other individuals were killed in a separate, 24-vehicle accident that same day just north of KCI on I-29. Thomas was moved to Jackson Memorial Hospital in his hometown of Miami the following day. Although confined to a wheelchair, Thomas had made substantial progress and was in good spirits when he was visited by Chiefs President Carl Peterson in Miami on February 7th. The next day, Thomas' condition took a shocking turn and at 10:10 AM (ET) on February 8th, he was pronounced dead after suffering cardiac arrest. February 11th was declared "Derrick Thomas Red Friday" in Kansas City and on February 14th nearly 23,000 mourners paid their final respects to their fallen hero at Arrowhead Stadium, where Thomas' body lay in state and a B-2 Stealth bomber from Whiteman Air Force Base flew over at 12:01 PM. On February 15th at Kemper Arena, over 6,000 individuals attended a public memorial service for Thomas. On February 19th, Derrick Vincent Thomas was buried in Miami following a memorial service at the Mt. Calvary Church. On March 4th, Peterson announced at the annual 101 Banquet that at the suggestion of Clark Hunt, the Chiefs Most Valuable Player Award would hence be known as the Derrick Thomas Award. Thomas was honored prior to the club's 2000 season opener vs. Indianapolis (9/3). A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2009, Thomas also had his #58 officially retired by the Chiefs in 2009.

in '99. The club became the sixth team in NFL history to record 100 regular season wins in a decade with a 16-10 triumph at Denver (12/5). Only Buffalo (103-57) finished the decade with a better record than Kansas City's 102-58 mark. Under Cunningham, Kansas City led the NFL with a +21 turnover ratio and won the NFL's turnover triple crown in the '90s with a remarkable +128 turnover ratio, a league-high 365 takeaways and an NFL-low 237 giveaways. The Chiefs also recorded 11 return TDs on the season, including a franchise-best nine on defense. The Chiefs ran the ball more times (521) than any other team in the league and ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing (130.1 ypg). After a three-game midseason losing streak put the club at 5-5 and on the brink of playoff elimination, the team rallied for a four-game winning string, setting up a make-or-break game in the regular season finale vs. Oakland.

2000 — The Chiefs needed a win vs. Oakland at Arrowhead (1/2) in the regular season finale to seal the AFC West title, while a loss would mean postseason elimination. Kansas City leapt out to a 17-0 lead, but a blocked punt turned the momentum in the game which was eventually won by Oakland 41-38 in OT. That loss provided an ominous start to a year which turned tragic on January 23rd when nine-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Thomas was seriously injured in an auto accident.

Despite an 0-2 start, Kansas City bounced back to win its next three contests. Despite trailing 22-14 midway through the fourth quarter, Cunningham's squad rallied for a 23-22 victory at Denver (9/24), giving the Chiefs a win in their final visit to Mile High Stadium. The Chiefs faced Seattle (10/2) in a Monday Night Football contest which was simulcast to 4,391 fans in Kauffman Stadium. The 82,893 fans assembled at Arrowhead and Kauffman Stadiums marked the largest on-site attendance figure in team history. The 24-17 win against the Seahawks marked Kansas City's third victory in a row.

The club's early-season success was also highlighted by a 54-34 win over the defending Super Bowl champion St. Louis (10/22), a contest which featured the most points ever scored at Arrowhead. Combined with a 24-19 victory at Seattle (10/29) in a game played at Husky Stadium, the Chiefs record stood at 5-3 at the season's midway point.

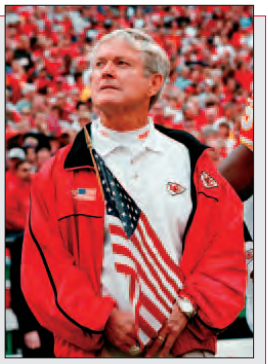
However, a stretch of five road games over a six-week span took its toll on the club as the Chiefs dropped five straight contests to fall out of playoff contention, finishing the year at 7-9.

THE VERMEIL YEARS

2001 — After compiling a 16-16 record in two seasons, Cunningham was relieved of his duties on January 5th. Dick Vermeil, who guided St. Louis to a win in Super Bowl XXXIV following the '99 season, was named the ninth head coach in franchise history on January 12th. On April 20th, the club acquired QB Trent Green in a trade with St. Louis and also signed unrestricted free agent RB Priest Holmes.

The initial regular season victory of the Vermeil era came in convincing fashion at Washington (9/30) when the Chiefs defeated their former head coach Marty Schottenheimer and the Redskins by a 45-13 margin. Although the club finished its initial campaign under Vermeil at 6-10, the team began to take shape down the stretch, winning three of its final four games. Holmes provided a spark to the offense, becoming just the second player in franchise history to lead the NFL in rushing, amassing 1,555 yards to break Christian Okoye's previous single-season record of 1,480.

SEPTEMBER 11TH



On September 11, 2001 Americans watched with horror as terrorist attacks shocked the nation. Commissioner Paul Tagliabue suspended play for the weekend of September 16th. The Chiefs game at Seattle scheduled for that date was postponed until January 6th. The NFL made a patriotic return in Kansas City when the Chiefs hosted the N.Y. Giants (9/23). Tagliabue delivered a pregame address to the Arrowhead crowd, which greeted the Giants with a rousing ovation. Via a fireman's boot collection that was matched by the Chiefs and the Hunt family, a total donation of $451,413.88 was raised for relief efforts in New York City, an amount believed to be the largest single-day outpouring of spontaneous support by a group of fans and a pro sports team.

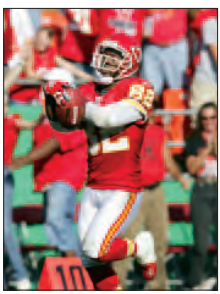
2002 — The club initiated a season-long series to commemorate the franchise's 40th Anniversary Season in Kansas City in 2002. On April 15th, the Chiefs Honor Grove of over 40 stately Giant Redwoods was established in the Southeast corner of the Truman Sports Complex to epitomize the deep and lasting roots the organization has developed in Mid-America. Hunt's inspiration for the honor grove was a quote from Vikings QB Joe Kapp, who was knocked out of Super Bowl IV. "The Chiefs defensive line was very active and looked like a Redwood Forest," Kapp said after the game. On April 25th, members of the Chiefs coaches, players, staff and cheerleaders visited numerous locations throughout the greater Kansas City community, thanking them for their support of the franchise.

Holmes and Shields

In a season filled with wild comebacks and fantastic finishes, the Chiefs pulled out a remarkable 40-39 Opening Day win at Cleveland (9/8). Starting with that contest, virtually every game was a nail-biter with all but one of the club's eight losses being decided by seven points or less. But despite leading the NFL in scoring for the first time in team history with 467 points and setting a franchise record with 6,000 yards of total offense, the club finished 8-8 to miss the postseason in Vermeil's second season. The team remained in playoff contention until the season's final game thanks to its explosive offense that broke nine team records. The Chiefs also set NFL records by fumbling just seven times and losing just two of those loose balls. Holmes continued the torrid pace he began in 2001, earning NFL Offensive Player of the Year honors from the AP and surpassing his own team record with 1,615 rushing yards. The club's special teams were bolstered by WR Dante Hall, who produced three kick returns for TDs and became the first Chiefs return man to earn a Pro Bowl berth since J.T. Smith following the '80 season.

2003 — Hank Stram and RB Marcus Allen were enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 2nd. "Voice of the Chiefs" Mitch Holthus broadcast his 151st game as the club's play-by-play announcer at Houston (9/21), breaking Kevin Harlan's previous record (150). The Chiefs started the regular season with a 9-0 record for the first time in team history, becoming just the ninth team since the AFL-NFL merger to accomplish that feat. That hot start to the season was sparked by Hall, who tied an NFL single-season record by registering four kick return TDs over that span. Hall also became the first player in league annals to accomplish that feat in four consecutive games. The Chiefs overcame a 17-point fourth-quarter deficit for the first time in team history, pulling out an improbable 40-34 OT win at Green Bay (10/12). Kansas City's winning streak came to an end in a 24-19 loss at Cincinnati (11/16).



Hall

The Chiefs clinched their first AFC West title since '97 with a 45-17 win vs. Detroit (12/14) as QB Trent Green became the first player in team history to register a "perfect" 158.3 passer rating in a game. Kansas City concluded its 13-3 regular season with a 31-3 victory vs. Chicago (12/28), marking a perfect 8-0 record at home and the club's 13th consecutive regular season victory at Arrowhead Stadium. In that win, Holmes set a trio of TD records. He finished the season with 27 rushing scores, establishing NFL single-season records for both rushing TDs and total TDs. Holmes (61) also bypassed WR Otis Taylor (60) for the most career TDs scored by a player in Chiefs history. The Chiefs five-game improvement in the win column from the previous season tied as the best mark in franchise history. Kansas City became the first AFC team to lead the NFL in scoring in consecutive seasons since San Diego in '81-82 as the club produced a franchise-best 484 points. The team also led the NFL with a +19 turnover differential. Nine Chiefs players received Pro Bowl recognition, the third-highest total in team history, while the club's six offensive Pro Bowlers marked the most in club annals.

2004 — The Chiefs hosted an AFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Indianapolis (1/11) in which neither team was forced to punt. Sensational performances by Holmes (176 rushing yards, two TDs) and Hall (208 kickoff return yards, 1 TD) weren't enough as the Colts recorded a 38-31 victory. Defensive coordinator Greg Robinson resigned on January 13th. Vermeil agreed to a two-year contract extension on January 16th. On January 20th, Vermeil hired Gunther Cunningham, who returned to Kansas City as the club's defensive coordinator. On January 30th, G Will Shields was named the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year.

The Chiefs got into the victory column with a 27-24 win on Monday Night Football at Baltimore (10/4) after an 0-3 start quickly dampened the club's high expectations. Kansas City's offensive line emerged as one of the NFL's finest units, producing a trio of Pro Bowl performers in Shields, T Willie Roaf and G Brian Waters. Thanks to that offensive front, the Chiefs registered an NFL-record eight rushing TDs in a 56-10 win vs. Atlanta (10/24). The following week Kansas City continued its offensive onslaught with a convincing 45-35 victory vs. Indianapolis (10/31), snapping a seven-game losing streak to the Colts. After surpassing RB Christian Okoye as the all-time leading rusher in franchise history vs. Houston (9/26), Holmes' year came to an abrupt halt when he suffered a season-ending knee injury at Tampa Bay (11/7).

A four-game winning streak in December included a wild 49-38 Monday Night Football road triumph at Tennessee (12/13). That late-season surge was sparked by second-year RB Larry Johnson who accounted for 11 TDs and produced three straight 100-yard rushing efforts in the season's final six contests. Offensively, the Chiefs established a league record with 398 first downs. Kansas City also led the NFL in total offense for the first time in franchise history, averaging 418.4 yards per game. That offense was triggered by Green, who set single-season team marks for passing yards (4,591) and 300-yard games (8). The Chiefs were also the first team in NFL history to have three different RBs boast a 150-yard rushing game in the same season – Holmes, Johnson and Derrick Blaylock. Defensively, fourth-round draft choice DE Jared Allen provided a bright spot with 9.0 sacks, the second-highest total by a rookie in team history.

2005 — TE Tony Gonzalez earned his sixth consecutive Pro Bowl berth and finished the season with a flourish, setting a single-game franchise record with a 14-catch performance in the regular season finale at San Diego (1/2). Gonzalez led the league in receptions (102), the highest total ever amassed by a member of the Chiefs. Despite Gonzalez's record-setting performance, a 24-17 loss to the Chargers brought a disappointing 7-9 campaign to a close.

A daunting early-season 2005 schedule featured a pair of prime-time road contests in the season's first four weeks. Kansas City finished that stretch at 2-2 after claiming a 27-7 home win vs. the N.Y. Jets (9/11) and winning a 23-17 decision at Oakland (9/18). However, the club would suffer a 30-10 loss at Denver (10/26) and was handed a 37-31 loss vs. Philadelphia (10/2) as the Eagles erased an 18-point Chiefs lead.

Hurricane Wilma forced the Chiefs to play their first regular season Friday night game since '64 as a game originally slated for October 23rd was hastily rescheduled. Kansas City actually flew to Miami on the day of the game and defeated the Dolphins by a 30-20 margin. Two weeks later, trailing by three points with only five seconds left and the ball on the one-yard line, head coach Dick Vermeil eschewed a potential game-tying FG attempt and went for broke, putting the game in the hands of RB Larry Johnson vs. Oakland (11/6). Johnson burst into the end zone to give the Chiefs a memorable 27-23 win as Kansas City's record stood at 5-3 at the season's midway point.

The Raiders contest marked the initial start of the season for Johnson, who opened the final nine games of the year in place of RB Priest Holmes, who was lost for the year following a head/neck injury at San Diego (10/30). Johnson topped the 100-yard barrier in the season's final nine contests and finished the season with 1,750 rushing yards, a franchise record at the time.

Shields continued his assault on the record book, as well. The club's contest at Buffalo (11/13) marked the 200th consecutive start of Shields' career, making him just the fourth player since the AFL-NFL merger to accomplish such a feat. In addition to pushing his string of consecutive starts to 207 games by season's end, he was also rewarded with his 11th consecutive Pro Bowl berth, extending another franchise record.

A three-game late-season winning streak boosted the club's postseason hopes, beginning with a 45-17 win at Houston (11/20). Johnson established a franchise record of his own with 211 rushing yards against the Texans en route to earning his initial Pro Bowl berth. Kansas City then registered convincing home victories against a pair of playoff-bound teams with wins vs. New England (11/27) vs. Denver (12/4), putting the club at 8-4 with four games remaining. However, a pair of road losses put the club's postseason hopes in peril. A 20-7 win in a Christmas Eve quagmire vs. San Diego (12/24) meant the club would need a win in its regular season finale and some help in order to qualify for the AFC playoff field.

A FAREWELL TO THE FOUNDER

2006 — After registering a convincing 37-3 win vs. Cincinnati in the club's first-ever regular season New Year's Day contest, the winds of change blew into Kansas City. Head coach Dick Vermeil publicly announced his retirement following the win over the Bengals, ending season-long speculation about his future. Kansas City finished the season at 10-6, becoming just fourth team since '90 to miss the postseason with a double-digit victory total.

Edwards

Vermeil conducted a final farewell press conference on January 3rd. He concluded his five-year run as Kansas City's head coach with a 44-36 (.550) record, giving him the third-highest victory tally in team history. Under his guidance, the Chiefs established 34 single-season team records and 14 single-game team records, leading the NFL in total offense by averaging 380.9 yards per game from 2001-05.

On January 9th, Herm Edwards was appointed the 10th head coach in franchise history. Edwards returned to Kansas City after serving as both a scout and an assistant coach with the Chiefs during the '90s. He rejoined the Chiefs organization after a five-year stint as head coach of the N.Y. Jets, leading that franchise to five postseason game appearances. He initially left the Chiefs to serve with former Kansas City assistant coach Tony Dungy in Tampa Bay, where that duo helped restore the Buccaneers franchise to NFL prominence.

On January 24th, the Chiefs and Royals both signed 25-year leases with Jackson County officials to keep both clubs at the Truman Sports Complex. On April 4th, Jackson County voters approved a 3/8 cent tax measure that was anticipated to raise $425 million in improvements to the Sports Complex, including $250 for Arrowhead. Those renovation plans also included a new practice facility and office complex for the Chiefs, thanks to contributions from the Hunt family.

The Edwards era got off to an inauspicious start on Opening Day vs. Cincinnati (9/10). QB Trent Green suffered a severe head trauma in the third quarter when he scrambled and went into a hook slide. Bengals DE Robert Geathers delivered a blow to the Chiefs signal caller, whose head violently bounced off the turf. Green lay motionless on the field for several minutes before he was taken to a local hospital. The Chiefs would lose the contest by a 23-10 count.

For the first time since 2000, a quarterback other than Green started a contest for Kansas City as backup QB Damon Huard served as field general the following week at Denver (9/17). Kansas City would drop a tough 9-6 OT decision to the Broncos as the club fell to 0-2.

Green

After an early bye week, Kansas City got its intial victory of the Edwards era in convincing fashion with a 41-0 win at Arrowhead vs. San Francisco (10/1). Huard guided the club to a 23-20 comeback win the following week at Arizona (10/8), but a 45-7 drubbing at Pittsburgh (10/15) left the club's record at 2-3 entering a pivotal two-game homestand.

K Lawrence Tynes drilled a game-winning 53-yard FG to give Kansas City a 30-27 victory vs. San Diego (10/22). That triumph sparked a three-game winning streak to put the club's record at 5-3 at the season's halfway point.

Huard compiled a 5-3 record as a starter in Green's absence, throwing 10 TDs and just one INT over that eight-game span. After several weeks of practice and countless medical tests, Green finally made his return to the lineup in a 17-13 home win vs. Oakland (11/19) in what would be the final game witnessed in person by Founder Lamar Hunt, who was admitted to Presbyterian Hospital in Dallas on November 22nd.

Hunt had long lobbied the NFL for a third game on Thanksgiving and those persistent efforts were rewarded as the fifth-largest paid crowd in Arrowhead history (79,484) packed the stadium for a holiday spectacle. Kansas City won its second contest at Arrowhead in five days as the Chiefs defense turned in a masterful performance in a 19-10 primetime win vs. Denver (11/23), a contest that also marked the initial live game telecast by the NFL Network.

Owning a 7-4 record, Kansas City appeared poised to make a serious run at the postseason, but a three-game losing streak that began with an unlikely 31-28 OT loss at Cleveland (12/3) put those hopes in serious jeopardy. The month of December proved particularly gloomy for the Chiefs as the health of the franchise's patriarch steadily declined.

After originally being diagnosed with prostrate cancer in '98, Hunt quietly and bravely underwent many treatments and surgeries in the ensuing years without complaint. On December 13th, he peacefully passed away in Dallas, surrounded by his family. Memorial services celebrating the life of Hunt were conducted on the SMU campus in Dallas on December 16th and at the Community of Christ Auditorium in Independence, Missouri on December 19th.

A mourning team would return to the field the following Sunday and capture a 20-9 win at Oakland (12/23) to keep the Chiefs playoff hopes afloat entering the regular season finale vs. Jacksonville (12/31). The Chiefs prevailed by a 35-30 count against the Jaguars as RB Larry Johnson established an NFL record with 416 rushing attempts on the season and broke his own franchise single-season record with 1,789 rushing yards.

REMEMBERING OUR FOUNDER

On December 19, 2006 over 2,500 individuals gathered at the Community of Christ Auditorium in Independence, Missouri to pay their final respects to Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt. Pastor Paul Brooks presided over a two-hour service that was attended by the entire Chiefs team and administrative staff, as well as countless dignitaries and fans. Three of the Hunt children – Clark (above), Daniel and Sharron Munson – shared remembrances of their father, while Lamar Hunt, Jr. paid a special musical tribute to the patriarch of the Chiefs family. Other eulogists included Carl Peterson, Rev. Emanuel Cleaver, Len Dawson, Bobby Bell, Willie Lanier, Trent Green and head coach Herm Edwards. Four former Chiefs head coaches were also in attendance – Dick Vermeil, Gunther Cunningham, Marty Schottenheimer and Paul Wiggin. A moving video tribute celebrating Hunt's vibrant life was also shown during the ceremony.

After Cincinnati and Tennessee lost earlier in the day, the Chiefs officially got their ticket to the postseason punched when San Francisco won an unlikely 26-23 OT decision at Denver (12/31).

2007* — The Chiefs made their first postseason appearance on the road since '94 in an AFC Wild Card Game at Indianapolis (1/6). Despite enjoying the support of a throng of Kansas City fans who made the trek to the RCA Dome and a valiant first-half performance from the Chiefs defense, Kansas City lost a 23-8 decision.

An artist's rendering for the club's new office complex and practice facility was unveiled in March, while design work and plans for Arrowhead's rehabilitation continued. On June 2nd, the club announced that it was partnering with HBO Sports and NFL Films to produce Hard Knocks: Training Camp with the Kansas City Chiefs - a five-hour documentary series. On June 6th, QB Trent Green was traded to Miami, ending months of speculation about his future. Green concluded his successful six-year run with the franchise owning a team-record 87.3 passer rating.

The summer months were highlighted by a pair of groundbreaking ceremonies at the Truman Sports Complex. A private, staff-only groundbreaking session for the Chiefs new office and practice headquarters was conducted by Clark Hunt on July 25th. In addition, the Hunt family, Chiefs officials, Senator Kit Bond, Jackson County Executive Mike Sanders and other county legislators participated in a groundbreaking ceremony for the "New Arrowhead" on August 22nd.

On the field, Kansas City overcame an 0-2 start to register a 4-3 record at the bye week, securing sole possession of first place in the AFC West standings.

That early-season turnaround was highlighted by a 30-16 comeback win at San Diego (9/30). WR Dwayne Bowe set a Chiefs single-game rookie record with 164 receiving yards in that contest, including a 51-yard TD catch. Bowe would shatter the franchise's single-season rookie receiving records with 70 catches for 995 yards, figures that led all NFL rookies. Meanwhile, TE Tony Gonzalez became the NFL's all-time TD catch leader among tight ends in a 27-20 win vs. Cincinnati (10/14).

However, Kansas City could not maintain any of that positive momentum after the bye week. The downward spiral began when RB Larry Johnson suffered a season-ending right foot injury in a 33-22 loss vs. Green Bay (11/4). That setback began a nine-game losing streak to conclude the regular season. Second-year QB Brodie Croyle supplanted QB Damon Huard in the second half the following week vs. Denver (11/11).

Croyle enjoyed a solid debut in his initial NFL start in the club's next contest at Indianapolis (11/18). That game that would mark the final chapter in the illustrious career of RB Priest Holmes, who announced his retirement on November 21st. The all-time leading rusher in franchise history with 6,070 yards made a remarkable comeback after missing almost a season-and-a-half of action. He returned to play four games in 2007, including two starts, before eventually hanging up his cleats for good. DE Jared Allen was a defensive bright spot, leading the league with 15.5 sacks.

After suffering a thumb injury at Detroit (12/23), Croyle returned for the season finale at the N.Y. Jets (12/30) as Kansas City suffered a 13-10 OT setback. Gonzalez recorded his 820th career reception in the game, the most catches of any tight end in NFL history. Gonzalez earned his ninth straight Pro Bowl berth and finished the year with 1,172 receiving yards.

2008 — Head Coach Herm Edwards named Chan Gailey his offensive coordinator on January 16th. CB Emmitt Thomas was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on February 2nd and was officially enshrined in Canton on August 3rd.

Kansas City and Minnesota orchestrated a major trade on April 23rd as the Chiefs sent Pro Bowl DE Jared Allen and a sixth-round pick to the Vikings. In exchange, Kansas City received a first-round selection, two third-round picks and a sixth-round selection. Upon the team's return from training camp in August, the club's football operations moved into the organization's new practice facility. The rest of the franchise's administrative staff completed the move from Arrowhead by season's end.

On the field, the Chiefs owned the dubious distinction of becoming just the fourth team since the AFL-NFL merger to start three different quarterbacks in the season's first three weeks in a non-strike season. TE Tony Gonzalez surpassed TE Shannon Sharpe (10,060) for the most receiving yards by a tight end in NFL history at Carolina (10/5).

After QBs Brodie Croyle and Damon Huard both suffered season-ending injuries vs. Tennessee (10/19), the club eventually turned to QB Tyler Thigpen for good for the season's final nine games. The Coastal Carolina product showed flashes of promise and set a single-season franchise record for QBs with 386 rushing yards. Thigpen outplayed QB Brett Favre, but the Jets signal caller rallied his club as the Chiefs dropped a 28-24 decision at the N.Y. Jets (10/26).

That Jets contest marked the first in a series of excruciating losses. Kansas City squandered a 21-point lead in a 30-27 OT loss vs. Tampa Bay (11/2) and lost a 20-19 decision at San Diego (11/9) as a botched PAT and a failed two-point try doomed the club.

Thigpen's lone victory of the season was a 20-13 win at Oakland (11/30), but the losses continued to mount, including a second one-point setback vs. San Diego (12/14) as the Chargers overcame an 18-point deficit, scoring the game's final 19 points.

On December 15th, President/General Manager and CEO Carl Peterson announced his resignation, effective at the end of the season. The Chiefs dropped a 38-31 decision vs. Miami (12/21). Based on wind chill of -12 at kickoff, it was second-coldest contest in Arrowhead history. A four-game losing streak to end the season closed out with a 16-6 loss at Cincinnati (12/28) as the Chiefs finished the year at 2-14.

A NEW ERA AT ARROWHEAD

2009 — Peterson officially concluded his 20-year tenure with the franchise on January 6th with a farewell press conference. Under Peterson's tenure, Kansas City amassed a 176-143-1 (.552) regular season record, made nine playoff appearances, won the AFC West four times and reached the AFC Championship Game in '93.

On January 13th, longtime New England Patriots executive Scott Pioli was named by Chairman of the Board Clark Hunt as the fifth General Manager in franchise history. During his tenure in New England, the Patriots won Super Bowls XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX, claimed the Lamar Hunt Trophy four times as the AFC Champion and won six AFC East titles. During Pioli's tenure from 2000-08, the Patriots compiled an NFL-best 102-42 (.708) regular season record.

Hunt, Haley and Pioli

On January 23rd, Herm Edwards was relieved of his duties as head coach. He produced a 15-33 regular season record in three seasons guiding the franchise. The late LB Derrick Thomas was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2009 on January 31st. Thomas became the 10th member of the Chiefs to be enshrined in Canton. He joined LBs Bobby Bell (Class of '82) and Willie Lanier (Class of '86) as the third linebacker in that esteemed group.

Hunt and Pioli introduced former Arizona Cardinals offensive coordinator Todd Haley as the 11th head coach in franchise history on February 6th. He helped the Cardinals reach Super Bowl XLIII, marking the franchise's first NFL title game since '47. The son of longtime NFL personnel executive Dick Haley, the younger Haley oversaw an Arizona offense that registered a franchise-record 427 points in 2008. The first major move of the Chiefs new leadership team came on February 28th when the club acquired QB Matt Cassel and LB Mike Vrabel in a trade with New England.

The club unveiled its 50th anniversary logo on April 14th as the team began a year-long commemoratation of the franchise's 50th season, as well as the 50th anniversary of the creation of the American Football League by Lamar Hunt. On April 23rd, the Chiefs traded 10-time Pro Bowl TE Tony Gonzalez to Atlanta. Gonzalez finished his Chiefs career with the most receptions (916), receiving yards (10,940) and TD catches (76) in franchise history.

On May 8th, Hunt named Denny Thum as the fourth President of the Chiefs. Thum owns the distinction of being one of just three employees in team history to serve the club during the tenure of every head coach in franchise history. On May 21st, Mark Donovan was hired as Executive Vice President/Chief Operating Officer after spending six seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles.

On June 18th, the Chiefs announced the return of training camp to the state of Missouri, beginning in 2010. The Chiefs and Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, Missouri agreed to the university's plans for a training facility including a climate-controlled, 120-yard indoor field, as well as two 120-yard grass fields. The Chiefs officially ended their 19-year training camp tenure at the University of Wisconsin - River Falls, conducting their final practice at that facility on August 20th.

The Chiefs began the regular season on the road at Baltimore (9/13) with QB Brodie Croyle at the helm after QB Matt Cassel was injured vs. Seattle (8/29). Kansas City tied the game at 24-24 with 5:21 left to play in Head Coach Todd Haley's regular season debut, but couldn't pull out the victory.

For the first time since the '62 AFL Championship Game, the club wore its Dallas Texans uniforms in a contest billed as "The Game That Never Was" vs. Dallas (10/11). Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt had longed for a head-to-head duel between his AFL squad and the NFL's Cowboys during their three-year co-existence in Dallas, and that contest finally came to fruition. However, the Cowboys would prevail by a 26-20 margin in OT, sending the Chiefs record to 0-5.

Haley recorded his initial NFL win the following week, as Kansas City produced a 14-6 victory at Washington (10/18). It would be one of three road wins for the Chiefs on the season, tying for the most by a first-year coach in franchise annals.

On October 23rd, a major section of I-435 near the Truman Sports Complex was designated as "Lamar Hunt Memorial Highway" by the Missouri General Assembly and the Missouri Department of Transportation. In October, the club also mourned the death of longtime assistant coach Darvin Wallis, whose 19-year tenure with the Chiefs ranked as the second-longest stint in franchise history, trailing only Tom Pratt (21 years).

The Chiefs improved in 25 different statistical categories during the season's final eight games, including total points, total offense, passing yards per game, rushing yards per game, third-down percentage and sacks allowed. Kansas City began that eight-game stretch with a 16-10 win at Oakland (11/15) as the Chiefs became the first NFL club to register seven straight road wins against the Raiders. The Chiefs followed that up with a thrilling 27-24 OT victory vs. Pittsburgh (11/22) as Haley exacted some retribution against a Steelers squad that defeated his Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

RB Jamaal Charles helped spearhead the Chiefs second-half resurgence. Only Tennessee RB Chris Johnson (1,047) rushed for more yards over the final eight games of the year than Charles (968). Charles finished the season with 1,120 yards on 190 carries, becoming the first player in league annals to top the 1,100-yard plateau on less than 200 carries. He also was the youngest player to ever win the Derrick Thomas Award as the club's MVP.

2010 — The Chiefs saved their best performance of the season for the regular season finale at Denver (1/3). Charles racked up a franchise-record 259 rushing yards, while LB Derrick Johnson became just the third linebacker in NFL history to return two INTs for TDs in a single game. Kansas City registered a 44-24 win, marking the club's first-ever win at INVESCO Field and the the most points scored by the Chiefs in Denver since '72.

Despite finishing the year with a 4-12 record, the Chiefs led the NFL in Red Zone scoring percentage (89.5%) and improved in 30 categories compared to 2008. Only three clubs made more dramatic jumps in the comprehensive special teams rankings compiled by the Dallas Morning News, as the Chiefs went from 29th to 12th.

Haley

Haley began reshaping his coaching staff almost immediately after the season. Charlie Weis was named offensive coordinator on January 8th, while Romeo Crennel was hired as defensive coordinator on January 14th. Haley also added a number of coaches with playing experience, included Hall of Fame CB Emmitt Thomas, who returned to the Chiefs as defensive backs coach on February 1st after registering a franchise-record 58 INTs from '66-78.

Commissioner Roger Goodell introduced four-time Pro Bowl G Brian Waters as the winner of Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award prior to the kickoff of Super Bowl XLIV on February 6th. Waters became the fifth member of the Chiefs to win that prestigious accolade. Super Bowl IV MVP QB Len Dawson – winner of the '73 Man of the Year Award – was on hand to present the Lombardi Trophy to the victorious New Orleans Saints.

On February 12th, Ann Roach announced her retirement after 44 seasons with the club. The second-longest tenured employee in Chiefs history, Roach served as an assistant to the first 10 head coaches in franchise annals. Roach and longtime Chiefs broadcaster Bill Grigsby were both acknowledged at the 40th annual 101 Awards on March 6th. Grigsby announced his retirement after a distinguished 63-year career in broadcasting.

The National Football League announced on April 20th that Monday Night Football would return to Kansas City on September 13th as the Chiefs officially celebrate the grand opening of the New Arrowhead vs. San Diego.

1959 — At one of the initial organizational meetings of the American Football League in late '59 – before the teams even had any players or coaches – the AFL owners choose their team colors. Lamar Hunt desires Columbia Blue and Orange for his Dallas Texans franchise. But before Hunt or any other owner can make a selection, Houston's Bud Adams claims Columbia Blue for his Oilers franchise. Hunt reverts to Red and Gold for the Texans, which remains the primary color scheme for the Chiefs to this day.

Lamar Hunt greets Bud Adams - sporting a "Columbia Blue" blazer - prior to the '62 AFL Championship Game. Hunt would lose the battle for "Columbia Blue," but his Texans would beat the Oilers in double OT for the '62 AFL title.

1960-62— The Texans take the field for the AFL's inaugural season in '60 sporting red helmets with gray facemasks. The helmet features the state of Texas in white with a gold star situated on Dallas. Home jerseys are solid red featuring white numerals, white "TV" numerals on the sleeves and white lettering, all trimmed in gold. Road jerseys are white with red numerals, red "TV" numerals on the sleeves and red lettering, all of which are bordered by thin gold trim. Both jerseys are a cloth design, featuring three-quarter sleeves with stitched "tackle twill" numerals and letters. The team wears white pants featuring vertical stripes of red, gold and red. Socks are red on top, white on the bottom with alternating stripes at the calf of white, red, gold, red and white. Although several minor changes are made to the stripe width over the years, the primary sock design remains relatively consistent to the present day.

Texans Helmet

1963-67 — The Texans move to Kansas City in '63. Hunt and head coach Hank Stram initially plan on calling the relocated team the "Kansas City Texans." However, general manager Jack Steadman wisely convinces the duo to change the franchise's nickname to "Chiefs." The club's uniform remains virtually unchanged, with the exception of the helmet logo. The state of Texas is replaced on the headgear by a design originally sketched by Hunt on a napkin. Hunt's inspiration for the interlocking "KC" design was the "SF" inside of an oval on San Francisco's helmets. Kansas City's overlapping initials appear inside a white arrowhead instead of an oval and are surrounded by a thin black outline. The result is one of the most distinctive helmets in all of football.

1968 — The most dramatic changes to the Chiefs uniform come in '68. Head Coach Hank Stram prefers more red in the club's road attire and orders red pants to go with the team's white road jerseys. Stram asserts that the red pants will match the red numerals on the white road jerseys. While Stram's fashion sense is never in question, some in the organization theorize that the superstitious Stram really wants to part ways the white pants because the club lost Super Bowl I while wearing them. No matter the logic, the white pants are not seen again during the Stram era. The club's new red pants feature alternating vertical stripes of white, red, gold, red and white and are paired with predominantly white socks that feature striping of red, gold and red at the calf. Alterations are also made to the club's jerseys at this time. Sleeves are shortened from three-quarter length to their present-day short-sleeve status. Stripes are also introduced on the bottom of the sleeves, where they still reside. Red jerseys feature white, gold and white stripes on the sleeves, while the club's white jerseys receive red, gold and red stripes.

Texans DT Jerry Mays (75) and QB Len Dawson (16) pose along with head coach Hank Stram in '65 sporting the home jerseys the club wore from '60-67. Note the rolled-up sleeves and the barely visible gold trim.

AFL-10 Patch

1970 — Following Super Bowl IV, the team's cloth jerseys dating back to the franchise's days in Dallas give way to a more breathable mesh fabric. Heat-transfer numerals and letters replace sewn-on "tackle twill" characters. The style of the numerals and letters changes slightly. The characters decrease in size, while the gold trim around both the numerals and letters expands to become more visible. Jersey numerals remain this size before eventually returning to larger proportions in the early '80s.

DT Buck Buchanan displays the club's road uniform of the '70s. Note the white facemask, red pants and heat-transfer numerals.

1974 — The club's facemask changes from gray to white. A change in manufacturers results in a slightly smaller arrowhead logo on the helmet with a thicker black border compared to the design of the '60s.

1979-80 — During the Marv Levy era, the club experiments with white jerseys and red pants at home. Several other NFL teams - most notably Dallas - had adopted the practice of wearing white at home. The fact that Lamar Hunt's hometown team had popularlized the practice may have led the Chiefs Founder to depart from the club's traditional home uniform configuration. However, the trial is short-lived and by '81, the club reverts back to its traditional red jersey, white pants arrangement at Arrowhead.

QB Steve Fuller was part of a Chiefs squad that wore white jerseys at home for a brief stretch during the Marv Levy era.

Joe Delaney Patch

Silver Anniversary Patch

1984 — The original eight American Football League teams all wear circular "Silver Anniversary" patches on the upper left chest of their jerseys commemorating the 25th anniversary of the AFL and their respective franchises. Kansas City's patch features the Chiefs helmet and the AFL logo.

1989 — The arrival of head coach Marty Schottenheimer signals the club's most dramatic uniform change in over 20 years. Schottenheimer asks and receives permission from Hunt to revert back to white pants on the road, a "white-on-white" look that had not been utilized by the Chiefs since '67. White belts also return to the club's pants after using red belts at various periods of the '70s and '80s. Kansas City reintroduces the white pants at Denver (9/10/89) and maintains this look on the road through the '99 season.

RB Marcus Allen in white-on-white.

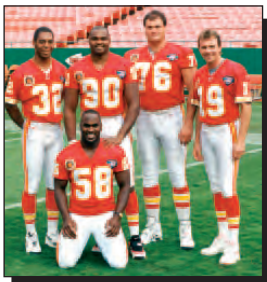
WWD Patch

1992 — The club wears a black panel with the white initials "WWD" on the upper left chest of its jersey in memory of Director of Player Personnel Whitey Dovell, who passed away on May 11, 1992. The team also paints the number "86" on the field at Arrowhead Stadium to honor the memory of Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan, who passed away on July 16, 1992.

35th Anniversary Patch

1994 — Solid fabric jerseys complete with "tackle twill" numerals and letters return, taking the place of mesh jerseys and heat-transfer characters. All NFL teams wear "NFL Diamond Anniversary" patches on their left upper chest in honor of the league's 75th season. The Chiefs also wear a "35th Anniversary" patch on their right upper chest in celebration of the franchise's 35th season. The patch features the AFL, Texans and Chiefs logos. It marks the only time in team history the club has worn two different patches in the same season.

75th Anniversary Patch



RB Marcus Allen (32), DE Neil Smith (90), T John Alt (76), QB Joe Montana (19) and LB Derrick Thomas (58) represented the Chiefs in the Pro Bowl following the '93 season. These '94 jerseys were the only uniforms in team history to feature a pair of commemorative patches. Note that Smith, Alt and Thomas have made their own "fashion statements" by rolling up their sleeves. Two members of this quartet (Allen and Montana) are in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, while Alt, Thomas and Smith are all enshrined in the Chiefs Hall of Fame.

Kansas City also wears "Throwback" uniforms – replicas of the club's '63 attire – for games at Atlanta (9/18/94) and vs. St. Louis (9/25/94).

1999 — The club wears a "40th Anniversary" patch in honor of the franchise's 40th season. The patch features the AFL and Chiefs logos.

40th Anniversary Patch

2000 — The Chiefs wear a circular sticker bearing the number "58" on the back of their helmets in memory of LB Derrick Thomas, who passed away on February 8, 2000. Ever mindful of Stram's legacy and the franchise's glory days, head coach Gunther Cunningham receives Hunt's blessing to revert back to the red pants on the road. The resurrected red pants debut in a 23-22 win at Denver (9/24/00) and remain a fixture of the club's road attire.

U.S. Flag Sticker

2001 — A sticker bearing the American Flag returns to the back of all NFL helmets following the terrorist attacks of September 11th. The flag reappears on Chiefs helmets vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23/01) and remains there to this day.

40th Anniversary in KC Patch

2002 — The Chiefs wear a "40th Anniversary in Kansas City" patch vs. Oakland (10/27/02), commemorating the franchise's 40th season in Mid-America. "The Scout" - Kansas City's most recognizable civic icon - is prominently featured on the patch along with Kansas City's downtown skyline. The NFL Equipment Shield replaces the NFL Shield on jerseys and pants.

Pat Tillman Sticker

2004 — The Chiefs wear a "40" decal on their helmets vs. Carolina (9/19/04) in honor of former Arizona Cardinals S Pat Tillman. Tillman left the Cardinals prior to the 2002 season and became a member of the elite Army Ranger unit. He was killed in the line of duty serving his country in Afghanistan on April 22, 2004.

Hank Stram Sticker

2005 — The Chiefs wear a circular sticker on their helmets all season bearing the initials "HS" in honor of Hall of Fame coach Hank Stram who passed away on July 4th. Stram compiled a 124-76-10 regular season record as the head coach of the Dallas Texans and the Kansas City Chiefs from '60-74. He guided the franchise to AFL titles, two Super Bowl appearances and a victory in Super Bowl IV. One of the most distinguished gentlemen and unique personalities in pro football history, Stram's legacy was remembered all season with the "HS" decal. All NFL teams wear a "Fútbol Americano" decal on their helmets on the weekend of October 2nd to mark the NFL's first regular season game played outside of the United States. Arizona defeated San Francisco by a 31-14 margin in that contest played at Mexico City's Estadio Azteca.

Fútbol Americano Sticker

2006 — The Chiefs wear white jerseys and white pants on Opening Day vs. Cincinnati (9/10) in an effort to make the Bengals wear their dark uniforms on a potentially hot and muggy day. It marks the first time that even Founder Lamar Hunt can recall the club wearing the white-on-white uniform combination at home. The most recent time the club had dressed in such attire was in a road contest at Seattle (12/26/99). It was also the first time that the Chiefs had donned white jerseys at home since '80. While the premise is sound, the weather conditions aren't a factor in the contest with a kickoff temperature of 67 degrees under cloudy skies.

Lamar Hunt Sticker

After the passing of Hunt on December 13th, the Chiefs utilize a helmet decal for the remainder of the season bearing the initials "LH" to honor the franchise's Founder. Kansas City first wears the helmet decal at San Diego (12/17). The club also reverts to the white jersey/white pants combination for its final two regular season road games and its postseason contest at Indianapolis (1/6/07). The move is in part to honor Hunt, who appreciated the "classic" look of that uniform combination.

Lamar Hunt Patch

2007 — Clark Hunt commissions a patch that the Chiefs wore on their uniforms in 2007 to honor his father's memory. The design of the patch is historically signficant. The patch prominently features the American Football League logo to serve as a reminder of Hunt's formation of the AFL and the lasting impact the American Football League has made on the game of professional football. True to Hunt's humble spirit, the letters "LH" are subtly displayed on the patch, symbolizing the fact that the Chiefs Founder always put the best interests of the league ahead of his own. The patch is affixed on the left chest of both Kansas City's home and away jerseys, meaning this piece of woven symbolism will always be over the heart of every Chiefs player. Beginning with a game vs. San Diego (12/2/07), the Chiefs and other NFL teams wear a #21 decal on their helmets for the final five games of the season to honor Washington Redskins S Sean Taylor. Taylor, who was coming off a Pro Bowl season in 2006 was killed in his home in Miami on November 26th.

Sean Taylor Sticker

Gene Upshaw Sticker

2008 — On January 31st, Clark Hunt announces that the Lamar Hunt patch will become a permanent part of the Chiefs uniform, beginning with the 2008 NFL season.All NFL teams wear a patch to honor the late Hall of Fame G Gene Upshaw on Kickoff Weekend. The former Executive Director of the NFL Players Association passed away on August 20th. Beginning with the Chiefs contest the following week vs. Oakland (9/14), a decal bearing Upshaw's initials is worn on all helmets for the remainder of the season.

2009 — On April 14th, the Chiefs unveil their "50th Anniversary" patch that was worn on the club's jerseys for 13 games in 2009. The patch features a gold 50, as well as a Chiefs logo and an outline of the State of Texas, representing the only two logos that have ever appeared on the franchise's helmets. Kansas City wears replicas of the club's '62 Dallas Texans attire for AFL Legacy Games vs. Dallas (10/11), vs. San Diego (10/25) and at Oakland (11/15). The look is completed with replica Texans helmets that feature gray facemasks and a Texas-shaped decal with a gold star on Dallas. Jerseys for these three AFL Rivalry games feature a special "AFL 50th Anniversary" patch, featuring the original American Football League logo.

CHIEFS LOGO HISTORY

Texans Helmet

During the team's three-year stint as the American Football League's Dallas Texans from 1960-62, the club's helmet logo featured the state of Texas in white with a gold star situated on the club's home base in Dallas. Founder Lamar Hunt "borrowed" that concept from the '52 Dallas Texans, a totally-unrelated NFL franchise that spent one undistinguished season playing in the Lone Star State before resurfacing as the Baltimore Colts in '53.

Prior to the inaugural AFL season in '60, Hunt's Texans were represented by a whirling, spur-clad, 10-gallon-hat-wearing character that was featured on various promotional items. That logo eventually gave way to a more polished football-toting gunslinger set over the state of Texas, a design created by Bob Taylor, a cartoonist for the now-defunct Dallas Times-Herald. Although never part of the club's uniform, Taylor's updated Texans logo adorned everything from the club's stationery to the billboard outside the team's offices.

When the franchise moved to Kansas City in '63, Taylor was commissioned to produce a new logo that remained strikingly similar to his original incarnation. Taylor's new rendition featured a Native American figure running with the same stride and holding the pigskin in the same manner as the gunslinger with the states of Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Iowa and Arkansas serving as his backdrop. This logo was utilized prominently during the '60s and was affixed to the club's Swope Park headquarters on 63rd Street before the club moved to Arrowhead in '72.

A new design for the Chiefs helmet logo was also in order upon the franchise's move to Mid-America. Hunt went back to the drawing board, seeking to give his franchise a logo that would once again provide an easily-recognizable link to its home locale. Hunt's initial sketches, some of which were done on a napkin on a flight from Dallas to Kansas City, began with an interlocking "KC" inside a circle or an oval. That look was eventually refined to feature those intertwined letters inside an arrowhead. The resulting finished product remains one of the most distinctive logos in all of sports and has been proudly utilized by the team for over 40 years.

1962 DALLAS TEXANS UNIFORMS

In 2009, the franchise wore its Dallas Texans uniforms for the first time since the '62 AFL Championship Game (12/23/62). Fittingly, the first of those three "AFL Legacy Games" came vs. Dallas (10/11/09) in "The Game That Never Was." The Texans and Cowboys both shared the Cotton Bowl for three seasons from '60-62, but never met on the field. The Chiefs used their current solid red headgear with a Texans decal replacing the familar interlocking KC logo. Gray facemasks were also utilized on these classic helmets. The most noticable differences in the Texans jerseys were their lack of stripes on the sleeves. In addition, the gold trim around the numerals and letters was more narrow than on traditional Chiefs jerseys. While the game pants for the Texans home and road uniforms remained almost identical to the current Chiefs uniform, the striping on the socks was been altered to recreate the club's '62 look. Despite a valiant effort to tie the game, the Cowboys prevailed by a 26-20 margin in overtime.

CHIEFS FACT

Kansas City's 44 points at Denver (1/3/10) were the club's highest total in any game since a 45-17 win at Houston (11/20/05).

CHIEFS FACT

ESPN MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL

Monday Night Football returns to Kansas City in 2010 as the Chiefs celebrate the grand opening of the New Arrowhead on September 13th. The second-ever regular season telecast of ABC's Monday Night Football featured the defending World Champion Kansas City Chiefs at Baltimore (9/28/70). While Don McCafferty's Colts eventually go on to defeat the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl V, the Chiefs would get a convincing 44-24 win in this prime-time showdown. Four of QB Len Dawson's pass attempts on the night went for TDs. The Chiefs forced seven Baltimore turnovers including three interceptions by S Johnny Robinson and two by CB Emmitt Thomas, allowing RB Ed Podolak (left) to grind out the game.

CHIEFS IN OVERTIME

Over the past 50 seasons the Chiefs/Texans have played in three playoff overtime games (2-1 record) and 29 regular season overtime affairs (11-16-2 mark). The NFL instituted a 15:00 overtime period for regular season contests in 1974.

GOVERNOR'S CUP SERIES

Dating back to the '68 preseason, the Chiefs have faced their in-state rivals from St. Louis in 41 "Governor's Cup" contests. From '68-87, Kansas City faced the St. Louis Cardinals every preseason and also met the Cardinals in regular season play four times while that franchise was stationed on Missouri's "Eastern Shore" before it moved to Arizona for the start of the '88 campaign. After the Rams moved to St. Louis in '95, the "Governor's Cup" series was renewed during the '96 preseason. Since the Rams relocation to the "Show-Me State," Kansas City owns a perfect 4-0 regular season record against their in-state, I-70 foes.

THANKSGIVING DAY GAMES

Lamar Hunt's longtime efforts to secure a Thanksgiving Day game at Arrowhead Stadium became a reality when the club defeated Denver 19-10 in Arrowhead's first-ever Thanksgiving contest (11/23/06). The holiday match-up between two longtime AFC West rivals marked the NFL Network's first live regular season game broadcast and drew a paid attendance of 79,484, the fifth-largest crowd in Arrowhead history. Kansas City hosted a trio of Thanksgiving Day games at Municipal Stadium, including a 31-17 victory vs. Denver (11/27/69) that included a 53-yard return of an onside kick for a TD by LB Bobby Bell. On Thanksgiving Day at Detroit (11/28/96), Hall of Fame RB Marcus Allen became the NFL's all-time leader in rushing TDs, registering his 111th ground score on a one-yard run to bypass RB Walter Payton's previous record, a mark that was later bypassed by RB Emmitt Smith.

ARROWHEAD STADIUM
FULLY RENOVATED-2010

Arrowhead Stadium underwent a $375 million renovation project that was full completed in 2010. It is part of the Harry S Truman Sports Complex, which also includes 42,000-seat Kauffman Stadium, home of the Kansas City Royals baseball club. Since its dedication on August 12, 1972, for a preseason game vs. the St. Louis Cardinals, 22,329,907 spectators have passed through Arrowhead's turnstiles. After 23 seasons of artificial turf, Arrowhead sported a grass playing surface for the first time in '94.

MUNICIPAL STADIUM
1963-1971

Location: 22nd and Brooklyn - Kansas City, Missouri
Preseason Record: 11-3-1 (.767)
Regular Season Record: 44-16-3 (.722)
Postseason Record: 0-1-0 (.000)
All Games: 55-20-4 (.722)
Capacity: 49,002 (1971 - Final Season)
Construction Data: Opened - 1923
Upper Deck Added - 1954-55

Municipal Stadium served as the Chiefs original home in Kansas City after previously housing two short-lived NFL franchises, the Kansas City Blues (1924) and the Kansas City Cowboys (1925-26). The Chiefs and the Kansas City Athletics baseball club shared the facility until the A's departed for Oakland following the '67 season. Kansas City went undefeated (7-0) at home during the '71 regular season, but the final contest (and only playoff game) in Municipal Stadium's history will live in infamy for Chiefs fans, a devastating double overtime 27-24 playoff loss to the Miami Dolphins on Christmas Day of '71, a contest which remains the NFL's longest game at 82 minutes, 40 seconds.

COTTON BOWL

Location: Texas State Fairgrounds - Dallas, Texas
Preseason Record: 1-0-0 (1.000)
Regular Season Record: 15-6-0 (.714)

All Games: 16-6-0 (.727)
Capacity: 75,504 (1962 - Final Season)
Construction Data: Opened - 1923
Upper Deck Added - 1948-49

The Cotton Bowl served as the home of the American Football League's Dallas Texans from 1960-62 before the franchise moved to Kansas City in '63 and became known as the Chiefs. The Texans shared the stadium with the NFL's expansion Dallas Cowboys. The facility served until '99 as a home field for SMU, the alma mater of Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt. The Texans final contest in the Cotton Bowl was a 26-17 win over the San Diego Chargers on December 16, 1962, before a sparse crowd of 18,384 fans. The Texans would win a 20-17 double-overtime thriller the next week at Houston to capture the first of three AFL titles.

THE ARROWHEAD STADIUM STORY

The Kansas City Chiefs and St. Louis Cardinals played the inaugural game at Arrowhead Stadium on August 12, 1972. Since that initial contest, much has changed at the Truman Sports Complex. On April 4, 2006 Jackson County, Missouri taxpayers approved a 3/8 cent sales tax that is expected to raise $425 million for improvements to the Sports Complex, including $250 million for Arrowhead. In addition, the Hunt family contributed $125 million to the project which officially commenced with a groundbreaking ceremony on August 22, 2007. These improvements will maintain Arrowhead's longstanding status as one of the nation's top venues for fans to experience the excitement of collegiate or NFL football.

Fans will be greeted with numerous new areas including the Founder's Plaza, the Horizon Level, the Chiefs Sports Lab, the Chiefs Hall of Honor, a Founder's Club, a luxurious Club Level and a new team store. Other improvements include an upgraded sound and scoreboard system, a 360-degree video ribbon board, concourses that are doubled in sizeand an upgraded variety of food and beverage options.

While other venues of a similar vintage have long since been termed obsolete, thanks to the foresight and vision of the leadership of Jackson County, the Hunt family, the Chiefs and the taxpayers who made it a reality, Arrowhead has stood the test of time.

At the time of its dedication in '72, the legendary founder of the Chicago Bears, George Halas called Arrowhead, "the most revolutionary, futuristic, sports complex I have ever seen." Hal Lebovitz, Sports Editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer added, "It took courage to sell the citizens of Kansas City on the twin park plan. But they bought it because they want the best."

In the late '60s, after design and seating capacity concerns caused plans for a single, multi-purpose domed stadium to be scrapped, Kansas City opted to construct two separate stadiums, one for football and one for baseball. Voters approved the Sports Complex bond issue in '67, which included plans for a revolutionary concept – the world's first rolling stadium roof (pictured below). Construction cost overruns and project delays caused by a lengthy strike eventually forced the roof concept to be put on hold, but Arrowhead was completed in time for the '72 season.

In '84, the Jackson County Sports Authority again investigated the feasibility of a dome - this time made of fabric - but that concept too was shelved as being unnecessary and financially impractical.

A decade later, in '94, under Arrowhead's continued open-air arrangement, a natural playing surface was installed in the facility for the first time, just one of numerous improvements which were made prior to the current renovation. In '99, all 33,975 seats in the upper level of the stadium were replaced, while all 35,277 lower level seats and all 10,199 club level seats were replaced for the 2000 season.

Undoubtedly one of the finest facilities in the NFL, Arrowhead and the fans who consistently fill it have helped produce a distinct homefield advantage for the Chiefs. Dating back to '90, Kansas City owns the seventh-best regular season home winning percentage among all NFL teams with a 106-54 (.663) record over that span. It's been 40 years since the first plans were being devised for Kansas City's two stadium setup, which is now the norm for professional football and baseball venues across the country.

Original plans for the Truman Sports Complex called for a rolling roof which could cover Arrowhead or its baseball counterpart, Kauffman Stadium - a revolutionary concept at the time.

During the 30th Anniversary season of Arrowhead in 2001, Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt, expressed the organization's thanks to Colorado-based architect, the late Charles Deaton, who conceived the two-stadium concept. Hunt praised the governmental bodies who took the initiative, and the workers who built Arrowhead, as well as the support of the Jackson County taxpayers who financed this futuristic venture. Hunt also wished to extend on behalf of the entire the Chiefs organization a hearty salute to all who have unquestionably made Arrowhead Stadium - The Home of the ... CHIEFS!

ARROWHEAD'S FOOTBALL TRADITION

Arrowhead Stadium has been a destination for football afficionados since it opened in '72. In addition to serving as the "Home of the Chiefs," Arrowhead has hosted or is scheduled to host 27 different college football contests. The first college game played at the facility was a SWAC contest on October 14, 1972 in which Grambling defeated Mississippi Valley State in front of a crowd of 9,833. The Dr Pepper Big 12 Championship, the annual Missouri vs. Kansas "Border Showdown," a contest between Kansas State vs. Iowa State and "The Fall Classic" between Division II powers Northwest Missouri State and Pittsburg State are regular events. The facility also served as the site of the '74 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl.

In conditions that were described as cold, but humid, coaches Tom Landry of Dallas (NFC) and John Madden of Oakland (AFC) watched their teams combine for 15 fumbles and four interceptions in the 1974 Pro Bowl at Arrowhead Stadium.

K Garo Yepremian of the Dolphins kicked a Pro Bowl-record five field goals, accounting for all 15 of the AFC's points en route to earning MVP honors. Yepremian's fourth field goal gave the AFC a 12-10 fourth-quarter lead, but RB O.J. Simpson's fumble minutes later would set up a 21-yard field goal for a 13-12 NFC lead with less than two minutes to play. Miami QB Bob Griese answered by driving the AFC into position for the winning score. Yepremian would split the uprights with just 0:21 remaining to give the AFC a 15-13 win.

THE DR PEPPER BIG 12 CHAMPIONSHIP

Since 2000, Arrowhead Stadium has played host to the Dr Pepper Big 12 Football Championship Game five times. Oklahoma has claimed four of the five contests played in Kansas City, including a 62-21 win over Missouri in the most recent affair on 12/6/08.

THE BORDER SHOWDOWN
Missouri vs. Kansas

The Missouri-Kansas football series is the second-most-played rivalry in college football history and has recently returned to Kansas City, where it all began. This football rivalry originated in Kansas City on October 31, 1891 with a 22-10 Kansas win. Missouri leads the all-time series 55-54-9. A total of 24 contests in this 118-year rivalry have been played in Kansas City, including 19 of the first 20 games. In 2007, the clash once again called Kansas City home as Arrowhead Stadium played host to the storied traditions of MU and KU. The two schools have an agreement to play the series at Arrowhead through 2012.

CHIEFS IN THE AMERICAN BOWL

1990 American Bowl

Rams 19, Chiefs 3
August 11, 1990 • 55,429
Olympic Stadium • Berlin, West Germany

L.A. RAMS.	7	3	0	9	—	19

Kansas City's initial American Bowl expedition featured heavy doses of culture, but little offense as the Rams prevailed by a 19-3 margin. RB Barry Word made his first appearance in a Kansas City uniform, pairing with the league's leading rusher in '89, RB Christian Okoye to form the quintessential "Martyball" backfield. However, the Chiefs only points would come on a 19-yard FG by K Bjorn Nittmo.

RB James Saxon (21) and TE Jonathan Hayes (85) are on hand as the Berlin Wall begins crumbling down in Berlin, West Germany.

1994 American Bowl

Vikings 17, Chiefs 9
August 7, 1994 • 49,555
Tokyo Dome • Tokyo, Japan

KANSAS CITY	0	9	0	0	—	9
MINNESOTA.	7	10	0	0	—	17

Kansas City's first appearance on Japanese soil was a rematch of Super Bowl IV, but Minnesota prevailed in this contest thanks to a pair of interceptions. Chiefs QB Matt Blundin accounted for the club's only TD when he connected with rookie WR Lake Dawson for a 40-yard score. Kansas City then attempted a two-point conversion for the first time since '69 as the NFL finally implemented the old AFL two-point rule in '94.

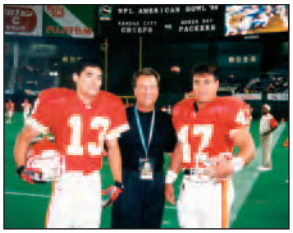
1996 American Bowl

Chiefs 32, Cowboys 6
August 5, 1996 • 45,128
Estadio Universitario • Monterrey, Mexico

KANSAS CITY.	3	10	6	13	—	32
DALLAS	3	0	3	0	—	6

The Chiefs defense stifles the defending Super Bowl champions, allowing the Cowboys just five first downs. Kansas City's offense piles up 514 yards of total offense, including 173 rushing yards, while Dallas manages 214 total yards on the day as the Chiefs convert the partisan crowd of Cowboy fans into supporters of the "Jefes de Kansas City" or Kansas City Chiefs.

DE Neil Smith does his best matador impersonation and tries his hand at "bull-fighting" while in Monterrey, Mexico.



WR Masato "The Magnet" Itai (13) and TE Nachi Abe (47) join Chiefs President Carl Peterson in pregame ceremonies at the Tokyo Dome.

1998 American Bowl

Packers 27, Chiefs 24 OT
August 2, 1998 • 42,018
Tokyo Dome • Tokyo, Japan

GREEN BAY.	0	14	7	3	3	— 27
KANSAS CITY	14	0	10	0	0	— 24

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

Texans 20, Oilers 17 (2 OT)

December 23, 1962 • Jeppesen Stadium • 37,981

DALLAS	3	14	0	0	0	3	— 20
HOUSTON	0	0	7	10	0	0	— 17

A contest that moved the infant American Football League into the national consciousness proved to be the first of three AFL titles for Hank Stram's charges as the Dallas Texans claimed a 20-17 double-overtime victory over the Houston Oilers. The game still ranks as the second-longest pro contest ever played, coming in at a lengthy 77:54, but is best remembered for RB Abner Haynes' choice to "kick to the clock" at the beginning of the initial overtime session.

Following second-place finishes in each of the league's first two seasons, the Texans ran away with the AFL West title in '62. Dallas (11-3) was then matched in this title bout with Houston (11-3), which had won the first two AFL titles in '60 and '61 over the Chargers.

The Texans grabbed the game's first break when LB E.J. Holub picked off QB/K George Blanda at the goal line and returned the ball 43 yards, sparking a drive that resulted in a 16-yard FG by K Tommy Brooker. Blanda would miss a 47-yard kick on the Oilers next possession and Haynes scored on a 28-yard pass from QB Len Dawson. An INT by CB Dave Grayson would set up Haynes' second TD of the half, this time on a two-yard run to give the Texans a 17-0 halftime advantage.

But the momentum quickly shifted to the Oilers in the second half. George Blanda – then a "young" 35 years old – passed 15 yards to TE Willard Dewveall for a touchdown and kicked a 31-yard field goal before RB Charley Tolar burst over from the one to tie the game at 17-17 in the fourth quarter. Houston had a shot to win the game late in regulation, but LB Sherrill Headrick blocked a 42-yard Blanda field goal to leave the score deadlocked.

The two teams then went into the first sudden death overtime in AFL annals. The Texans won the toss and Stram elected to kick off, maintaining his defense could hold the Oilers long enough for Dawson to get the ball in good field position. Herein came the famous "kick-to-the-clock" episode in which Texans captain Haynes inadvertently elected for his team to kick into the wind instead of having it as the consolation for not receiving the football.

Neither club mounted a serious challenge in the early stages of overtime, but as the fifth quarter was drawing to a close, DE Bill Hull intercepted a Blanda pass and returned it to midfield. Dawson passed to RB Jack Spikes for 10 yards. Spikes – the game's Most Valuable Player – then ran for 19 yards and the Texans were in field goal range.

At the 2:54 mark of the sixth quarter, Brooker kicked a 25-yard field goal to give the Texans a 20-17 victory and the American Football League championship. The game lasted 77 minutes and 54 seconds and would be the longest in pro football history until the Chiefs and Dolphins played over 82 minutes nearly a decade later in '71.

1966 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 31, Bills 7

January 1, 1967 • War Memorial Stadium • 42,080

KANSAS CITY	7	10	0	14	— 31
BUFFALO	7	0	0	0	— 7

With a berth in Super Bowl I as the prize, the Chiefs visited ancient War Memorial Stadium for a New Year's Day clash with the defending AFL champion Buffalo Bills. Kansas City's defense had stifled opponents all season long and didn't disappoint in this contest, forcing four turnovers, while limiting Buffalo to just nine first downs and 40 rushing yards as the Chiefs rolled to a 31-7 victory and their second AFL title.

The game, played in frigid, sub-freezing temperatures, produced its first break on the opening kickoff when P Jerrel Wilson recovered a fumble by DE Dudley Meredith on the Buffalo 31-yard line. Three plays later, QB Len Dawson found TE Fred Arbanas for a 29-yard touchdown, giving Kansas City an early 7-0 lead.

After the two teams exchanged punts, Buffalo tied the game in the opening period when All-Star QB Jack Kemp hit WR Elbert Dubenion on a 69-yard pass play to tie the score at 7-7. Few thought it would be the Bills last score of the day, but Kansas City would eventually outscore Buffalo 24-0 in the final three quarters.

While the Chiefs defense clamped down on the Bills, Dawson led the Kansas City offense to 10 second-quarter points. A 28-yard punt return by RB Mike Garrett set the Chiefs up at the Buffalo 45-yard line and six plays later the KC signal-caller found WR Otis Taylor for a 29-yard touchdown pass.

The game's decisive play then came just before halftime. Kemp had marched the Bills to the Chiefs eight-yard line, but was picked off at the goal line by S Johnny Robinson, who raced 72 yards with the interception before being brought down at the Buffalo 28-yard line. K Mike Mercer then hit a 32-yard FG with 0:03 left in the half to give the Chiefs a 17-7 lead heading into the locker room.

The third quarter proved to be a defensive tussle as the two teams each exchanged a pair of punts. Kansas City would get to the Buffalo 42-yard line late in the period, but a 49-yard kick by Mercer fell short leaving the score at 17-7 with 15 minutes remaining.

Kansas City then broke the game wide open as Garrett applied the coup de grace for the Chiefs, scoring on runs of one and 18 yards to make the count 31-7. A 47-yard Dawson pass to E Chris Burford set up Garrett's first TD which came on fourth-and-goal. Buffalo fumbled on its next offensive snap and S Bobby Hunt fell on the loose ball at the Bills 21. Three plays later Garrett started left and then reversed his field to get into the end zone for a second time.

Kemp couldn't move the Bills on their next possession and was picked off by CB Emmitt Thomas on Buffalo's final drive of the day as Kansas City won its second AFL title in four years and awaited the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl I.

SUPER BOWL I

Packers 35, Chiefs 10

January 15, 1967 • Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum • 63,036

KANSAS CITY	0	10	0	0	—	10
GREEN BAY	7	7	14	7	—	35

Representing themselves and the American Football League in the first championship match with the National Football League, the Chiefs played well for one half before bowing to the supremacy of the Green Bay Packers. Vince Lombardi's Packers – one of the great pro football teams of all time – won Super Bowl I by a 35-10 score. The Packers held a slim 14-10 advantage at the half before the game turned on one play in the third quarter.

Green Bay opened the scoring on its second possession when the game's Most Valuable Player, QB Bart Starr, passed 37 yards to TE Max McGee, who made a remarkable one-handed catch for a touchdown. McGee, who had caught just four passes during the regular season, became an unlikely hero for the Packers after starter Boyd Dowler was injured on the game's opening series. McGee finished the game with seven catches for 138 yards and two TDs.

Behind QB Len Dawson, the Chiefs marched into Green Bay territory on their next drive, but K Mike Mercer misfired on a 40-yard FG to leave the score 7-0 after one quarter. However, Kansas City would tie the game on its next possession after a 31-yard completion to WR Otis Taylor set up a seven-yard scoring pass to RB Curtis McClinton.

Green Bay would go right back on top when RB Jim Taylor scored from 14 yards out on the Packers vaunted sweep. Kansas City's next drive featured a 27-yard completion to E Chris Burford and culminated with a 31-yard Mercer FG as the Chiefs narrowed Green Bay's lead to a 14-10 margin.

The Chiefs momentum carried over to the third quarter as Kansas City moved to a first down on its initial possession. But then the game's key play – one that doomed the underdog Chiefs – unfolded when S Willie Wood intercepted a Dawson pass intended for TE Fred Arbanas at midfield. Wood returned it all the way to the Chiefs five-yard line, where RB Elijah Pitts ran for the first of his two touchdowns as Green Bay would establish a 21-10 lead.

The Packers defense forced Kansas City to punt on its next two possessions, setting up another Starr-to-McGee touchdown pass. That duo would connect on completions of 11 and 16 yards on a 10-play, 56-yard drive before McGee hauled in a 13-yard score to up the Packer advantage to 28-10.

Kansas City dodged a scoring threat when CB Willie Mitchell picked off a Starr pass at the Chiefs 11-yard line in the fourth quarter, but it would be Green Bay's only miscue of the day. The Packers defense would stifle the AFL Champions for the remainder of the game as the Chiefs crossed midfield just once in the fourth quarter.

A 37-yard pass to McGee would set up the Packers final score, a one-yard Pitts TD run. That score put the finishing touch on a 35-10 victory as Green Bay claimed the first of two straight Super Bowl titles, while Kansas City would have to wait until Super Bowl IV for redemption on football's biggest stage.

1968 AFL DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Raiders 41, Chiefs 6

December 22, 1968 • Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum • 54,444

KANSAS CITY	0	6	0	0	— 6
OAKLAND	21	7	0	13	— 41

Oakland jumped out to an early 21-0 lead and picked off QB Len Dawson four times, posting a convincing 41-6 victory in the initial postseason meeting between the Chiefs and Raiders. The two teams had both finished 12-2 and split a pair of regular season contests, setting up this playoff meeting for the right to advance to the AFL Championship Game.

The Chiefs defense had allowed a franchise-record 170 points during the regular season, but QB Daryle Lamonica and WR Fred Biletnikoff made play after play against Kansas City. Lamonica finished the day with 345 passing yards and five TD passes, the highest postseason totals ever amassed against Kansas City. Biletnikoff also had a record-setting day, registering 180 receiving yards and three scores, the best individual receiving day produced versus the Chiefs in the playoffs.

The Lamonica-Biletnikoff connection clicked early and often, accounting for three plays and 60 yards on Oakland's opening possession, including a 24-yard TD pass to put the Raiders ahead 7-0.

With the Chiefs backed up at their own two-yard line, P Jerrel Wilson's punt would go off the side of his foot, giving the Raiders the ball at the Kansas City 25-yard line. Three plays later, a 23-yard scoring grab by WR Warren Wells made the score 14-0. The two teams would exchange punts before Lamonica lofted a 44-yard aerial to Biletnikoff to make the score 21-0 at the end of the first quarter.

Kansas City's offense showed some life to open the second quarter. Dawson hit WR Otis Taylor for a 55-yard gain to put the Chiefs in scoring position, but KC could not crack the end zone on three tries from inside the five-yard line as the club would settle for a 10-yard K Jan Stenerud FG to make the count 21-3.

Two possessions later, the Chiefs got excellent field position at the Oakland 38. A 31-yard pass to WR Ron Pitts moved KC to the seven-yard line, but again the offense couldn't cross the goal line, resulting in an eight-yard Stenerud FG. The Raiders responded with a 54-yard Lamonica-to-Biletnikoff TD to close the first half, giving Oakland a commanding 28-6 lead.

The Chiefs defense forced a punt on Oakland's first drive of the second half and then held the Raiders out of the end zone on fourth-and-goal from the one on their next possession to keep the contest within reach. But Kansas City's offense couldn't put points on the board despite getting deep into Oakland territory twice as a missed 37-yard FG and an interception haulted those drives.

The Raiders slammed the door shut in the fourth quarter as Wells caught his second TD of the day and K George Blanda tacked on a pair of FGs to up the Oakland lead to 41-6. Dawson was unable to rally the Chiefs as each of the club's final three possessions ended with interceptions and Oakland advanced to its second straight AFL Championship Game.

1969 AFL DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Chiefs 13, Jets 6

December 20, 1969 • Shea Stadium • 62,977

KANSAS CITY	0	3	3	7	— 13
NEW YORK	3	0	0	3	— 6

Kansas City had throttled the Jets in the regular season, but getting a playoff victory against the reigning World Champions would prove much more difficult. The Chiefs defense would rise up for a monumental goal line stand, while the offense would get into the end zone when it mattered most as Kansas City claimed a 13-6 victory.

New York was led by QB Joe Namath, but throwing the ball accurately in the swirling winds of Shea Stadium would prove difficult for the charismatic MVP of Super Bowl III. The Jets passer connected on just 14 of 40 attempts for 164 yards and was picked off three times.

New York got on the board first with a 27-yard K Jim Turner field goal to go up 3-0. QB Len Dawson then started KC's next drive with a 13-yard pass to WR Otis Taylor, a 12-yard connection to TE Fred Arbanas and a 17-yard screen to RB Wendell Hayes. After missing a 47-yard FG on KC's first drive, this time K Jan Stenerud connected on a 23-yard FG to knot the score at 3-3.

Neither club could muster much offense for the remainder of the first half. Stenerud would misfire on a 44-yard kick on KC's only other legitimate scoring shot, leaving the score deadlocked at intermission.

Kansas City's defense would turn up the pressure in the third quarter. CB Emmitt Thomas would register the Chiefs first INT of the day, setting up a 47-yard FG attempt that sailed wide left in the blustery conditions. New York's next possession would be terminated by the first of two interceptions on the day by CB Jim Marsalis. After the Jets were penalized for running into P Jerrel Wilson, a 27-yard pass to Arbanas put KC in New York territory. A 25-yard Stenerud FG then gave the Chiefs a slim, 6-3 advantage.

Namath responded by moving the Jets into scoring position early in the fourth quarter. A pass interference call in the end zone would give the home squad first-and-goal at the one, setting the stage for the biggest goal-line stand in Chiefs history.

RB Matt Snell gained half a yard off right tackle on first down before S Johnny Robinson arrived on the scene, while RB Bill Mathis was stuffed for no gain by LB Willie Lanier on second down. Namath attempted a bootleg on third down, but was hit by LB Jim Lynch and threw the ball away, forcing the Jets to settle for a seven-yard Turner field goal to tie the contest at 6-6.

Dawson and the Chiefs would immediately strike back. A 61-yard bomb to Taylor would set up the game's only TD. WR Gloster Richardson made the biggest grab of his career, hauling in a 19-yard scoring strike from Dawson on the next play. Marsalis would then record his second INT of Namath on the Jets final possession to ensure a tightly-contested 13-6 playoff win, sending Kansas City to the AFL's final title game at Oakland.

1969 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 17, Raiders 7

January 4, 1970 • Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum • 54,444

KANSAS CITY	0	7	7	3	— 17
OAKLAND	7	0	0	0	— 7

On the day the American Football League played the final game of its 10-year history, the Kansas City Chiefs became the AFL's only three-time champion. The Chiefs, through a curious playoff system, played Oakland for the league's last title. The Raiders had won the AFL West and owned a pair of regular season wins over the Chiefs, including a slim 10-6 victory in the regular season finale.

The Raiders, who arrived at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum already packed for a potential trip to Super Bowl IV, suffered the indignity of carrying those suitcases out of the stadium past the Chiefs busses after a 17-7 defeat.

The two clubs managed one first-half touchdown apiece with Oakland's coming on a three-yard run by RB Charlie Smith. Kansas City responded with a one-yard plunge by RB Wendell Hayes after QB Len Dawson had hit on passes of 14 yards to WR Otis Taylor and 41 yards to WR Frank Pitts.

In the third quarter, QB/K George Blanda was wide right on field goals of 39 and 40 yards, attempts that would have moved Oakland in front. Midway through the period, Kansas City began its second TD drive from its own six-yard line. A potential disaster was averted when the Chiefs fell on a fumble at their own two-yard line. On the next play, Dawson and Taylor pulled Kansas City out of the hole with a 35-yard pass play. FB Robert Holmes added 23 more on a flare pass, while a 25-yard pass interference call gave the Chiefs first-and-goal at the three. Holmes plowed in for the go-ahead TD from five yards out on third down, giving the Chiefs a 14-7 advantage.

The game then became a defensive struggle, which played right into Kansas City's hand. Led by defensive charges from the entire front four of DEs Aaron Brown and Jerry Mays and DTs Buck Buchanan and Curley Culp, the Chiefs continually harassed Raiders QB Daryle Lamonica, forcing the Oakland signal caller to throw a trifecta of fourth-quarter interceptions.

K Jan Stenerud came up short on a 52-yard FG to begin the final frame, which would be marked by a myriad of turnovers. S Jim Kearney registered KC's first INT of Lamonica at the Chiefs 18-yard line. Two plays later a Chiefs fumble would put the ball back in the hands of the "Mad Bomber," who was subsequently picked off by CB Jim Marsalis on Oakland's very next snap.

Inexplicably, Kansas City would fumble again two plays later, setting Lamonica up deep in Chiefs territory. But three snaps later CB Emmitt Thomas recorded his second pickoff of the day, ending a third straight Oakland possession with an INT. Thomas returned the ball 62 yards to the Oakland 18-yard line, setting up a 22-yard field goal that provided a 17-7 lead with 4:48 remaining.

Kansas City would actually fumble one more time, but the Silver and Black could not capitalize as the victorious Chiefs would return home to pack bags of their own for New Orleans and Super Bowl IV.

SUPER BOWL IV

Chiefs 23, Vikings 7

January 11, 1970 • Tulane Stadium • 80,562

MINNESOTA	0	0	7	0	—	7
KANSAS CITY	3	13	7	0	—	23

Kansas City's finest sports hour concluded at 5:20 in the afternoon of Sunday, January 11, 1970, when the Chiefs defeated the Minnesota Vikings, 23-7, for the World Championship of pro football.

The Chiefs, who finished 11-3 on the season and defeated the N.Y. Jets and Oakland Raiders in the playoffs, closed out their first decade as the winningest team in the American Football League, which, with Super Bowl IV, came to an end. Beginning in '70, the two leagues merged, with the AFL becoming the American Football Conference of the NFL.

Minnesota, a prohibitive favorite, was 12-2 during the regular season and at one point had won 12 games in succession behind a fearsome defense that had allowed an average of just 9.5 points per game. But behind QB Len Dawson – who would earn the game's Most Valuable Player Award – the Chiefs would amass more than enough offense to carry the day.

The Chiefs took an early lead when K Jan Stenerud booted a 48-yard first quarter field goal, a kick that remains as the longest field goal in Chiefs postseason history. He would later follow with field goals of 32 and 25 yards to give Kansas City a 9-0 lead.

Kansas City received the first break in the game when Vikings S Charlie West fumbled a kickoff and G Remi Prudhomme recovered at the Minnesota 19-yard line. After an eight-yard loss, Dawson handed off to RB Wendell Hayes, who rambled for 13 yards up the middle on a draw play. A 10-yard pass to WR Otis Taylor gave the Chiefs a first down at the four. Three plays later, RB Mike Garrett burst off-tackle for a five-yard touchdown, giving Kansas City a 16-0 halftime lead and stunning the Vikings and a nationwide television audience.

Minnesota mounted a mild third-quarter comeback when RB Dave Osborn scored from four yards out to cut the margin to 16-7. But any hopes the Vikings had of getting closer were dashed by Taylor, who lived up to his big-play reputation repeatedly through that season. Dawson hit the Chiefs wideout on a short hitch pattern, and when CB Earsell Mackbee missed the initial tackle, Taylor was loose down the right sideline, high-stepping his way to a 46-yard TD to give the Chiefs a 23-7 lead after three quarters.

As was so often the case in '69, the defense came to the fore. Minnesota had the ball three times in the final period and, as in the Oakland game the previous week, the Chiefs snuffed out all three chances with interceptions. LB Willie Lanier picked off a QB Joe Kapp pass to halt a rally at the Chiefs 34-yard line. Later on, S Johnny Robinson, playing with what turned out to be three broken ribs, grabbed another errant Kapp throw. Following the game, Kapp would pay tribute to Kansas City's massive defensive front: "The Chiefs defensive line was very active and looked like a Redwood Forest."

QB Gary Cuozzo would replace Kapp, but suffered similar results. In the game's closing minutes, CB Emmitt Thomas intercepted his fourth pass of the playoffs. The Chiefs then ran out the clock to capture the AFL's second consecutive Super Bowl triumph.

1971 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Dolphins 27, Chiefs 24 (2 OT)

MIAMI	0	10	7	7	0	3	—	27
KANSAS CITY	10	0	7	7	0	0	—	24

The longest game in NFL history signaled the end of a glorious era in Chiefs history as Kansas City and Miami dueled for 82:40 in a double-overtime epic on Christmas Day '71. The final game ever played at Municipal Stadium featured 11 future Hall of Fame players, Hall of Fame head coaches Hank Stram and Don Shula, as well as one of the greatest individual efforts in NFL postseason annals by RB Ed Podalak. But in the end it was the Dolphins who prevailed when K Garo Yepremian's 37-yard FG at 7:40 of the second OT gave Miami a 27-24 victory.

Widely regarded as the finest Chiefs team ever assembled – the '69 Super Bowl IV squad included – Kansas City took a 10-0 lead after the first quarter thanks to a 24-yard FG and a seven-yard TD catch by Podolak. But Miami countered with 10 unanswered points to leave the score deadlocked at halftime.

The unquestioned star of the contest was Podolak, who accounted for an NFL-playoff record 350 combined net yards (85 rushing yards, 110 receiving yards and 153 on kick returns). With the score knotted at 17-17 after three quarters, Podalak capped a 91-yard drive with a three-yard TD run to give the Chiefs a 24-17 lead with 6:46 left in regulation. However, a five-yard pass from QB Bob Griese to TE Marv Fleming put the count at 24-24 with 1:25 remaining in regulation.

Podolak almost ended the game with a 78-yard return on the ensuing kickoff, but Miami CB Curtis Johnson maintained his angle to make a touchdown-saving tackle at the 22-yard line. With 35 seconds left, K Jan Stenerud's would-be, game-winning 31-yard FG attempt sailed wide right. Miami could not move the ball on its final possession of regulation, sending the game to its first overtime session.

Kansas City won the toss and after taking a lateral from DT Buck Buchanan, Podolak returned the kickoff to the Chiefs 46-yard line. Four plays later, KC was at the Miami 35-yard line as Stenerud lined up for another attempt at a game-winning kick, this time from 42 yards out. But Stenerud's attempt was blocked by LB Nick Buoniconti, giving the Dolphins new life.

Both teams would exchange punts before a 52-yard FG attempt by Yepremian came up short. The first overtime session would come to a close when Dawson was intercepted by Miami S Jake Scott. The Dolphins took over at their own 46 to start overtime number two, but were smothered by Kansas City's fierce defense.

Miami's defense forced the Chiefs to punt, setting up Griese and the Dolphins for one final drive. RB Jim Csonka broke off a 29-yard run to move Miami into KC territory. Four plays later Yepremian ended the NFL's longest day with his 37-yard game-winner. The Dolphins would eventually advance to Super Bowl VI, while the Chiefs would have to wait 15 years before their next postseason appearance after falling in one of the most storied battles in pro football history.

1986 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

Jets 35, Chiefs 15

December 28, 1986 • Giants Stadium • 69,307

KANSAS CITY	6	0	0	9	— 15
NEW YORK	7	14	7	7	— 35

Kansas City finished the regular season with a 10-6 record to earn the club's first playoff berth in 15 years, but that adulation would be short-lived. After taking an early lead against the N.Y. Jets, three KC turnovers combined with 135 rushing yards and two scores from New York RB Freeman McNeil led to 28 unanswered points and a 35-15 Jets victory.

The Chiefs only offensive scoring drive of the day came on Kansas City's initial possession when QB Todd Blackledge led Kansas City to paydirt. A pass interference call in the end zone set the stage for a one-yard scoring plunge by RB Jeff Smith. But a missed PAT would begin a downward spiral for the Chiefs, who took a brief 6-0 lead.

Jets head coach Joe Walton then made the biggest call of the game on New York's next drive. Facing fourth-and-six at the Chiefs 33-yard line, Walton kept his offense on the field. QB Pat Ryan faked a pitch to McNeil and took the ball up the gut for a 24-yard gain. Two plays later, McNeil was in the end zone, giving the Jets a lead they would not relinquish.

Disaster would strike on Kansas City's next offensive snap when RB Larry Moriarity had the ball jarred loose after catching a swing pass. LB Kyle Clifton recovered for the Jets. Twelve plays later, a one-yard TD toss to McNeil put the Jets ahead 14-6.

After Kansas City failed to gain a first down on its next two possessions, a 30-yard pass to WR Al Toon put New York in Chiefs territory. Ryan then found Toon kneeling in the end zone for an 11-yard TD on third down to give the Jets a commanding 21-6 advantage with 0:59 left in the second quarter.

New York outgained the Chiefs 191 to 58 after 30 minutes and Kansas City's situation would go from bad to worse on the opening snap of the second half. Blackledge was interecepted by LB Kevin McArthur, who raced down the sideline for a 21-yard score, putting the Jets ahead 28-6 just 13 seconds into the third quarter.

Blackledge would guide the Chiefs to the Jets 15-yard line on Kansas City's next possession, but the club's comeback hopes were effectively over when RB Boyce Green was stuffed on fourth-and-one in the third quarter, turning the ball back over to the Jets.

Kansas City's special teams would account for the club's only touchdown of the second half as CB Albert Lewis blocked a Dave Jennings punt and recovered it in the end zone to close the gap to 28-13. A six-yard Ryan TD pass to TE Billy Griggs made it 35-13 before QB Bill Kenney replaced Blackledge in the fourth quarter. Kenney guided Kansas City inside the Jets 10-yard line twice to no avail.

The Chiefs final points of the afternoon came when Jennings stepped out of the end zone for a self-imposed safety to make the final score 35-15 as Kansas City's hopes expired.

Dolphins 17, Chiefs 16

January 5, 1991 • Joe Robbie Stadium • 67,276

KANSAS CITY	3	7	6	0	— 16
MIAMI	0	3	0	14	— 17

The Chiefs were in control for the majority of their first playoff game since '86, but could not answer a late comeback bid by QB Dan Marino as the Dolphins pulled out a 17-16 victory. Chiefs QB Steve DeBerg – who had guided KC to an 11-5 regular season record – had the club in scoring position, but a 52-yard FG attempt by K Nick Lowery fell just inches short with 0:56 remaining.

Had Kansas City fully capitalized on a number of scoring opportunities earlier in the game, the outcome may have been different. CB Charles Washington blocked a punt on Miami's first possession, setting the Chiefs up at the Dolphins 37-yard line. However, Kansas City would be forced to settle for a 27-yard FG. Miami would answer on its next possession as K Pete Stoyanovich nailed an NFL postseason-record 58-yard FG to even to count at 3-3.

However, Stoyanovich would come up short on a 57-yard attempt later in the second quarter, setting the Chiefs up with good field position. KC capitalized as DeBerg floated a 26-yard scoring aerial to WR Stephone Paige putting the Chiefs ahead 10-7 with 1:54 left in the half. Paige would finish the day with 142 receiving yards, the highest postseason total in team history. Meanwhile, DE Neil Smith – who had 1.5 sacks on the day – preserved the lead by stripping Marino on Miami's next possession.

Kansas City dominated the third quarter, but only managed to extend its lead to 16-3. Poised with second-and-goal at the Miami three-yard line, DeBerg was flagged for intentional grounding and the club settled for a 25-yard FG. S Deron Cherry blasted the ball loose from WR Mark Duper on Miami's next play, giving KC the ball at the Dolphins 29-yard line. But once again, the Chiefs could not strike paydirt and would leave Miami territory with only a 38-yard Lowery FG to show for their efforts.

Marino then began his comeback bid. A 10-play, 66-yard march culminated with a one-yard TD toss to FB Tony Paige as the Dolphins moved the count to 16-10. After a 33-yard connection between DeBerg and WR Emile Harry moved KC back into Miami territory, the Chiefs were forced to punt, setting up the Dolphins go-ahead drive which began with a key, 37-yard pass over the middle to TE Ferrell Edmunds. Marino then capped the march with a six-yard TD pass to WR Mark Clayton that was nearly intercepted by CB Albert Lewis as the Dolphins took their first lead of the game at 17-16 with 3:28 remaining in the fourth quarter.

A 20-yard pass to Paige and a 26-yard run by RB Christian Okoye helped put the Chiefs at the Miami 26-yard at the 2:00 warning. A controversial holding call on G Dave Szott nullified a 12-yard Okoye run on the next play, halting the club's momentum and setting the stage for Lowery's final field goal attempt, which came tantalizingly close to the crossbar.

Chiefs 10, Raiders 6

December 28, 1991 • Arrowhead Stadium • 75,827

LOS ANGELES	0	3	3	0 —	6
KANSAS CITY	0	7	0	3 —	10

It took 19 years, but the Chiefs finally had an opportunity to officially christen Arrowhead Stadium with a playoff game. And fittingly, that contest came against Kansas City's most heated rival, the Raiders. The Chiefs had defeated the Raiders 27-21 just six days earlier at the L.A. Coliseum in the season's final regular season game for the right to play at home in the first week of the postseason. Kansas City made the most of that opportunity by recording a 10-6 win over the Raiders, marking the club's first playoff victory since Super Bowl IV.

The Chiefs imparted a familiar recipe for success – solid defense and a bruising ground game. Kansas City's defense forced six turnovers and limited the Silver and Black to just two field goals, while RB Barry Word pummeled the Raiders with 33 carries for a team postseason-record 130 yards.

Word pounded away at the Raiders all day, a trend that began early. Kansas City won the toss and consumed 11:56 off the clock, thanks to a drive that featured 12 runs by Word. The Chiefs drove as deep as the 15-yard line, but K Nick Lowery's 33-yard FG was wide left, leaving the scoreboard empty.

S Deron Cherry registered the first of his two INTs on the game on the Raiders first possession. QB Todd Marinovich would be picked off four times by the KC defense and his first errant throw would give Kansas City possession at the Raiders 24-yard line. But again, Lowery would misfire, this time on a 47-yard FG attempt.

A wild barrage of turnovers then ensued. Chiefs LB Derrick Thomas stripped Marinovich, but QB Steve DeBerg promptly threw an INT on KC's next possession. After a Raiders punt, RB Harvey Williams put the ball on the ground for Kansas City, but Cherry registered another INT which he returned to the 11-yard line. DeBerg would hit WR Fred Jones for the game's only touchdown on the next play as the Chiefs took a 7-0 lead.

Raiders RB Nick Bell finished the game with 107 ground yards and was the club's primary weapon on a 10-play, 65-yard drive that ended with a 32-yard K Jeff Jaeger FG that closed the gap to 7-3 just before intermission.

The first half passing numbers for both squads were equally unimpressive. Marinovich completed just three passes for 47 yards, while DeBerg hit on seven passes for 71 yards. Wisely, both clubs turned to the ground game in the second half. The Raiders gave the ball to Bell eight times on their initial possession of the third quarter, but would have to settle for a 26-yard FG to close the gap to 7-6.

Kansas City then capitalized on a Raiders fumble by handing the ball to Word nine times on a 13-play drive that netted an 18-yard FG to make the score 10-6 early in the fourth quarter. The Chiefs would pick off Marinovich on each of the Raiders final two drives to seal the franchise's first-ever home playoff victory.

Bills 37, Chiefs 14

KANSAS CITY	0	0	7	7	—	14
BUFFALO	7	10	7	13	—	37

Kansas City was coming off its first postseason victory since Super Bowl IV, but that triumph proved quite irrelevant as Buffalo pounded the Chiefs into submission early in a 37-14 win. The Bills raced out to a 17-0 halftime lead and salted the game away behind RBs Thurman Thomas and Kenneth Davis who combined for 41 carries and 175 rushing yards. Defensively, Buffalo picked off back-up QB Marc Vlasic four times and held the Chiefs to just 213 yards of total offense as the Bills marched to their second straight AFC Championship Game.

After both teams traded a pair of punts to open the game, QB Jim Kelly hit a pair of completions to WR Don Beebe to put the Bills in scoring position and then fired a 25-yard pass to WR Andre Reed to give Buffalo a 7-0 advantage. Kansas City caught the game's first break when CB Eric Everett picked off Kelly early in the second quarter. But the Chiefs offense would go three-and-out. Four plays later, Kelly found Reed for a 53-yard scoring strike to make the count 14-0. Despite throwing three INTs himself, Kelly would finish the contest with 273 passing yards and three TDs.

S Deron Cherry picked off Kelly on Buffalo's next possession, but again, the Chiefs could not capitalize. The Bills would tack on a 33-yard K Scott Norwood field goal to end the first half with a 17-0 lead.

The second half wouldn't start much better for Kansas City. RB Harvey Williams fumbled on the club's first snap of the third quarter, but TE Jonathan Hayes would recover. The Chiefs wouldn't be as fortunate on the next play as Vlasic – who entered the game in the second quarter when starting QB Steve DeBerg was knocked out of the game with a hand injury – suffered the first of four second-half interceptions. Buffalo took over on the Chiefs 36-yard line and six plays later Kelly had the Bills ahead 24-0 after finding WR James Lofton for a 10-yard TD.

Vlasic would be picked off again on the Chiefs next drive, but LB Lonnie Marts returned the favor with an interception of his own to give Kansas City a ray of hope late in the third quarter. This time the Chiefs would get on the board as RB Barry Word bulled into the end zone from three yards out to cut the Buffalo margin to 24-7.

Thomas and Davis took it from there as the Bills methodically began grinding down the clock. After a Buffalo FG made it 27-7, Vlasic was picked off twice on his next three attempts. The Bills would turn those two miscues into 10 points as Buffalo took a commanding 37-7 lead with 4:57 left in the game.

Vlasic would hit WR Fred Jones on a 20-yard TD with 2:07 remaining to make it 37-14, but it was too little, too late as Buffalo recovered KC's onside kick attempt and ran out the clock, ending the Chiefs postseason aspirations.

1992 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

Chargers 17, Chiefs 0

January 2, 1993 • Jack Murphy Stadium • 58,278

SAN DIEGO	0	0	10	7	—	17

Kansas City had defeated San Diego twice during the '92 regular season. However, that mattered little to the Chargers, who promptly dispatched the Chiefs from the playoffs by a 17-0 margin, marking the only shutout KC has ever suffered in postseason play.

The two sides bludgeoned one another throughout a scoreless first half, but early on it appeared the game may feature its share of offensive fireworks. San Diego QB Stan Humphries hit WR Nate Lewis for a 39-yard gain on the game's first play from scrimmage. Then, after a pair of penalties, the Chargers were knocking on the door. But DE Neil Smith fell on a San Diego fumble at the 13-yard line to halt the scoring threat.

The Chiefs couldn't mount a serious scoring threat in the first half and couldn't move past the San Diego 40-yard line on their first five possessions. The Chargers didn't fare much better with only a fumble, a punt and a missed 52-yard FG to show on three trips into Kansas City territory. Still, San Diego did hold a slight 130-to-122 edge in total yardage heading into the locker room.

Kansas City's offensive struggles continued in the second half, as the club punted on its first two possessions. San Diego then broke the stalemate midway through the third quarter when the team's battering ram – RB Marion Butts – burst into the secondary en route to a 54-yard score, giving the Chargers a 7-0 lead. Butts finished the game with 15 carries for 119 yards.

Things went downhill from there for the Chiefs. On Kansas City's next offensive play, QB Dave Krieg had a pass tipped by DE Blaise Winter. Fellow DE Leslie O'Neal picked off the ball at the Kansas City 29-yard line, setting up a 34-yard FG from K John Carney to give San Diego a 10-0 advantage with 3:33 left in the third quarter.

While Kansas City's defense was good, forcing 5.0 sacks – including 1.5 by LB Derrick Thomas – San Diego's defense was even better, harassing Krieg all day and finishing the game with 7.0 sacks. Krieg got the Chiefs into Chargers territory on each of the next two drives, but was sacked 3.0 times on those two series, stifling any scoring possibilities.

San Diego then delivered an offensive blow on its next possession. Behind a steady diet of RB Eric Bieniemy, the Chargers mounted an 11-play, 91-yard drive that ate 5:32 off the clock. H-back Steve Hendrickson got a rare carry and bulled his way into the end zone from five yards out to give the home team a 17-0 lead with 4:57 left in the fourth quarter.

The knockout punch quickly followed when Chargers DT Shawn Lee stripped Krieg on Kansas City's next possession. San Diego recovered and took over with 3:52 remaining. The Chiefs would get the ball back one last time, but the results were the same as they had been all day as San Diego sacked Krieg one last time and secured a 17-0 victory.

Chiefs 27, Steelers 24 (OT)

January 8, 1994 • Arrowhead Stadium • 74,515

PITTSBURGH	7	10	0	7	0	—	24
KANSAS CITY	7	0	3	14	3	—	27

It took an extra session to settle the score in the initial postseason match-up between Kansas City and Pittsburgh, but the Chiefs would eventually prevail, 27-24. A blocked punt and the last-minute heroics of QB Joe Montana – who was making his first playoff appearance with Kansas City – helped the Chiefs send the game to overtime where K Nick Lowery's 32-yard FG was the difference in the franchise's first OT playoff contest since the '62 AFL Championship Game.

Pittsburgh head coach Bill Cowher had previously served as both a player and assistant coach under Marty Schottenheimer before taking over the fortunes of the Steelers. Early on, the pupil appeared to have the upper hand as Pittsburgh held a 17-7 halftime lead thanks to a pair of TD passes from QB Neil O'Donnell. WR Andre Cooper hauled one in from 10 yards out and WR Ernie Mills caught a 26-yarder with just 0:18 left in the first half.

Kansas City's lone score of the first half came when QB Dave Krieg – who made a brief appearance for an injured Montana – delivered a 23-yard TD completion to WR J.J. Birden in the first quarter. A 23-yard FG in the third quarter would cut the Pittsburgh lead to 17-10, setting the stage for a fantastic finish.

Montana guided the squad on a nine-play, 80-yard drive to open the quarter, culminating with a two-yard TD trot by RB Marcus Allen, who was also making his initial postseason appearance with the Red and Gold. With the score tied at 17-17, O'Donnell answered with a nine-play, 74-yard drive, hitting TE Eric Green for a 22-yard score to put Pittsburgh back ahead with 4:11 left in regulation.

After KC went three-and-out on its next possession, the Steelers had a chance to run out the clock when they got the ball back with 3:00 remaining. However, the Chiefs defense would hold, setting the stage for Kansas City's special teams to swing the momentum back in favor of the home squad. TE Keith Cash swatted down P Mark Royals' punt, which was recovered by WR Fred Jones who returned the ball to the Pittsburgh nine-yard line.

Facing fourth-and-goal from the seven with 1:48 left, the ever-cool Montana found WR Tim Barnett in the back of the end zone to even the count at 24-24. KC's defense would force Pittsburgh three-and-out once again, giving Montana and the Chiefs one final shot in regulation, but a 43-yard FG attempt from Lowery sailed wide right with 0:13 remaining, sending the game to overtime.

Kansas City won the toss, but was unable to move the ball. Pittsburgh got to midfield before it was forced to punt, setting up one final drive by Montana. After starting on their own 20-yard line, KC moved to midfield and was deep in Pittsburgh territory after Montana hit Cash on an 18-yard strike. Five plays later, Lowery took the field on third down and drove the game-winning 32-yard FG through the uprights with 3:57 showing on the clock.

STEELERS — Cooper, 10-yard pass from O'Donnell (Anderson kick) (9-66, 5:00).
CHIEFS — Birden, 23-yard pass from Krieg (Lowery kick) (7-75, 2:21).

1993 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Chiefs 28, Oilers 20

January 16, 1994 • Astrodome • 64,011

KANSAS CITY	0	0	7	21	—	28
HOUSTON	10	0	0	10	—	20

Kansas City pulled a huge upset over heavily-favored Houston to advance to its first-ever AFC Championship Game with a 28-20 victory at the Astrodome. The contest marked the Chiefs first road playoff win since claiming a 17-7 triumph at Oakland in the '69 AFL Championship Game.

Houston was the NFL's hottest team heading into the playoffs, owning 11 consecutive wins to close the regular season and showed no signs of cooling down after jumping out to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter over the Chiefs. An interception by CB Steve Jackson on KC's first drive set up a 49-yard FG by K Al Del Greco, while an 11-play, 80-yard Oilers scoring march was capped by a two-yard RB Gary Brown TD run.

Houston's defense had proclaimed the Astrodome as "The House of Pain," but it was Kansas City's defense which began to inflict some damage, registering three sacks and forcing three fumbles in the second quarter alone. While the Chiefs offense couldn't capitalize, it would be a sign of things to come. Kansas City finished the game with a team playoff-record 9.0 sacks and seven forced fumbles, including a pair of sacks apiece by CB Albert Lewis, LB Derrick Thomas, S Bennie Thompson and DT Joe Phillips. Thomas and DE Neil Smith each had two forced fumbles, as well.

The Chiefs finally got on the board in the third quarter when QB Joe Montana threw a seven-yard TD pass to TE Keith Cash, who emphatically spiked the ball into a banner bestowed with the likeness of Oilers defensive coordinator Buddy Ryan. But Cash's exclamation point was nothing compared to the mayhem that would ensue in the fourth quarter.

Another interception by Houston led to a 43-yard FG that put the Oilers ahead 13-7. But the Chiefs grabbed their first lead of the day just three plays later with an 11-yard TD catch by WR J.J. Birden. On the Oilers next play from scrimmage, Thomas unleashed his patented sack-and-strip maneuver on Moon with Chiefs DT Dan Saleaumua scooping up the loose ball at the Houston 20-yard line. This time Montana – who finished the contest with 299 yards – found WR Willie Davis for an 18-yard TD to push the Chiefs advantage to 21-13.

But the Oilers wouldn't go away. Moon – who compiled 306 yards on the day – promptly responded with a seven-yard scoring strike to WR Ernest Givins to pull Houston to within 21-20. Kansas City would produce a one-two knockout combination on its next drive. Cash snared a 41-yard pass from Montana on a third-and-one situation from the KC 30-yard line. Then faced with third-and-two at the Houston 21-yard line, RB Marcus Allen burst through the middle of the line for a 21-yard TD dash to make the score 28-20.

A final sack from Thomas would all but seal the Oilers fate as the Chiefs turned "The House of Pain" into a house of horrors for Houston in the final NFL postseason game ever played in the Astrodome.

1993 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Bills 30, Chiefs 13

January 23, 1994 • Rich Stadium • 76,642

KANSAS CITY	6	0	7	0	— 13
BUFFALO	7	13	0	10	— 30

The Chiefs knew that they had to stop the run in order to dethrone the reigning three-time AFC Champion Buffalo Bills on their home turf. Unfortunately, the 229 rushing yards amassed by the Bills provided all that was necessary in a 30-13 AFC Championship Game setback at Rich Stadium. Although the Chiefs were outgained by just 51 yards (389 to 338), they allowed RB Thurman Thomas to gain 186 of Buffalo's 229 rushing yards.

Kansas City was in uncharted territory as the club was playing in its first-ever AFC title game and vying for its first Super Bowl appearance since '69, while the Bills were playing in an unprecedented fourth straight AFC Championship Game.

Neither team's offense was able to move the ball effectively at the start of the first quarter. Midway through the frame, though, Thomas would start to get on track as his easy 12-yard TD scamper gave the Bills a 7-0 lead.

But Kansas City would answer. QB Joe Montana orchestrated a 10-play, 52-yard drive that culminated with a 31-yard FG by K Nick Lowery. S Bennie Thompson then forced Bills WR Russell Copeland to fumble on the ensuing kickoff. WR Fred Jones scooped up the loose ball, setting the stage for another 31-yard FG to cut Buffalo's lead to one as the first quarter came to a close.

The second quarter was all Buffalo as the club scored on three straight possessions, getting a three-yard TD run from Thomas and FGs of 23 and 25 yards from K Steve Christie. The Chiefs had a chance to cut into the lead as the half ended, but a pass by Montana slipped through the hands of FB Kimble Anders, stationed in the end zone, and into the waiting arms of Buffalo S Henry Jones. The Bills took a 20-6 lead into the half as Thomas had already amassed 129 yards on the ground.

The Chiefs got the ball to open the second half, but three plays into the third quarter Montana was slammed to the turf by S Matt Darby and LB Darryl Talley, suffering a concussion on the play. Montana was sidelined for the remainder of a very chilly afternoon as QB Dave Krieg came off the bench.

With 2:58 left in the third quarter, Kansas City shaved the Bills lead to seven points with a 14-play, 90-yard drive that culminated in a one-yard plunge by RB Marcus Allen. But Buffalo countered with an 18-yard FG and a three-yard TD run by Thomas to make the count 30-13.

Kansas City's last legitimate comeback hope evaporated when Krieg was picked off at the goal line by CB James Williams with 3:23 left. Krieg would get the club as close as the Buffalo one-yard line on the Chiefs final drive, but it would not matter as time expired on Kansas City and its Super Bowl aspirations.

Dolphins 27, Chiefs 17

December 31, 1994 • Joe Robbie Stadium • 67,487

KANSAS CITY	14	3	0	0	— 17
MIAMI	7	10	10	0	— 27

In a game that proved to be the final contest of QB Joe Montana's legendary career, the Chiefs signal-caller provided a dramatic first-half showdown with fellow Western Pennsylvania native, Dolphins QB Dan Marino. But after these two legendary passers dueled to a 17-17 halftime tie, Miami pulled away in the second half behind Marino for a 27-17 victory.

The Chiefs outgained Miami by a 414-to-381 margin in total yardage, but a pair of second-half turnovers and a staunch Dolphins defense was too much to overcome. Neither club was able to mount a substantial pass rush as Chiefs LB Derrick Thomas recorded the game's only sack in his return to his South Florida hometown.

Both quarterbacks were nearly flawless in the first 30 minutes as Montana completed 12 of 15 passes for 178 yards and two TDs, while Marino hit on 14 of 16 attempts for 162 yards and one score as the two squads each scored on their first three possessions.

Montana started the shootout by guiding an exquisite 11-play, 80-yard drive that was capped with a one-yard play-action TD toss to TE Derrick Walker. Marino immediately answered with a nearly-identical, 10-play, 72-yard march that ended with a one-yard plunge by RB Bernie Parmalee to tie the score at 7-7.

KC struck quickly on its next possession as Montana found FB Kimble Anders on a 67-yard screen pass that hit paydirt. The two clubs then traded field goals before Marino produced a monster, 13-play, 80-yard drive that consumed 5:50 off the clock. A one-yard TD pass to TE Ronnie Williams with 0:22 remaining in the second quarter ended an exquisite half of football with the score deadlocked at 17-17.

Marino picked up right where he left off on the opening possession of the second half, putting the Dolphins ahead 24-17 on a seven-yard scoring strike to WR Irving Fryar. But this time the Chiefs and Montana could not answer, going three-and-out on their next two drives. Meanwhile, Miami tacked on a 40-yard FG from K Pete Stoyanovich to go up 27-17.

The Dolphins defense then clamped down in the fourth quarter. CB J.B. Brown picked off a Montana pass in the end zone to thwart a golden scoring opportunity, while S Michael Stewart forced a rare fumble by RB Marcus Allen as KC crossed into Miami territory on its next possession.

Miami was then content to grind it out on the ground, consuming over five minutes off the clock before the Chiefs could regain possession. Montana managed to get Kansas City as close as the Dolphins 19-yard line before his final professional pass fell incomplete on fourth down as he attempted to find WR Willie Davis. He finished the game with 314 yards on 26-of-37 passing with two TDs and one INT, while Marino ended the day by completing 22 of 29 attempts for 257 yards with two TD passes and no INTs.

CHIEFS — D. Walker, 1-yard pass from Montana (Elliott kick) (11-80, 6:28).

1995 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Colts 10, Chiefs 7

INDIANAPOLIS	0	7	3	0	— 10
KANSAS CITY	7	0	0	0	— 7

Frigid conditions, four turnovers and three missed field goals contributed to one of the most shocking upsets in Chiefs history as Kansas City (13-3) suffered a 10-7 loss to Indianapolis (9-7) at Arrowhead.

A kickoff temperature of 11 degrees and a wind chill of -9 seemingly did little to faze the dome-dwelling Colts. Indianapolis didn't lose any of its four fumbles and despite missing two field goals, it still made one when it counted as Kansas City squandered a solid effort from its league-leading scoring defense and 94 rushing yards from Marcus Allen, the fourth-best total in KC playoff history.

The Chiefs got off to a promising start, putting together a five-play, 62-yard TD drive on their third possession of the game. That march culminated with a 20-yard scoring pass from QB Steve Bono to WR Lake Dawson to give Kansas City its only score of the day and a 7-0 lead.

Colts QB Jim Harbaugh then made arguably the biggest play of the game on Indianapolis' next possession. Facing third-and-11 at his own 22-yard line, Harbaugh scrambled for an 18-yard gain. The Colts would convert six times on either third or fourth down on the drive, including a five-yard TD catch by WR Floyd Turner on third down which capped an 18-play, 77-yard drive that ate 8:40 off the clock and tied the count at 7-7.

Indianapolis K Cary Blanchard was short on a 47-yard FG after a KC fumble. Chiefs K Lin Elliott had a shot to put his team ahead with 0:12 left in the first half, but he was wide right from 35 yards out as the contest remained tied at halftime.

Kansas City boasted an NFL-best +12 turnover differential during the regular season and forced its only takeaway of the day when CB Mark Collins picked off Harbaugh. But just two plays later, Bono was intercepted by CB Ashley Ambrose, setting up a 30-yard Blanchard FG to put Indianapolis ahead 10-7 with 2:48 left in the third quarter.

KC's defense kept it close in the final 15 minutes, but it was not enough. Elliott was wide right on a 39-yard FG to open the fourth quarter and Bono was picked off by LB Quentin Coryatt on the Chiefs next possession. KC still appeared to have a shot when Blanchard's 49-yard FG fell short with 5:44 left in the game, but three plays later Bono was picked off by CB Eugene Daniel. However, the Chiefs defense held once again, setting the stage for one final drive with 4:12 remaining in the contest.

QB Rich Gannon came on in relief of Bono and took over at the Chiefs 18-yard line. He methodically moved the club downfield, converting three third downs, including a 14-yard scramble that put Kansas City at the Colts 25-yard line with 0:56 left. Gannon narrowly missed WR Lake Dawson in the end zone on third down, setting the stage for a final field goal attempt by Elliott from 42 yards out. But the kick sailed wide left as Indianapolis claimed a 10-7 victory and advanced to the AFC Championship Game.

CHIEFS — Dawson, 20-yard pass from Bono (Elliott kick) (5-62, 2:28).
COLTS — Turner, 5-yard pass from Harbaugh (Blanchard kick) (18-77, 8:40).
COLTS — Blanchard, 30-yard FG (9-35, 4:35).

1997 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Broncos 14, Chiefs 10

January 4, 1998 • Arrowhead Stadium • 76,965

DENVER	0	7	0	7	—	14
KANSAS CITY	0	0	10	0	—	10

The two teams with the AFC's best regular season records squared off as Kansas City (13-3) and Denver (12-4) met for the first time in postseason play. The Chiefs boasted the NFL's top scoring defense (14.5 ppg), while the Broncos owned the league's number one scoring offense (29.5 ppg). But it was Denver that claimed a 14-10 victory in what would be the final contest of RB Marcus Allen's storied Hall of Fame career.

Kansas City outgained Denver by 303 to 272 total yards and held a +2 edge in the turnover column, but an inability to put points on the board in several key situations cost the Chiefs a chance to host the AFC Championship Game. After the two teams battled through a scoreless first quarter, KC appeared to get on the board first, but was flagged for holding on a 34-yard FG by K Pete Stoyanovich, who had missed just one FG during the regular season. However, Stoyanovich's ensuing 44-yard attempt went wide left to leave the count at 0-0.

Denver QB John Elway then marched the Broncos on an eight-play, 65-yard scoring drive that culminated with a one-yard TD run by RB Terrell Davis, who would finish the game with 25 carries for 101 yards. KC could not get back into scoring range, as the Broncos took a 7-0 lead into the intermission.

Chiefs QB Elvis Grbac opened the second half with a 34-yard pass to WR Andre Rison, who finished the day with 110 receiving yards, the third-highest total in Chiefs postseason history. The game's most pivotal sequence would follow. Facing third-and-goal at the Denver three, Grbac connected with rookie TE Tony Gonzalez, who appeared to be forced out of the end zone by Broncos CB Darrien Gordon. However, the play was ruled an incompletion, forcing the Chiefs to settle for a 20-yard FG to cut the gap to 7-3.

With Denver poised at the Kansas City 11-yard line on its next drive, Chiefs DE John Browning forced a fumble by RB Derek Loville to thwart a Broncos scoring opportunity. After both squads exchanged punts, Grbac found WR Joe Horn on a 50-yard strike to set up a 12-yard TD pass to Gonzalez, giving the Chiefs a short-lived 10-7 advantage. However, Davis found paydirt from one-yard out on the Broncos ensuing drive to retake the lead at 14-10.

KC got as deep as the Denver 31-yard line on its next possession and lined up in field goal formation on fourth-and-six, but holder P Louie Aguiar ran with the ball and was tackled three yards short of a first down. Kansas City began its last possession with 4:04 left. Grbac found Rison for a 23-yard gain to move KC to the Broncos 28 with 1:51 left as the Chiefs used their final time out. Facing fourth-and-two at the Denver 20-yard line with 0:19 remaining, Grbac's final pass into the end zone was batted down by Gordon as Denver held on to claim the 14-10 victory.

BRONCOS — T. Davis, 1-yard run (Elam kick) (8-65, 4:51).
CHIEFS — Stoyanovich, 20-yard FG (11-67, 5:18).
CHIEFS — Gonzalez, 12-yard pass from Grbac (Stoyanovich kick) (4-65, 1:35).

2003 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Colts 38, Chiefs 31

January 11, 2004 • Arrowhead Stadium • 79,159

INDIANAPOLIS	14	7	10	7	—	38
KANSAS CITY	3	7	14	7	—	31

The NFL's top two scoring offenses and two of the game's brightest stars battled in an offensive shootout at Arrowhead in which Indianapolis prevailed by a 38-31 margin. RB Priest Holmes finished the game with a Chiefs single-game postseason record 176 rushing yards and tied a club playoff record with two rushing TDs. Colts QB Peyton Manning was just as good, throwing for 304 yards with three scores and posting an impeccable 138.8 rating.

In a game that featured no punts, just one turnover and only five total penalties, Manning's nearly-perfect performance kept the Colts one step ahead of Kansas City all afternoon. It marked just the third time in NFL postseason history that neither team was forced to punt and was the first time it had occurred since the '82 NFL Playoffs. Kansas City would draw within seven points three times in the second half, but Manning always had an answer.

Manning, the NFL's Co-MVP, opened the game with a 29-yard TD pass to WR Brandon Stokley. Kansas City would answer with a 22-yard field goal from Morten Andersen when Holmes was stopped on third-and-goal from the three. However, Manning and company kept the pressure on with an 11-yard TD run from RB Edgerrin James for a 14-3 lead.

The Chiefs rallied back as Green found WR Dante Hall on a nine-yard TD, cutting the deficit to 14-10. However, the Colts put together another impressive march, as Manning again capped it with a two-yard TD strike to FB Tom Lopienski for a 21-10 lead.

The scoring torrent finally abated as the Chiefs failed to score on their final first-half possession, thanks to a 31-yard touchdown that was called back on an offensive pass interference call on TE Tony Gonzalez and a missed 31-yard field goal.

Holmes ripped off a 48-yard dash on the second play of the third quarter, but had the ball ripped loose by CB David Macklin who recovered the fumble at the Colts 22-yard line. Indianapolis would cash the turnover in with a 45-yard FG from K Mike Vanderjagt for a 24-10 lead.

Holmes would exact revenge on the Chiefs next drive as he accounted for 44 yards rushing and a one-yard TD dive. After a Manning-to-Reggie Wayne TD pass boosted the Colts margin to 31-17 late in the third quarter, WR Dante Hall responded by returning the ensuing kickoff 92 yards for his second TD of the game. Hall's 208 kickoff return yards on the day set a Chiefs single-game postseason record and were the third-highest total in NFL postseason history.

Indianapolis would answer with a one-yard TD from James, building an insurmountable 38-24 lead. The Chiefs made it interesting though as Holmes scored on a one-yard TD run with 4:22 remaining to make the score 38-31. But Kansas City's defense couldn't get the ball back until just 0:08 remained on the clock, leaving the Chiefs out of time for a comeback.

Colts 23, Chiefs 8

January 6, 2007 • RCA Dome • 57,215

KANSAS CITY	0	0	8	0	— 8
INDIANAPOLIS	6	3	7	7	— 23

The Chiefs fell behind 16-0 in an AFC Wild Card contest at Indianapolis and never could find the offensive rhythm to get back into the game, falling by a score of 23-8 at the RCA Dome. The Colts outgained the Chiefs by a 435-to-126 margin in total yards and limited Kansas City to just one-of-11 on third downs.

Despite a valiant defensive effort by Kansas City that held the Colts third-ranked offense out of the end zone for over 40 minutes, Indy shut down the Chiefs offensive attack. The Colts dominated nearly every category of the first half, but KC's defense kept them in the game by forcing three QB Peyton Manning INTs and relinquishing three first-half FGs, instead of TDs.

The Chiefs went three plays and out on each of their six first-half possessions and the Colts capitalized on three of their ensuing drives. On Indianapolis' first drive rookie RB Joseph Addai ripped off runs of 10 and nine yards to set up a 48-yard field goal.

On the Colts second drive Manning and WR Marvin Harrison converted on third-and-eight with a 42-yard pass to the Chiefs 25-yard line. Indianapolis would reach the KC one-yard line, but like they did on the first drive the Chiefs defense forced them to settle for a 19-yard K Adam Vinatieri field goal and a 6-0 lead.

The Chiefs squandered a golden opportunity to take the lead in the second quarter. CB Ty Law – who is no stranger to the playoffs with 13 postseason starts – intercepted Manning for his fifth postseason INT and returned it to the Colts nine-yard line. RB Larry Johnson ran the ball to the two, setting up third-and-goal. However QB Trent Green fell on third down after being stepped on as he pulled from center. Things got worse for Kansas City when K Lawrence Tynes' 23-yard field goal try hit the left upright, leaving the score at 6-0.

Kansas City dodged another bullet when rookie S Jarrad Page picked off Manning at the KC two-yard line with 1:50 left in the first half. However, once again the Chiefs offense couldn't move the ball and the Colts were able to sneak in a third field goal, this time from 50 yards out, to make it 9-0 at intermission.

Manning would throw his third INT of the game on the opening possession of the second half, as Law snared his sixth postseason INT, his fifth career playoff pickoff of Manning. The Chiefs couldn't convert the turnover into points and instead watched Indianapolis rattle off a 12-play, 89-yard TD drive. Manning completed four passes before Addai scored on a six-yard TD run to increase the Colts lead to 16-0.

With 3:38 remaining in the third quarter, the Chiefs finally notched their initial first down of the game on a six-yard pass from Green to TE Tony Gonzalez. That jumpstarted the offense as they would rattle off 60 yards en route to a Green-to-Gonzalez six-yard TD. A successful two-point conversion from Green to TE Kris Wilson cut the Colts lead to 16-8 after three quarters.

The one-possession deficit would not last long however as the Colts engineered a back-breaking, nine-play, 71-yard scoring drive that finished with a Manning-to-WR Reggie Wayne five-yard TD and moved Indianapolis ahead by a 23-8 margin.

The Chiefs still had hope with 4:00 left when they moved the ball to the Indy 26-yard line, but Green was sacked and stripped by DE Robert Mathis. Indianapolis would register its third turnover of the game on Kansas City's final possession, clinching the Colts 23-8 win.

Regular kicker or punter during that period.*

Notes: The Chiefs All-Time Roster includes all players who were on the active roster for at least one regular season game or playoff contest. It also includes players who accrued at least one season as a member of a reserve or injury list. The one exception to this criteria is RB Stone Johnson, who had his number 33 retired after suffering a fatal injury in a '63 preseason contest. Jersey numbers refer to those numbers worn only in regular season or postseason play.

Notes: No assistant coaches were designated as coordinators during Hank Stram's tenure as head coach from '60-74. The first assistants in Chiefs history to hold the title of coordinator or special teams coach came under head coach Paul Wiggin in '75. Although subsequent staffs did not always specifically denote coordinators, every attempt has been made to indicate the offensive and defensive play-callers if it was an individual other than the head coach. Beginning with Frank Gansz's staff in '87, three separate individuals have carried the titles of offensive and defensive coordinator, as well as special teams coach each subsequent season except for 2009 under Todd Haley.

Bold Denotes Players Who Eventually Made the Chiefs All-Time Roster.

Note: Starting in '89, the NFL allowed teams to establish a five-man practice squad the day following the league's final roster cutdown. Practice squads were expanded to eight players in 2004.*

CHIEFS IN THE PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Southern Methodist
Foolish Club (1959)

Chiefs Hall of Fame (1970)
Pro Football Hall of Fame (1972)

Founded the American Football League in '59 and served as the league's first President … Was the first AFL figure to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29, 1972 ... Described as the "architect, designer and builder of an impossible dream" by his Hall of Fame presenter, William Sullivan ... His Dallas Texans took the field as one of the AFL's charter franchises in '60 and became the Kansas City Chiefs in '63 … Served as a principal figure in the negotiations that resulted in the AFL-NFL merger which was announced in '66 and fully completed in '70 … Played a pivotal role in designing the league's current playoff format, as well as the adoption of the old AFL two-point conversion rule into NFL play in '94 … Held the post of President of the American Football Conference ... Since '84, the AFC Championship Game trophy has carried his name ... Saw the Chiefs win three AFL titles ('62, '66 and '69), as well as a Lombardi Trophy from Super Bowl IV ... Was credited with accidentally putting the name "Super Bowl" on the NFL's championship game ... Graduated from Southern Methodist University in '56 with a B.S. in Geology ... Was a reserve end on SMU's football team ... He is survived by his wife, Norma and their four children, Lamar Jr., Sharron Munson, Clark and Daniel, as well as 14 grandchildren … Born August 2, 1932 in El Dorado, Arkansas ... Died December 13, 2006 in Dallas, Texas.

THE LAMAR HUNT TROPHY

The Lamar Hunt Trophy is presented annually to the winner of the American Football Conference Championship Game. The trophy, which was originially designed by Don Weller, features a bas-relief action friez developed by Merv Corning. It has a black walnut wood base with an engraved bronze faceplate. The AFC monogram is cast in bronze with a high-gloss front and back and a soft satin finish on the top and sides. The frieze is a classic football action cast in heavy silver plate. The trophy was authorized by NFL club presidents in '83 and was first presented to Miami following the '84 season. The NFL is redesigning the trophy in 2010 and it will be presented for the first time at the AFC Championship Game.

78 Bobby BELL

Minnesota
Draft (No. 7 - 1963)

Chiefs Hall of Fame (1980)
Pro Football Hall of Fame (1983)

Considered by many as the greatest outside linebacker to ever play the game ... Became the first Chiefs player to be enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame when he was presented by Hank Stram on July 30, 1983 ... Was just the fifth American Football League performer to be immortalized in Canton … Superb athlete began his pro career as a defensive end because the Chiefs needed help at that position when he joined the club as a seventh-round draft choice in '63 ... Was moved to linebacker in '65, where he earned a spot in the AFL All-Star game or the Pro Bowl each of the next nine years ... Was named to the AFL's All-Time Team by the Pro Football Hall of Fame ... Starred on two AFL Championship teams, playing in Super Bowls I and IV ... Did not miss a contest during his 12-year career, playing in 168 consecutive games ... Intercepted 26 passes and recovered 15 fumbles … Scored nine career TDs, including a 53-yard kickoff return ... His eight defensive touchdowns are the most of any player in franchise annals … Versatile performer handled deep snapping on punts and kicks for the Chiefs … Began his collegiate career as a quarterback at Minnesota ... Switched to defensive tackle as a sophomore and earned All-America honors at that position as both a junior and senior ... Received the Outland Trophy as college football's outstanding lineman in '62 ... Played on the College All-Star team that defeated the Green Bay Packers in '63 ... Is enshrined in the College Football (1991) and Missouri Sports Halls of Fame (1995) ... Was an all-state QB at Cleveland High School in Shelby, North Carolina ... Resides in Kansas City where he does marketing for Factory Motor Parts … Born June 17, 1940 in Shelby, North Carolina.

Quarterback • 1962-75

Purdue
Free Agent (1962)

Chiefs Hall of Fame (1979)
Pro Football Hall of Fame (1987)

Heart and soul of the Texans/Chiefs franchise during his illustrious career ... Presented by Hank Stram during Canton enshrinement ceremonies on August 8, 1987 ... During his tenure as the team's field general, he helped make the Chiefs one of pro football's premier teams and wound up among the elite passers in the game's history ... Under his guidance, the Chiefs were perennial contenders and won the AFL Championships in '62, '66 and '69 ... Was MVP of Super Bowl IV when he directed Kansas City to a 23-7 win over the heavily-favored Minnesota Vikings ... Won the AFL passing title four times and still holds Chiefs career marks for pass attempts (3,696), completions (2,115), passing yards (28,507) and touchdowns (237) ... Started his pro career as a first-round draft pick of Pittsburgh in '57, then landed with Cleveland before being cut by the Browns on June 12, 1962 … Was signed by the Texans as a free agent on July 2, 1962 ... Named to six AFL All-Star teams and one Pro Bowl squad ('71) ... Named AFL Player of the Year in '62 ... Started 158 regular season games for Kansas City, by far the most of any signal-caller in franchise history ... Led the AFL in passing four different seasons ('62, '64, '66 and '68) … Paced the AFL in completion percentage eight times, including a string of six straight seasons from '64-69, the longest streak in NFL history … Named the '73 NFL Man of the Year as pro football's outstanding player-citizen ... Retired on May 1, 1976 … Was enshrined in the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in '94 … Led the Big Ten in passing and total offense for three seasons at Purdue ... Does color commentary on the Chiefs Fox Football Radio Network and is a sports analyst at KMBC-TV in Kansas City ... Nicknamed "Lenny the Cool" ... Born June 20, 1935 in Alliance, Ohio.

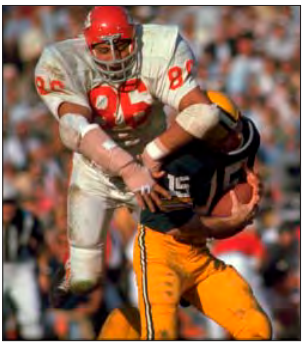
86 Buck BUCHANAN

Defensive Tackle • 1963-75

Grambling
Draft (No. 1 - 1963)

Chiefs Hall of Fame (1981)
Pro Football Hall of Fame (1990)

Became the third member of the Chiefs feared defense of the '60s and '70s to enter the Pro Football Hall of Fame when he was presented by Hank Stram on August 4, 1990 ... The first overall selection in the '63 AFL Draft, the pick utilized to select Buchanan was acquired in the only trade ever personally orchestrated by Lamar Hunt as the Texans sent QB Cotton Davidson to Oakland ... The Raiders later drafted Hall of Fame G Gene Upshaw in '67 with the expressed purpose of blocking Buchanan, who became the prototype for future pro defensive linemen ... Combined perfect size (6-7, 270) with outstanding strength and deceptive speed (10.2 in the 100) ... Worked briefly as a defensive end during his rookie campaign before becoming a fixture at right defensive tackle ... Helped Kansas City win two AFL crowns and their only Super Bowl following the '69 season ... Had an eight-year stretch where he either went to the AFL All-Star game or the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl ... Was a unanimous All-AFL pick from '66-69 ... His teammates named him Chiefs MVP in '65 and '67 ... In '67 alone he batted down 16 passes at or behind the line of scrimmage ... Played in 182 career regular season games, including a stretch of 166 in a row ... Eddie Robinson, the legendary coach at Grambling where Buchanan was an NAIA All-America choice in '62, called him "the finest lineman I've ever seen." ... Played both offensive and defensive tackle at Grambling ... Enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame in '96 ... Owned All-Pro Construction Company and All-Pro Advertising in Kansas City ... Was captain of both the football and basketball squads at Parker High School in Birmingham, Alabama ... Given name was "Junious," but was known as "Buck" ... Born September 10, 1940 in Gainesville, Alabama and died July 16, 1992 in Kansas City.



BUCK BUCHANAN • 1940-1992

"The first time I met him, I was impressed with his awesome size, speed and agility, but underneath it all, you came away impressed with a tremendous person, a great competitor and a terrific leader. He loved what he represented, his family and the Chiefs."
- Hank Stram • July 1992

Alabama
Draft (No. 1 - 1989)

Chiefs Hall of Fame (2001)
Pro Football Hall of Fame (2009)

Pass rusher extraordinaire became the third Chiefs linebacker to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame ... Served as the heart and soul of the Chiefs franchise for 11 glorious seasons ('89-99) ... Was not only a bona fide star in terms of his contributions on the field, but also illuminated countless lives through his charitable efforts ... Received the '93 NFL Man of the Year Award, the '95 Byron "Whizzer" White Award and was named former President George H. W. Bush's "832nd Point of Light" ... On the field, was one of the most dominant defensive players of his day thanks to his patented sack-and-strip maneuver ... Established Chiefs career records for sacks (126.5), safeties (3), fumble recoveries (19) and forced fumbles (45) ... Only two players in NFL history own more safeties or fumble return TDs (4) ... His 126.5 sacks were the fourth-highest total ever by a linebacker at the time of his death and still rank 12th overall in NFL history ... Produced a club-record 20.0 sacks in '90, including an NFL-record 7.0 sacks vs. Seattle (11/11/90) ... A member of the Hall of Fame's All-Decade Team of the '90s, no player could top his 116.5 sacks during that decade ... The lone player in Chiefs history to see action in three different decades with his final contest coming vs. Oakland (1/2/00) ... Saw duty in 169 games (157 starts) and owns a share of another franchise mark with 10 career playoff appearances ... Won the Mack Lee Hill Award as a rookie in '89 ... Produced nine consecutive Pro Bowl berths following the '89-97 seasons, the second-highest total recorded by a player in Chiefs history ... 90 Neil Smith, Defensive End 1988-96

Inducted 2006

Was one of the bedrocks upon which the Chiefs defensive dominance of the '90s was built ... Paired with LB Derrick Thomas to forge one of the most feared pass rushing duos in NFL history ... Served as a foundation for a franchise-record string of six straight postseason appearances from '90-96, making nine playoff starts over that span ... Possessed an imposing seven-foot wingspan that helped wreck havoc on opponents and allowed him to make a myriad of momentum-changing plays ... Accumulated 86.5 sacks and 29 forced fumbles in Kansas City – totals that both rank second in Chiefs history behind only Thomas – in addition to blocking five FGs ... Will forever be intrinsically linked with his "little buddy" Thomas, but his individual accomplishments clearly stand on their own merit ... Registered double-digit sacks for four straight seasons from '92-95, leading the team or tying for the team lead with Thomas each of those years ... Voted team MVP following the '92 campaign when he had 14.5 sacks and followed up that performance with a career-high 15.0 sacks in '93 ... Played in 138 regular season games for Kansas City, accumulating 546 tackles (403 solo), three INTs with one TD, 13 fumble recoveries with one TD and 22 passes defensed ... Departed Kansas City following the '96 campaign and won a pair of Super Bowl rings with Denver, but it was in Kansas City where his legacy as one of the NFL's most dominant defensive performers of the '90s was clearly solidified ... The Chiefs traded up with Detroit to select Smith with the second overall pick in the '88 NFL Draft ... Was an All-America performer at the University of Nebraska ... Born April 10, 1966 in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Captured AFC West titles in '93, '95 and '97 in addition to leading Kansas City to its first-ever appearance in the AFC Championship Game following the '93 campaign ... Coached his Chiefs teams to a 62-18 (.775) regular season home record at Arrowhead, marking the thrid-best home record in the NFL over that 10-year span ... Registered 30 seasons as a coach in the NFL ranks, including 21 seasons as a head coach with Cleveland ('84-88), Kansas City ('89-98), Washington (2001) and San Diego (2002-06) ... Concluded his NFL head coaching tenure with a 200-126-1 (.613) regular season record and 13 playoff appearances ... Only four coaches in NFL history posted more regular season wins and all are enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame – Don Shula (328), George Halas (318), Tom Landry (250) and Curly Lambeau (226) ... One of only five coaches to lead three different clubs to the playoffs in NFL history ... Was a seventh-round selection of Buffalo in the '65 AFL Draft ... Spent six season in the AFL with Buffalo ('65-68) and Boston ('69-70) ... Born September 23, 1943 in Canonsburg, Pennsylvania.

NFL MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

Willie Lanier (1972) – Following his selection as the '72 Man of the Year, five $4,000 college scholarships were presented in Lanier's name … Was actively involved in a campaign to prevent drug abuse and attended the President's Drug Abuse Council in Washington, D.C. in '71 … "Drugs are one of the worst things that could happen to a potential genius or a mind of someone who could offer a lot to society," Lanier said in '72 … Played a prominent role with the American Cancer Society in Kansas City and was Chairman of a $100,000 capital campaign for the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Kansas City … Has awarded $420,000 in scholarships to Morgan State University and public school students in Richmond, Virginia dating back to '86.

Len Dawson (1973) – Selected by a vote of NFL fans as the '73 Man of the Year … Said Dawson at the time, "If we have the opportunity, we can't turn our backs on people. We can do two things with children – help them or hinder them. I want to help." ... Was actively involved in numerous charitable endeavors, including the March of Dimes and the Missouri Driving Safety Program … Served as the '72 Missouri Chairman for the "I Quit" anti-smoking campaign sponsored by the American Cancer Society … Was also a longtime chairman of the Chiefs Huddle Club which sponsored various youth activities … Every year since '77 he has awarded the "Len Dawson Scholarship" to a Kansas City area high school senior.

Derrick Thomas (1993) – Through his "Third and Long Foundation" helped promote children's literacy in Kansas City … Started an inner-city reading program and read to children at local libraries each Saturday prior to home games … Was designated by President George H.W. Bush as the "832nd point of light" … Also selected as the winner of the Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award in '95 by the NFL Players Association … Thomas' father Air Force Captain Robert Thomas was shot down on a B-52 mission in Vietnam, leading Thomas to become an avid supporter of veterans and military personnel. He was the recipient of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall of Fame Award in '99.

Will Shields (2003) – Formed the "Will to Succeed Foundation" with his wife Senia in '93. To date, the foundation has benefited more than 100,000 individuals … Primary foundation benefactors include children's agencies, centers for abused and neglected women and children … The foundation also promotes literacy and creativity initiatives … Was the inaugural winner of Pro Football Weekly's Arthur S. Arkush Humanitarian Award in '99 and was named the 2001 NFL Good Guy of the Year by The Sporting News … The Shields are also members of the Mid-America Education Hall of Fame and were the first NFL couple recognized for their charitable efforts by The Citizenship Through Sports Alliance.

Brian Waters (2009) – Four-time Pro Bowler became Kansas City's fifth NFL Man of the Year honoree after forming the "Brian Waters 54 Foundation" in 2004 ... Since its inception, tens of thousands of children and families in the Greater Kansas City area as well as the state of Texas have been positively impacted ... To date, his foundation has awarded 82 college scholarships to low-income students ... His back-to-school program provides backpacks full of school supplies, as well as haircuts, uniforms, shoes, immunizations and dental care, benefitting thousands of children ... The 54 Foundation partners with more than 20 different agencies annually.

USA TODAY ALL-JOE TEAM

The USA Today All-Joe Team takes its name from former Chiefs DT Joe Phillips who played 14 seasons for Kansas City, San Diego, St. Louis and Minnesota before retiring following the '99 season. According to USA Today's Larry Weisman, the All-Joe Team is represented by "hard-working, overlooked, underappreciated players who do the dirty work simply because that's their lot in life."

MACK LEE HILL & DERRICK THOMAS AWARDS

Each year since '66, Chiefs players have selected a recipient for the Mack Lee Hill Award. It is a tribute to the late Mack Lee Hill, an outstanding running back who played for the Chiefs in '64 and '65. He was described as a man who played as much with his heart as he did with his driving legs in the early days of the American Football League.

In memory and tribute to Hill, the award is presented annually to the Chiefs rookie or first-year player who, as the inscription on the trophy reads - "best exemplifies the spirit of the late Mack Lee Hill ... the man with the giant heart and the quiet way." In selecting the recipient, the Chiefs veterans look for a first-year player who has displayed the spirit and attitude of Mack Lee Hill.

K Ryan Succop was the 2009 recipient of the Mack Lee Hill Award. Succop made 86.21 percent of his FGs (25 of 29), tying for the best FG make percentage by a rookie since the AFL-NFL merger (min. 20 atts.). He was perfect on his FGs from inside 40 yards, converting 17 of 17. He set a Chiefs rookie record with 25 made FGs, passing Hall of Fame K Jan Stenerud's mark of 21 set in '67. He added 29 PATs to his 25 FGs to lead the team with 104 points, marking the highest point total for all NFL rookies in 2009.

RB Mack Lee Hill bursts forward for yardage against the Chargers during his memorable two-year pro career with the Chiefs.

For the past 28 years the Chiefs have upheld a tradition of selecting the club's Most Valuable Player. Named in honor of the late Derrick Thomas, this Chiefs custom is especially meaningful for its recipients not only because of the man that it is named in honor of, but also because it is selected by a vote of their peers. Thomas was the heart and soul of the Kansas City defense from '89-99.

One of the most popular figures in Chiefs history, Thomas was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2009. A member of the Hall of Fame's NFL All-Decade Team of the '90s, Thomas was the cornerstone around whom the Chiefs franchise was rebuilt.

Thomas owns franchise career records for sacks (126.5), safeties (3), fumble recoveries (19) and forced fumbles (45). Thomas recorded an NFL single-game record 7.0 sacks vs. Seattle (11/11/90). During the '90s, no other NFL player recorded more sacks than Thomas' total of 116.5, including a franchise-record 20.0 sacks for the Chiefs in '90.

RB Jamaal Charles was named the 2009 winner of the Derrick Thomas Award. Charles registered 1,120 rushing yards in 2009, with 968 of those yards coming in the season's final eight contests, the second-highest total in the NFL over that span. Charles became the first NFL player to register 1,100 or more yards in under 200 carries, recording only 190 caries.

Charles finished the season with 2,342 combined net yards, the second-highest seasonal total in franchise history. He recorded five 100-yard rushing performances in the final eight games, including a franchise-record 259 rushing yard performance at Denver (1/3/10).

LB Derrick Thomas was one of the most brilliant performers and brightest personalities ever to wear a Kansas City Chiefs uniform.

GAME-WINNING FIELD GOALS

Of the 38 game-winning field goals in franchise annals, the biggest was a 25-yard kick by K Tommy Brooker that ended the second-longest game in pro football history. Brooker's FG concluded the '62 AFL Championship Game with an elapsed time of 77:54 as the Dallas Texans claimed a 20-17 win at Houston (12/13/62). Brooker received a celebratory postgame escort off the field from TE Fred Arbanas (#84) and DB Bobby Hunt (#20). Among the seven other kickers to hit a game-winning kick for Kansas City, K Nick Lowery booted a team-record 14 game-winning FGs, while K Pete Stoyanovich owns the longest kick to ever win a game for the Chiefs, a 54-yard effort vs. Denver (11/16/97).

ORIGIN OF THE TERM "SUPER BOWL"

Lamar Hunt left an indelible mark on professional football. While Hunt made many lasting contributions to the game, part of his legacy will be his "accidental" naming of pro football's most important contest, the Super Bowl. As the story has been told and retold over the years, some of the facts have gotten lost along the way. Here are some of the most important elements of the tale in how the Super Bowl got its name...

- After the AFL-NFL merger was announced in June of 1966, Commissioner Pete Rozelle appointed a committee consisting of himself, Lamar Hunt (Kansas City), Tex Schramm (Dallas) and two other owners from each league (AFL & NFL) to firm up the details of the merger agreement.

Pete Rozelle and Lamar Hunt both played pivotal roles in shaping professional football.

- At one of those initial merger meetings, there was a discussion about the date of the game. As the committee discussed the championship game (which ultimately became referenced as the Super Bowl), there was some confusion on whether the parties were discussing the respective AFL and NFL title games or the game between the two leagues. It was then that Hunt first recalled saying, "You know, the last game, the final game . . . the Super Bowl."

- The "inspiration" for Hunt's whimsical suggestion was the high-bouncing "Super Ball" produced by the Wham-O company. Lamar's wife, Norma, had previously purchased one for each of the Hunt children (Lamar, Jr., Clark and Sharron) and the toy had become somewhat of a craze in the Hunt household and many other homes across the country.

- Hunt was later quoted as saying, "Nobody ever said let's make that the name of the game. Far from it, we all agreed it was far too corny to be the name of the new title game."

- In a letter from Hunt to Rozelle on July 25, 1966, Hunt urged the commissioner to "coin a phrase" for the title game between the two leagues. In the letter, Hunt said, "I have kiddingly called it the Super Bowl, which can obviously be improved upon."

- Rozelle agreed with Hunt's suggestion since he had a particular disdain for the term "super." According to longtime NFL executive Don Weiss, Rozelle was a former PR man who had a keen appreciation of grammar. In Rozelle's book, "super" was the equivalent of "gee whiz" or "neat." He believed that the term "Super Bowl" had no sophistication whatsoever.

- Rozelle was initially inclined to call the game the "Pro Bowl," but that moniker was already assigned to the NFL's annual all-star contest.

- In the years leading up to the merger, many members of the media had billed a possible championship match-up between the two rival leagues as a "World Series of Football," but Rozelle clearly did not want to have his game associated with baseball.

- After much consternation and debate, Rozelle eventually dubbed the title contest between the two leagues as "The AFL-NFL World Championship Game." However, Hunt's whimsical, off-the-cuff comment had taken root. In the weeks leading up to the game, headline writers had already adapted Hunt's two-word title over the much more verbose official moniker for the game. The TV networks billed the game as "Super Sunday" and even NFL Films tagged their film reels as being designated for the "Super Bowl."

- After the first two "AFL-NFL World Championship Games," the term "Super Bowl" was officially adopted by Commissioner Rozelle and the NFL. The first game to officially be designated as the Super Bowl at the time it was played was Super Bowl III between the AFL's Jets and the NFL's Colts. The first two championship games were retroactively named Super Bowls I & II.

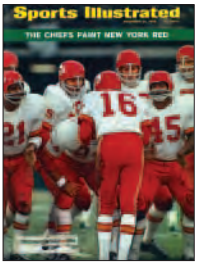
CHIEFS ON SPORTS ILLUSTRATED COVERS

The Chiefs have been featured prominently on the cover of Sports Illustrated on 10 different occasions in franchise history. Three of those SI cover appearances came courtesy of Hall of Fame QB Joe Montana, who was acquired in a trade with San Francisco in '93 and eventually guided the Chiefs to an AFC Championship Game appearance that season. Here are some of the highlights of Kansas City's Sports Illustrated cover appearances . . .



Chiefs Paint New York Red (November 24, 1969): Kansas City's initial Sports Illustrated cover shot came during the club's Super Bowl IV season in '69 following a 34-16 win at the N.Y. Jets (11/16/69). While the Jets were defending Super Bowl III champions, New York could not overcome three TD passes from QB Len Dawson to WR Otis Taylor in that contest. The Chiefs later defeated QB Joe Namath and company in the '69 AFL Playoffs in a game that featured a storied goal-line stand by Kansas City's defense.

Len Dawson Engineers Superchief Upset (January 19, 1970): After claiming their third American Football League title, the Chiefs made one final stand for the AFL with a 23-7 victory over the heavily-favored Vikings in Super Bowl IV. Minnesota's "Purple People Eaters" had lost just two games all season, but Chiefs head coach Hank Stram devised the perfect plan to "matriculate the ball down the field." QB Len Dawson – who was named the game's MVP – led an offense which executed the famed "64 Toss Power Trap" to perfection, while the Chiefs defense limited the Vikings to just one score as Kansas City claimed the Lombardi Trophy.

Cool, Joe – Montana Magic Strikes Again (January 24, 1994): QB Joe Montana made his third appearance on the cover of Sports Illustrated as a member of the Chiefs following the club's 28-20 upset win in an AFC Divisional Playoff Game at Houston (1/16/94). Fresh off of a 27-24 OT victory in an AFC Wild Card Game vs. Pittsburgh (1/8/94), the Chiefs earned a berth in their first-ever AFC Championship Game thanks to Montana, who rallied the Chiefs from an early 10-0 deficit against the Oilers. While the Chiefs offense posted 21 points in the fourth quarter, Kansas City's defense registered 7.0 sacks.

Super Bowl XXXI – It's Going to be Kansas City vs. Green Bay (September 2, 1996): The prognosticators at Sports Illustrated were half right when they picked the Chiefs to meet the Packers in Super Bowl XXXI in the publication's '96 preseason issue that featured a fold-out cover. One side featured Chiefs QB Steve Bono, DE Neil Smith and RB Marcus Allen, while the other side depicted Packers WR Robert Brooks, DE Reggie White and QB Brett Favre. Although the Chiefs were coming off a 13-3 campaign in '95, they couldn't replicate that success in '96, finishing the year with a 9-7 record. One of those victories was a 27-20 win vs. Green Bay (11/10/96), but it would be the Packers who would go on to claim the Lombardi Trophy with a triumph in Super Bowl XXXI over New England.

The Chiefs Perfect (So Far) (November 17, 2003): QB Trent Green became the fourth Chiefs signal caller to earn a spot on the cover of Sports Illustrated thanks to Kansas City's 9-0 start to open the 2003 campaign. That nine-game winning streak featured a remarkable run by WR Dante Hall, who produced a kickoff return or punt return for a touchdown in four consecutive games. That victory stretch also was highlighted by Green's performance in a 40-34 OT win at Green Bay (10/12/03). Green led the Chiefs back from a 17-point deficit in the fourth quarter and found WR Eddie Kennison on a 51-yard TD pass in the extra period to provide the game-winning points.

CHIEFS TELEVISION NETWORK

The Chiefs Television Network is set to broadcast all four Chiefs preseason games to 10 different markets in a five-state region that includes Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska and Oklahoma. Anchored by KCTV5 in Kansas City, the Chiefs Television Network will broadcast all the club's preseason games in HD.

Trent Green, who will handle color commentary on the Chiefs Television Network, concluded his 16-year NFL playing career in 2008 and launched his NFL broadcasting career with FOX Sports in 2009. In six seasons with Kansas City (2001-06), Green established franchise career records for passer rating (87.3), completion percentage (61.94) and 300-yard games (24). A two-time winner of the Derrick Thomas Award as Kansas City's MVP (2003-04), Green threw for 21,459 yards with 118 TDs in a Chiefs uniform, numbers topped only by Hall of Fame QB Len Dawson.

One of the Midwest's most respected and versatile broadcasters, Mike Kelly will handle the play-by-play duties on the Chiefs Television Network. Kelly was named the "Voice of the Missouri Tigers" in '94 after beginning his broadcast duties with Missouri basketball during the '90-91 campaign. In total, the Dupo, Illinois native has called more than 700 Mizzou football and basketball games. Kelly has called NFL and NCAA games for CBS Radio, and also owns experience broadcasting Major League Baseball contests for the St. Louis Cardinals. KCTV-5 Sports Director Michael Coleman will report from the sidelines.

CHIEFS AWARD GRANT TO POLICE ATHLETIC LEAGUE

On June 17th, Chiefs President Denny Thum (second from right) announced a $100,000 grant the Police Athletic League has been awarded from the Chiefs, the National Football League's Youth Football Fund and the Greater Kansas City Local Initiatives Support Corporation (LISC). This funding will be matched by other community partners to provide a new natural turf field at the PAL Center. The Chiefs organization has now donated $1.98 million for 11 metro-area field installation/ renovation projects over the past 12 years.

CHIEFS AID HAITI EARTHQUAKE VICTIMS

The Kansas City Chiefs linebackers joined together with Heart to Heart International under the "Chiefs Community Caring Team" banner to help Haitians in need. During this visit to Heart to Heart International's Global Distribution Center, the LBs assembled personal hygiene kits. These vital supplies were then sent directly to Haiti. There, they assisted those dealing with the aftermath of a magnitude 7.0 earthquake that shook the country on January 12th.

CHIEFS SUPPORT THE NFL'S "PLAY 60" INITIATIVE

The Kansas City Chiefs continue to fight the growing epidemic of childhood obesity by actively participating in "Play 60" programming. The Chiefs actively support "Play 60" with various activities throughout the entire year.

This year's Chiefs "Play 60" game will be held vs. the Denver Broncos at Arrowhead (12/5). The game serves as a platform to reinforce the importance of being a healthy, active child. Area youth that embody the "Play 60" message will be guests during pregame ceremonies and rub elbows with their gridiron favorites.

On behalf of the Chiefs Community Caring Team, various player position groups visit metro-area elementary schools as part of the "Chiefs Play 60 Challenge." There, players speak about the benefits of eating right and getting at least 60 minutes of activity a day. Following that, the students are led through various exercise stations. The Chiefs and the American Heart Association created this "Chiefs Play 60 Challenge" curriculum to inspire kids to be active each and every day.

Located inside the New Arrowhead, the "Chiefs Sports Lab" is a "one-of-a-kind" destination that features hands-on and interactive computer activities for students and children. It promotes the importance of being active in your daily life, good nutrition and healthy living. Those visiting the Chiefs Sports Lab even take home a 30-page "Playbook for Life" that reinforces the lessons learned on this field trip. Additionally, there's an in-school program that includes portable activity lockers and mini-lab, enhancing the Chiefs Sports Lab experience.

The Chiefs are also continuing their active support of local youth football initiatives. Thanks to facilities and programs including the Chiefs Youth Football Field, High School Player Development, the USA Football Coaching Forum and School and participation in various youth football camps and clinics, thousands of local children are encouraged each year to get off the couch and get moving by playing their favorite sport.
